Bow, Nelzans, Brown, and Rowbotham Do Well in Full Term Play

Quality Street, the first Shakespearian play of the season, was given a full and enthusiastic welcome both by the audience and the critics. The new setting created a favorable impression on the auditorium's patrons, and many of them were carried away by the production's realism and the imaginative use of stage design. The show was performed at the Henry Street Playhouse and received a standing ovation at the conclusion of the performance.

Trapped Victim Calls for Aid in Gymnasium

A young man was trapped in the basement of the gymnasium on Tuesday afternoon. He was eventually rescued by a group of students who heard his cries for help. The incident prompted a call for more safety measures to be implemented in the gymnasium.

Proud of Winter Concert

The Winter Concert was held on Thursday evening, featuring a variety of music and performances. The event was well-attended and received positive reviews from the audience.

Campus Calendar

The campus calendar for the upcoming week includes several events, such as a concert featuring the College Orchestra and a debate on international relations. The schedule also includes the closing of the semester and the beginning of the winter term.

Quality Street Plays

The scene of this play is laid in England during the Napoleonic Wars. The play deals with the experiences of women left behind in the homeland while their husbands fight in the war.

Burch Receives Commission

Colonel James Burch received his commission during the winter term.

A new date for the jacket is the Blue Key emblem, a symbol of excellence and achievement. The new style is expected to be popular among students due to its unique design.

Outlook for Hockey

Bright at Present

Four Men of Last Year's Team on Squad—Several Sophos Report

Gunnar, C., Staggs, J., Sharp, W., Westman, L., Better to Play Up

Now that every man has had a neck guard, hockey is in a much better condition before practice started this week. As the season opens closer to the real thing, the men who missed out last year will expect to see double.

The outlook for the varsity hockey team is fine. Both Staggs and Gunnar are back. Staggs was an outstanding performer last year. His defense is sure to be watched for his penchant for fancy moves. Gunnar was a great player for his size. Both men are expected to do well this season.

The other three sophomores who played on the varsity last year are back. Westman, Sharp, and Sharp are expected to do well. Westman is a good all-around player. Sharp is a good scorer, and Sharp is a good defensive player.
