Scoring Spark

After playing a typical first half of an unpossessed basketball team, the huskies hoop team came back in the second half with a new lease of life and edged out a strong Northeastern in a 34-32 victory at Boston Saturday night.

The first half ended 13 to 12 with Northeastern ahead after a period of very poor playing on the part of the Wildcats. New Hampshire entered the second half with a strong offense and pushed the score up to 25 to 22 in favor of the Wildcats. Shortly after the half Remmel Brunstein received a head wound which necessitated stitches. Again, Roslan, playing under the handicap of a sound recovery from a bad cold.

Christian Work Inaugurates New Series of Weekly Talks

Last Thursday afternoon, two members of the United Student Movement for Christian Work gave the first in a new series of radio broadcasts over WHEB, from 3:30 to 4:00. The speakers were Miss Elizabeth Boney, director of Christian Work, Inc., and Alexander Karanikas, publicity director and manager of the radio activities of the movement.

Miss Boney read a timely article on the subject of the Lindbergh flight to Great Britain far safer from the "gangsters, kidnappers, and newspaper men" of America. In it was stressed the deplorable fact that the yellow press, the yellow radio, and the yellow movie were all thriving like vultures on lurid sensationalism, and playing upon the baser motives of human beings for the commercial ends that are to be found therein. One of the chief reasons why America's most beloved hero left the country was due to his car being forced off the road by "gangsters, kidnappers, and newspaper men" of America. In it was stressed the deplorable fact that the yellow press, the yellow radio, and the yellow movie were all thriving like vultures on lurid sensationalism.

"Charming, eloquent, sincere—she began her career as a teacher in Fitchburg. Later she taught at the State Normal School and became principal of the training department. In 1912 she was named to the State Board of Education, of which she was a member until her writing and lecture demanding so much of her time that she felt she must give it up."

She has visited in Europe, studied art in various European countries, and has frequently been a delegate to important international conferences. She is described as a pious worker, a fascinating lecturer, thoroughly delightful person. All women and girls who are able to hear her will feel well repaid.
