President Confirms Rumored “C.O.” Excuse

Reveals Authority Given Him by UNH Board of Trustees

Will Excuse Students Who Prove Conscientious Ob­jection to Work

Conference of a report that a number of freshmen, understood to be from the Class of 1936, have been excused from military duty and will not be required to register for induction, was made yesterday by President Edward W. Lewis. But no statement was made as to the number of students involved, or for which they were excused, or the date the excusals were made. It was rumoured on campus yesterday that the authority to excuse the students was given to President Lewis by the board of trustees at its meeting last Wednesday. However, President Lewis denied that this was so. The statement made was that the authority to excuse the students was given to President Lewis by the board of trustees at its meeting last Wednesday.

No Names Given

The president had been made the proper authority to issue the excusals by the board of trustees at its meeting last Wednesday, according to the university president. It was said that the students had been excused from military duty and will not be required to register for induction, but that no further information would be given until the matter was cleared up by the board of trustees.

Train Regulated

The regulation of the train schedule is being enforced by the board of trustees. It was said that the students had been excused from military duty and will not be required to register for induction, but that no further information would be given until the matter was cleared up by the board of trustees.

Mayoralty Campaign Is Now a Tradition Eight Years Old

The present mayoralty campaign calls to the mind of old Durhamites the memory of other campaigns which amused and entertained them. The campaign is a tradition of the city and has been going on for eight years.

SHADOW OVER EUROPE

As the New Hampshire is being prepared for its annual session, there is a great deal of activity in the Atlantic that three major figures in European politics and political life have not quite been able to follow through completely.

Three men, King Alexander of Yugoslavia, the Foreign Minister of France, and Fuhrer of the Third Reich, have been the subject of intensive interest, but the New Hampshire is not the only place where their activities have been watched with keen interest.

The King of Yugoslavia has been the subject of much discussion in recent weeks, and the New Hampshire is not the only place where his activities have been watched with keen interest.

The Foreign Minister of France has been the subject of much discussion in recent weeks, and the New Hampshire is not the only place where his activities have been watched with keen interest.

The Fuhrer of the Third Reich has been the subject of much discussion in recent weeks, and the New Hampshire is not the only place where his activities have been watched with keen interest.
