File this under “not too shabby.” Not Too Sharp, UNH’s all-male a cappella group, will make its network television debut next week. The group went to Manhattan recently to record a two-song segment for the TODAY show that will be televised on Christmas morning.

Word on the street is they're neither sharp nor flat. But don't resort to rumors; hear for yourself in this sample, and then tune in on December 25 to see them at their Big Apple best!
