Famous Speakers to Give Lectures During Coming Months

Social Problems Forum sponsored by University

The Psychological Club in cooperation with the American Social Science Association and the University of New Hampshire is to present a series of social problems forums during the year. These forums are sponsored by the University's social work students, and are to be held in the University's social work building.

Mr. George Washington, author of "A Program for the Restoration of Normalcy," will be the guest speaker at the first forum, which will be held at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, November 20, in the University's social work building.

Mr. Washington will discuss the problems of social reconstruction as they relate to the Restoration of Normalcy. His talk will focus on the need for a new approach to social problems, one that takes into account the realities of the present and the potential for change.

Mr. Washington's talk will be followed by a question-and-answer session, during which audience members will have the opportunity to discuss the issues raised in the presentation.

The forum is open to the public, and admission is free. For more information, please contact the University's social work office at (603) 641-2345.

“Quality Street” is Fall Term Selection of Mask and Dagger

We are proud to announce that "Quality Street" is the selection of Mask and Dagger for the fall term. The play will be directed by Mr. John M. Martin, head of the drama department, and presented in the campus auditorium on November 15.

"Quality Street" is a classic drama that explores the human condition through the lens of a small townspeople. It is a story of love, greed, and sacrifice, and it is sure to be an engaging and thought-provoking production.

We encourage all students, faculty, and staff to attend this performance and witness the talents of our Mask and Dagger members. The play will start at 7:30 p.m., and admission is free to all.

Student Council Abolishes Sophomore Court as Part of Reform Move

The Student Council has announced its intention to abolish the Sophomore Court as part of its comprehensive reform package. The Sophomore Court has historically been responsible for hearing cases involving student conduct issues, and the council's decision to eliminate it is seen as a step towards creating a more inclusive and equitable student justice system.

"We believe that every student deserves a fair and impartial hearing, regardless of their status," stated the council's president, Mr. John Smith. "By abolishing the Sophomore Court, we are taking a significant step towards creating a more just and democratic student government."

The council's reform package also includes the establishment of a new appeals process, the implementation of a new code of conduct, and the creation of a new student judicial council. These changes are aimed at ensuring that all students are treated equally under the law and that the student justice system is fair and just for all.

The council's reforms are expected to be implemented in the spring term, following a thorough review and approval by the university's administration.

Radio and Orchestras

The radio and orchestras are now fully in operation and the public is invited to attend the performances. The orchestra is under the direction of Mr. John Doe, and the radio is operated by Mr. Jane Smith. The performances are open to the public and admission is free.

On the Effect of Alcohol

In his latest column, Mr. Jane Smith, the noted social critic, has discussed the effects of alcohol on society. He has pointed out that alcohol use is widespread and that it is a major contributor to social problems. He has also emphasized the need for more responsible drinking.

Recent Events

Under the leadership of Director John Doe, the university is preparing for a major new initiative. The initiative will focus on improving student retention rates and increasing graduation rates. The university has also been working closely with the city to ensure that all students have access to the necessary resources.
