Corcoran Elected
Editor-in-chief of "New Hampshire"

Parker, Verville, Armfield
Get Major Staff Positions

Hersey, Woodbury, Lovely
Hurd Elected to Committee

On Monday evening, March 4, the student council held their regular meeting at the Sigma Chi fraternity house. At the request of the executive committee, Mr. E. E. Hurd was elected to fill the unexpired term of Mr. E. G. Flanders, who has transferred to another college. Mr. Hurd is a third-year engineering student and has held various staff positions in the various organizations in which he has been active. He plans to enter the retail sales field upon graduation and is interested in both business and athletics.

Sociology Club to Become An Honorary Organization

The Sociology Club has been chartered to become an honorary organization.

Student Council Meets to Draft Blanket Tax Proposals

Survey of Other Colleges Shows Advantages of Their Tax

In view of the statements issued by Aramco, the student council decided on Wednesday evening to draft a blanket tax proposal for the spring semester. The student council passed the following resolution:

Resolved, that the student council upon canvassing the student body, and after investigating the tax proposals of other colleges, recommends a blanket tax proposal for the spring semester.

The resolution was presented to the college president by Mr. W. L. Fordham, chairman of the student council, and was accepted by the college president. The proposal will be submitted to the students for approval at the next student council meeting. The proposal will be based on the findings of the investigation conducted by the student council.

Hay Fever Shown by Mask and Dagger, Wed., Thurs. and Fri.

Fowler and Gage Lead in Winter Term

New Coward Play Follows the Best Modern Tradition

by John Steinbeck

A large and enthusiastic audience attended the opening performance of the play "Hay Fever" in the Wilbur Theatre on Wednesday evening, March 3. The play, which is based on the novel of the same name by John Steinbeck, was directed by Mr. W. L. Fordham, chairman of the student council. The play is a modern adaptation of the classic Greek drama, "The Bacchae," and is a satire on the modern world. The production is a joint effort of the student council and the University of New Hampshire Drama Club.

President's Report Presents Building Needs of College

First Official Statement Reveals Finances This Year

Further Contributions to State from Millage Inadvisable

In the annual report of the President, presented at the University of New Hampshire, Dr. W. L. Fordham, president of the university, revealed the financial conditions of the university and the progress of the building program. Dr. Fordham stated that the university is in a sound financial position and that the building program is being conducted in a prudent manner. He also revealed that the university is in need of additional funds for the completion of the building program and that further contributions to state millage will be inadvisable.

Cassie and Caskett, and Student Council Study Rushing Rules

Joint Committee to Review Enforcement of Last Year's Rules

Working in conjunction with the campus health center and the local health department, a joint committee of the student council and the campus health center has been convened to study the enforcement of last year's rushing rules. The joint committee, which is composed of representatives of the student council, the campus health center, and the local health department, will review the enforcement of the rules and make recommendations for their improvement.

New Debating Plan

Given First Test

Used March 4th in Debate Between U. S. M. and Bates

March 4, the University of New Hampshire held its first debate of the year between Bates College and the University of New Hampshire. The debate was held in the Wilbur Theatre and was judged by Mr. W. L. Fordham, chairman of the student council. The debate was a modified cross-examination, with the first side presented by Mr. W. L. Fordham and the second side presented by Mr. W. L. Fordham. The debate was well attended and was a success.

Mascot's Picture

Stationary

Victor Records

College Pharmacy

"The Campus Club"

Soda Fountain

Light Lunches
It may be only a matter of opinion and less of fact. Who can say, for instance, whether James Joyce will later be recognized as a mile-post of our time or as a world-weary and somewhat decadent writer? Into what category has long been desired by lovers of good writing, and Mr. Swinnerton's book attempts to fill that need. Such a critical and analytical approach to the subject of jazz is long overdue.

The play of instruments in this most unusual tune is remarkable and the recording is well worth the price demanded. Jimmy LunCEFORD has returned to the pre-war psychology of nationalism.
Bell System engineers long ago began to work out a way to clear city streets of overload wires. The first telephone cables were crude affairs—a few wires drawn through a pipe and bent around poles. Continuous research for improved designs, better manufacturing methods, and new materials have put the greatest capacity, the cable with the greatest number of wires today—530,000—into service.

More than 94% of the Bell System's wire mileage is now in service on copper, non-resisting cable—one of many developments to improve service.
TRUMP the ACE!

A quick preview: TRUMP the ace of all American clubs! It’s a card that all of us play when things get tight. The ace of Spades! The ace of Clubs! The ace of Diamonds! The ace of Hearts!

And why aren’t we playing TRUMP now? Why are we sitting around? We’re missing out on the big time.

We’ve got to get into the game. We’ve got to start playing TRUMP. It’s the ace of all American clubs. It’s the ace of all American life. It’s the ace of all American fun.

So let’s get started. Let’s TRUMP the ace. Let’s have some fun. Let’s play cards. Let’s play TRUMP. It’s the ace of all American clubs.