Critic Says '34 Student Writer Is Above Undergraduate Writing

by Richard Clarkson

The Student Writer for this year is a student whose name is above that of any undergraduate. The contributions of the contributors are not only the work of young men, but also the young women who have given much of their time to the essay writing. The memory of the eighteenth-century essayists will remain with us more closely on Montesquieu Day than on any other day, but the memory of the essayists of this essay will be in the case of the following year. The memory of life, at the time I was a student in the University, of the same hope, the same optimism which we strive for.

THE FUTURE FOR THE GRADUATE

During the coming month, our colleges are contributing thousands of graduates to a world already burdened with a surplus of a type the surplus would have no difficulty in swallowing, even if it could accommodate it in its stomach. These new graduates are not, of course, all going to the same end. Some find employment fairly rapidly, and do their work satisfactorily. Many find employment after a time, and do their work satisfactorily. But a large percentage spend months in between doing nothing at all, or doing work which is not to the best advantage of themselves or society.

The University of Illinois organized the key-words of modernism to observe World War II, and it made a study of conditions under which young men were trained. The study showed that the mental and emotional condition of these young men was not as healthy as it should be, considering the sacrifices they had made for the sake of their country. This was true of a large percentage of the college graduates, and the same is true of the graduates of high schools and universities.

The idea is not that these young men are not doing their work satisfactorily. Many of them are doing good work, and it is to be hoped that they continue to do so. But the idea is that they are not doing their work in the most efficient manner. They are not utilizing the full potentialities of their minds, and they are not making the most of the opportunities which are open to them.

This is a problem which is not new, but it is one which is becoming more and more acute. The situation is not likely to improve, and it is not likely to become better, unless something is done about it. There are a number of things that can be done, and they should be done, if we want to create a more efficient and more productive society.

CLASS-CUTTING—A PROBLEM

With the coming of warm spring days the problem of class cuts assumes more serious proportions if one is to judge by the dining-hall throngs. Some of our faculty as well as some of our student body seem to have the mistaken idea that there is no necessity for class cuts. This is a mistaken idea, and it is one that is growing more and more common.

At the same time, there are not many such lines and it is a good story. There is a certain amount of realism in the character delineation and the story is sentimental and not very imaginative. Miss Alden may very well be an imposing character, but the story is not a good one.

INN EMPLOYEES IN TOURNAMENT

We are wondering: where are they now? and why? Do they still have their own country in the past World War? or if they were celebrating the New Year a little ahead of time.

It was a perfect weekend for tennis. The main event was the tournament, which was a nice way to end the season. There was a victory over Smith College's team, but there was no tennis game for the Eastern Cup.

The tournament, although begun late in the term, is intended to indicate the players' ability and to give them a chance to practice for the upcoming matches.

The tournament was attended by

Lyons vs. Calderwood; Speare vs. Hendricks; Belyea vs. Bogeart; Kerr vs. Barker, and Ranehynoski.

We are still puzzling out for ourselves in determining the antics of substitute goal, Archie Lewis. The problem we are faced with is in determining whether he swung his stick to scare off the opposing team or whether he tried to scare the ball.

The frosh track team closed their season against the St. John runners in a commendable fashion. The Danvers prep school track team was second in the inter-scholastic meet held on Memorial Day.

The summary of the St. John's-Freshman track meet is as follows: 100-yard dash—Won by Pender (SJ); second, Lekesky (NH); third, Trion (NH). 220-yard dash—Won by Wihry (SJ), second, Zielinski (SJ); third, Bigelow (NH). 440-yard dash—Won by Funston (NH), second, Wihry (SJ); third, Zielinski (SJ). 880-yard run—Won by Johnson (NH), second, Zielinski (SJ). 1 mile—Won by Shenk (SJ), second, Zielinski (SJ). 440-yard hurdles—Won by Wihry (SJ), second, Zielinski (SJ). 2-mile—Won by Shenk (SJ), second, Zielinski (SJ). 100-yard dash—Won by Funston (NH), second, Zielinski (SJ). 220-yard dash—Won by Funston (NH), second, Parks (S); third, Cunningham (NH). 440-yard hurdles—Won by Wihry (SJ), second, Zielinski (SJ). 880-yard run—Won by Shenk (SJ), second, Zielinski (SJ). 1 mile—Won by Shenk (SJ), second, Zielinski (SJ). 440-yard hurdles—Won by Wihry (SJ), second, Zielinski (SJ). 2-mile—Won by Shenk (SJ), second, Zielinski (SJ).

The New Hampshire varsity baseball team ended their season with a victory over Holy Cross and a close decision to Brown. Their season ends with a victory over Brown, their only loss to Springfield College.

New Hampshire's varsity baseball team had a successful season. Their record of 10-9 is not as good as it might have been, but they are satisfied with their season. The team played well and were successful in their home games.

We are wondering: if Jimmy Dunbar is home on Memorial Day to mourn the men who gave their lives for their country in the past World War.

If only the morale of the track team was the same as they displayed against the Gymnast tracksters, their showing in the New Englands might have been a little brighter. There may have been a different winner. Who knows.

We are wondering: if there is going to be a tennis team. If one takes the time to inspect all the facilities for this potential team.

We are wondering: whether there is going to be a tennis team. If one takes the time to inspect all the facilities for this potential team.

To celebrate the opening of new offices in the city, there will be a special sale on all the mild, clean center leaves. These are the mildest leaves:

Critics Say '34 Student Is Above-graduate Writing

Curtis S. Lord

Why is there such a difference in the quality of student writing today? One reason is that the modern student is more interested in expressing his thoughts than in following the rules of grammar and punctuation. Another reason is that there are more speakers than ever before in the world today. With all these factors working together, it is no wonder that the quality of student writing today is not as good as it could be.
