

AMERICAN LIVING ART EXHIBIT OPENS AT MEMORIAL LIBRARY

Unique Exhibit Method to Bring Art to Average Citizen of Nation

The first of a series of four living American Art exhibits, to be staged simultaneously throughout the nation, was opened at Memorial Library yesterday. The opening of this exhibit at 250 different points in the country at the same time represents the most ambitious plan ever undertaken to make art available to the average citizen and to make American artists self-sustaining.

This first exhibit consists of twelve pictures by twelve living American artists. Three other such exhibits will be held during the year in picture groups of twelve. It inaugurates a plan whereby the work of the best contemporary painters become available to the entire population of the country, and the painter for the first time in the history of art, may secure a living from a royalty on the sale of facsimiles of his work.

The pictures to be included in these exhibits are chosen by a jury from the American Living Art, Inc.,—Louis Bouche, Alexander Brook, Adolf Dehn and Hughes Mearns—as representative of the best work being done today. The selections are determined entirely on their judgment of the value of the painting. Through the Advisory Board which represents all sections of the United States, the work of painters in all parts of the country receives consideration.

Of equal importance with the selection of the finest originals is the necessity of making perfect facsimiles. After many conferences with American Art Museum directors, Charles Boni, Director of American Living Art, Inc., allotted the work to its originator of the collotype process, who has been making reproductions for most of the principal mu-

New Hampshire Colors

Music by Lewis C. Swain, '18
Words by Edward Y. Blewett, '26

We'll take our stand for New Hampshire,
Loyal to colors true.
White from the everlasting hills
And from the boundless ocean, blue.
Wherever college men gather,
Long her worth we'll tell.
All your sons and daughters stand
To sing your praises,
Alma Mater, Hail!

BARNACLES WORK ON SCHOLARSHIP FUND

The Isles of Shoals students, the Barnacles, had their first meeting at the home of Dean and Mrs. Jackson. Their main consideration was increasing a scholarship fund which is used to help one person each year to go to the Shoals for study at the Marine Laboratory. The society hopes to make the fund permanent and in time increase the number of scholarships given.

Next summer will be the tenth anniversary of the Shoals Marine Laboratory; and in celebration of the organization is planning a history of the Shoals. The Barnacles met six times during the year, but their center of activity is Apple-dove Island.

CHRISTIAN WORK HAS OUTING, OCT. 19

The Student Christian movement will hold its first outing of the year on Monday evening, October 19. The party will leave Ballard hall at five o'clock and hike to Dean Eastman's camp off the New-market road.

Freshman campers will be pleased to know that "Pa" Conlon will be present with the movies taken in camp. He will also have a few of his characteristic stories to tell.

The committee under the supervision of Edward Hayes has diligently worked to make the outing successful in every way. All Christian work members desiring to go must be signed up at Miss Bonney's office in Ballard not later than Saturday noon, October seventeenth.

WOMEN'S A. A. DANCE

The Women's Athletic Association will hold a Stag dance on Saturday, October 24. Billy Grad and his orchestra will furnish the music.

WILDCATS PREPARE FOR TOUGH BATTLE AGAINST B. C. SQUAD

Coaches Christensen and Lundholm Groom Men for Open Game

Blaming Saturday's defeat at the hands of Maine on poor pass defense, failure of the line to hurry passers, and a poor choice of plays which ruined the University of New Hampshire's chances of scoring as they straddled the one yard line, Coach Bill Cowell will put his Wildcat football squad through its paces this week with emphasis placed on preparation for an overhead game Saturday with Gil Dobie's Boston College eleven.

Saturday's encounter left the Wildcats more or less unscathed except for minor injuries which are not expected to keep any of last Saturday's players out of the B. C. fray on Lewis Fields. Mike Mirey, veteran fullback who was a consistent ground gainer against the Bears, will be out for a few days with a cut lip, as will Charlie Karazia, weighty halfback and line plunger of Saturday's game. Ben Lelesky, steady left guard for the Wildcats, agitated an old leg injury but is expected back tomorrow.

Backfield Coach Lundholm will have a complete roster of backfield men to send against the Dobie men with Mac Ver-ville, who was outstanding in his broken field running Saturday, expected to start if he can show improvement in blocking this week. In the line, Coach Christensen is grooming Don Currier, senior tackle, to replace Russ Martin on the right side of the forward wall.

Expecting the hardest scrap of the year, coaches of the Wildcat eleven started with scrimmage against the freshmen today in preparing the varsity eleven for an open game against the heavy B. C. team which will invade Dur-

BRIDGE AND COURTS NEAR COMPLETION

The new tennis courts and the span over the B. & M. Railway are rapidly nearing completion.

The new bridge will form a connecting link between the college proper and the athletic fields. Workmen estimate that the bridge, practically completed except for the settling of the fresh asphalt and the finishing of minor details, will be open for use about October 24.

Reports concerning the progress of the tennis courts has it that they will be opened to the students in two weeks. At present the workmen are grading the playing surfaces and erecting the net posts on these 20 courts.

CAULDRONS SPONSOR DANCE SATURDAY

Spot Dance Features Playing by Grad's Orchestra

The Cauldrons, the non-fraternity group, will sponsor the first Boston College-New Hampshire dance in the gym tomorrow night at eight o'clock.

The committee in charge of the dance consists of Harry Kendall, advertising chairman, Arthur Dalrymple and Edward Swidinski.

The newly organized Billy Grads' band will furnish the music. Featured at this dance will be an innovation—a spot dance. During a number the lights will be dimmed and a spotlight will be brought to rest upon a lucky couple, the girl will receive a prize of a bracelet.

Due to the fact that this is the first Boston College-New Hampshire football dance the committee hopes to make this a truly gala affair.

Chaperons will be Mr. and Mrs. John Hauslein and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lundholm.

APPOINTMENTS GIVEN PRACTICE TEACHERS

The first appointments for practice teachers have been made.

Rachael Caron is to teach French at the Durham Junior High School, and Kenneth Norris, History, at Newmarket High School.

All applications for second semester teaching appointments should be made to Dr. Stowe at his office by October 26. Application blanks are available at the Education department in Ballard Hall.

SCOTT HALL HOLDS TEA AFTER GAME

After the Maine-New Hampshire game last Saturday, a tea was held at Scott Hall. A committee recently elected will plan to have a social gathering of some sort after each game.

Many attended this affair including alumni. The hostesses were Mrs. Sanders, house mother, Jane Woodbury, Mary Geno, and Barbara Shields.

The Social Committee for future programs is: Mary Geno, Norma Monroe, Alice Davenport, Christine Photos, Genella Barton, Barbara Shields, Frances McCrillis and Mary Carpenter.

BRAYTON EDDY GIVES ILLUSTRATED LECTURE IN GYM WEDNESDAY

Insect Zoo Attracts Wide Attention Throughout Country

An illustrated lecture on "The Personality of Insects" was given under the auspices of the Lectures and Concerts Committee. This was the first public lecture on the committee's schedule.

Mr. Eddy's lecture took one into the very heart of a throbbing, diminutive, workaday world. There Lilliputian farmers, health officers, thieves, and electricians were solving problems analogous to our own. They made perfumes, fondled pets, enjoyed music, and some produced a cold illumination to carry on their business. After the movies an open forum was held. Many people took advantage of this opportunity by asking questions relative to our every day problems.

Bryton Eddy is a native of Rhode Island and a graduate of Brown University. He has had field and laboratory experience at Cold Spring Harbor Biological Laboratory and Cornell University. He has been an enthusiastic student of insects and possesses a great fund of valuable information which he knows how to present in a popular and effective manner. Some years ago he conceived the idea of giving popular lectures on insects, and has had widespread success in this venture.

Mr. Eddy has established an insect zoo—the first of its kind in America. He collected specimens of insects and related animals out of the forests, fields, and

CLASS MEETINGS

Class officers are elected every year and usually much dissatisfaction, dissension, and unrest follows until the prevailing spirit of resignation becomes effective, and the campus reverts to its wanted calm. After the class meetings for nominations there are all sorts of vague charges made, and rumors of dirty politics and petitions for this, that, or something else are whispered around the campus. From the amount of gossip and general high feeling one would think there was some interest in the election of class officers. From the number of students present at the meeting where the class business is done and nominations of officers made, however, one would be lead to believe that there was really little interest on the part of the students in the affairs of the class. Such a condition is incompatible with good sense. This year the class constitution fixes the number of students from a class which constitutes a quorum. The time, place, and purpose of the meetings have been or will be adequately announced. Students who have ideas to express, nominations to make, or who wish to have any voice in the affairs of the class should exercise the rights accorded by the constitution, attend class meetings, and cast a ballot on election day.

To the Editor:

The annual class meetings for nomination of officers for the coming year will take place next week. These meetings, in the past, have been poorly attended and as a result the classes have not put up their best leaders for officers. The class officers are not to be seats for popular but inefficient students. The positions are responsible ones and by electing the right persons the class as a whole will become stronger and better.

All meetings will be conducted in accordance with the class constitution adopted last year. Under this constitution there must be a quorum of members present before a meeting may be held. The student council will be represented at all meetings to see that due form is carried out.

A new system of voting, that will, be explained in a later issue, will be invoked by the Student Council this year. It will give each student a chance to vote his ballot free from fear that someone will see for whom he or she has voted. Ballots will not be signed, but a check list system will be used. In view of this fact, it is to the personal interest of each student to attend their class meeting and to nominate their real class leaders.

The dates of the meetings have already been published, but will bear repeating.

K. Robert Manchester,
Pres., Student Council.

Editor-in-Chief
The New Hampshire
Ballard Hall
Dear Homer,

I am sure you and your editorial and business colleagues are entitled to congratulations on your "after-the-game" issue of last Saturday. As far as I know, you pioneered with such a venture on this campus. I have never heard that it has been done here before. I have some idea of the organization you had to set up to make it possible. It must have been a fine lesson in journalism for all of you. Congratulations on the educational opportunity which you made for yourselves and the manner in which you made the best of the opportunity.

Very sincerely yours,

Edward Y. Blewett,

Overheard:

"What price are the seats, please?"
"Front seats are a dollar, back seats a half, and programs a nickel."
"I'll sit on a program, please."

If all the people who sleep through classes were laid end to end they'd be a lot more comfortable.

Poet: "Are you the man that cut my hair last time?"

Barber: "I don't think so, sir, I've only been here six months."

Young Thing: "Not only has he broken my heart and wrecked my life, but he's messed up my entire evening!"

Eight Alfred University professors agreed last spring to raise sideburns, whiskers, goatees, "and divers kindred tonsorial accoutrements" to give the university's centennial celebration the air of a century ago.

Some profs give that impression without the sideburns.

I think that I shall never see
Another man as nice as he.
Oh, if his lips on mine were pressed,
And he would clasp me to his breast—

To feel his cheek against my cheek
And hear him whisper words so sweet—

Such men were made for movies, gee!
While only saps were made for me.

A Lesson in English

You see a beautiful girl walking down the street. You walk across the street, changing to verbal, and then become dative. If she is not objective, you become plural, and you walk home together.

Her brother is an indefinite article, is accusative, and then becomes imperative. You talk about the future, and then she changes the subject. Her father becomes present, and you become past tense.

COMMUTERS

On October 30, the women commuters will hold their first "vic party" of the year at Smith Hall. Committees have been chosen for refreshments, records, and chaperons. Chaperons are to be announced later.

THE LISTENING POST

KANSAS CITY—President Roosevelt speaking in the new $6,000,000 auditorium here, partly financed by Federal funds, defended the Government's expenditures for education. "In High School and in Colleges the Government has lent a helping hand in keeping youth at the job of learning. As we take stock, we recognize that the most priceless of our human assets are the young men and women of America—the raw material out of which the United States must shape its future. The school is the last expenditure upon which America should be willing to economize." The President likewise expressed the opinion that no money was ever better spent than that being expended upon education today.

DETROIT—This city—center of the automobile industry—was chosen by Gov. Landon for a scathing rebuke of the New Deal. Landon attacked the policies of the Roosevelt regime as those that established Fascism, Naziism, and the other autocracies of Europe. He expressed the intention, if elected, to repeal all acts giving autocratic powers to the President. The Republican nominee demanded that Roosevelt inform the people before election day as to what constitutional amendments he favored. Landon pointed out the automobile industry as an example of American initiative and freedom from government control. "If I am elected and find that new Federal Powers are needed, I shall favor Congress going to the people and asking for such powers through a constitutional amendment," was greeted with much enthusiasm by his listeners.

NEW YORK—Earl Browder, Communist candidate for President intends to return to Terre Haute, Indiana to make another attempt to give a public speech. He was jailed upon his last visit there upon a vagrancy charge. Browder accused the Republican State Court justices of Illinois "of keeping the Communists off the ballot in that state in order to claim, if the Democrats win, that it was with Communist votes."

He says, "We are returning to test not only your own constitutional rights, but also the rights of others. What they did to us they could do to anybody."

—by Donald Mendelson.

BULL SESSION

By Hertzell Weinstat

Ev'ry Tom, Dick, and Harry,
Ev'ry Bob, Bill, and Barry,
Their pals, and all their retinue,
Came knocking on my door
Always eight, not before,
"Hi, pal—we've come to visit you!"
They barge into my den,
Maybe six, or better ten;
Till ev'ry cot and chair, within my room,
Is filled to overflowing
With fellows brought, and knowing,
Who tell their tales betwixt the smokey gloom.

They talk from A to Z,
From gals to history,
In ev'ry phase, they seem to be quite dapper.

But, sometimes I wonder
If all this blood and thunder,
Is empty as a bell, without a clapper!
I must accept my fate,
I know it will be late,
Yea! The tests come ever faithful ev'ry morn.

I close my book and mumble,
And wait for walls to tumble
When teacher comes, and blows his golden horn!

TOWERS LEADS TRIP TO MT. MOOSILAUKEE

Next Saturday, October 17, the Outing Club, in conjunction with the Inter-Collegiate Outing Club Association, will make a trip to Mount Moosilauke, Warren, New Hampshire. The party now consists of about twelve, and will leave at 4:30 p. m. from Ballard Hall under the supervision of R. Towers.

The regular trip to Mendon's Pond will take place Thursday at 5:30 p. m., leaving from Ballard Hall under the supervision of A. Perkins and C. Bullock.

On October 24 and 25, an outing will be made to Mount Washington. Letters have been sent to various colleges to arrange for joint trips.

Those who want tickets for the outings, may obtain them from M. Congden at Scott Hall, A. Manfort at Congreve Hall, R. Towers at Hetzel, and L. Witcher at West Hall.

The membership is now up to 450, 50 more than last year.

UNH FLYING CLUB WILL LAUNCH GLIDER SOON

"It took kind of long, but it'll get done eventually," said John Nutter, secretary of the University of New Hampshire Flying Club, commenting on the Waco 176Y glider on which the members of the club have been working and which is now nearing completion.

The glider which is owned by the University will be, when finished, taken to the Concord Airport for a tryout.

The club which is strictly bachelor has so far resisted all efforts of the fairer sex to crash it, and is at the present composed of 18 members, who meet every Thursday afternoon after drill at 115 Demeritt.

The club had several interesting speakers last year besides business discussions.

FRESHMAN TEA HELD WEDNESDAY

The annual Freshman tea given by Dean Ruth Woodruff and the Cap and Gown Society, was held Wednesday afternoon from three to five, in Smith Hall. Dean Woodruff, Mrs. Hoyt, and Miss Nancy Powers received, while Jane Woodbury, Dorothy Foster, and Barbara Edgerly, members of the Cap and Gown, ushered.

The tea table was delightfully arranged with red roses and candles as a centerpiece. The various house mothers, Miss Phipps, Mrs. Sanderson, Mrs. Dame, and Mrs. Whiten, poured.

BEHIND the scenes, in many a capture by G-men, will be found the service provided by T-men—telephone men (and women, too) of the Bell System.

And so the telephone, with products and services growing out of it, helps to make your life happier, broader and more secure.

BEN LANG ELECTED
1936 GRID CAPTAIN

BEN LANG - GUARD

Ben Lang, three year veteran guard, was elected captain of the 1936 Wildcat football team at a meeting of the lettermen held in the Commons last night.

Lang, five feet eight inches tall and weighing 170, has been outstanding in University of New Hampshire football since he enrolled here from Cushing academy three years ago. He received his numerals in 1933 as a member of the Kitten team and has been a varsity letterman for two years. Lang has not confined his athletic activities to football, having received his varsity letter in lacrosse for the past two years.

He is a member of Alpha Tau Omega, social fraternity, and the honorary senior society of Blue Key.

By John J. Finn

Well, our first prediction came through—the Yanks taking the Giants.

There was no question but what the scoring punch brought the Yanks through and while on the subject, what happened to New Hampshire scoring wallop so prominent against Lowell Tech? It started to waver against Bates and was left in the locker room on Homecoming Day.

Incidentally, don't blame Joe Nate too vigorously for that play on the one yard line. He was advised that the end and tackle were slashing in too close and that an end run was the only play.

New Hampshire's pass defense was really a treat—for the Maine stands. Last week, we had an article in the A. A. News stating that B. C.'s pass defense was admittedly weak. What a snicker if both teams start a passing attack tomorrow.

Jerry Quadros completed seven out of ten passes in the Bates game, but could not hit his stride Saturday.

Ray Patten invited his folks up from Port Washington, N. Y. He played in both the Lowell Tech and Bates game (and played great football) but didn't see any action against Maine. Wonder if the coach knew his folks were here, not to mention his girl friend?

Mac Verville seemed to be the only N. H. player to go places, tearing off long runs repeatedly.

Each year we seem to have a keen struggle for one position. Last year it was Zais vs. Twyon. This year we find Ken Bishop and Fritz Rosinski looking longingly at that center's job. Two great ballplayers.

The cross country boys did a wonderful job against Maine. Last year, Hunne- well won the I. C. 4-A championship, and Sawyer won the Frosh championship. Still New Hampshire tied a team which even had such runners as these two.

Dick Galway is amazing the ringsiders with his hitherto latent ability. He has entered the Amateur Junior National championship at the Boston Arena on the nineteenth. He has one of the most skillful jobs we've seen and a right that actually pulverizes. Experts say that the skies look particularly bright for him—a little redish tinge, perhaps?

Outside of Mike Mirey's lip which is all taped up, New Hampshire came through O. K. as far as injuries were concerned always expecting the chips, scrapes, gouges, that Benny Lang always seems to connect with. It seemed for a while as though we'd lose Charley Karazia the way he weaved around after smashing the Maine line.

Up in Hank Swasey's office—Dick Galway has cancelled his sleeping reservations at the arena and is looking forward eagerly to baseball. What a pitcher. He just throws it, etc., etc.

B. C. - N. H. tomorrow. From this point of vantage, the eagle is awfully, awfully high, but don't dare give too many points against the Wildcat. His showing against the Bear was unwarranted, unnecessary, and uncalled for. So let's have the Eagles.

DID YOU KNOW THAT—

The first woman student was admitted in accordance with a resolution passed by the trustees when they met at a special meeting at the Eagle Hotel in Concord, New Hampshire, December 31, 1890. Dean Pettee brought to the attention of the Board that a young woman had applied for permission to take a course of instruction in the college. "After interesting discussion, it was voted to admit to special courses of instruction women students under such regulations as might be prescribed by the faculty."

The University once owned one-eighth interest in the "Oyster River hotel," which was located opposite the Town hall

Weekend Weather Forecast

Friday, 10 A. M.

A mass of relatively cold air is pushing southeastward over the north Pacific states while a new mass of Polar Continental air, so far of no great size, is apparently developing in the Mackenzie River valley in far northwestern Canada. Two storm areas of slight intensity have developed along the advancing front of the Polar air masses. Yesterday morning one of these was centered north of the Great Lakes while the other was moving slowly eastward over the southern Plains states of Oklahoma and Texas.

As these storms advance today and tomorrow, some rain may fall in Durham but at present it does not appear that the precipitation will be heavy. It is extremely doubtful, however, that the Polar Continental air in northwestern Canada will advance rapidly enough to clear the weather in Durham on Saturday.

For Durham and Vicinity. Continued warm, and mostly overcast this afternoon and tonight. No change in temperature. Gentle shifting winds, mostly southerly.

Saturday. Continued unsettled and probably mostly cloudy. Showers are possible during the day. Not much change in temperature. Southerly winds shifting before night to southwest or west.

Sunday: Clearing and cooler. Increasing west and northwest winds. Somewhat cooler before night.

New Hampshire will send two two-men crews to this regatta. These crews will be picked by the race committee on previous racing experience. Members must submit applications stating what racing teams they have been on, and how many championships captured.

The University of New Hampshire Yacht Club has up to date seventy-five members. It hopes to have its fleet ready for use as soon as the ice leaves Great Bay in the spring.

The third meeting will be held Monday evening, October 19, at 7:00, in the Commons Trophy room. The executive committee will be elected, and the adoption of the constitution will be discussed. It will be the last opportunity for Charter members to enter the club without written application to executive committee.

There is considerable Faculty interest on Campus about this club. Provisions have been made for the faculty and alumni to enjoy the privileges of the club. However, they will not be able to hold office, or enter any intercollegiate regatta.

ESSAY CONTEST

In an effort to stimulate interest in the constitution of the United States, on the 149th anniversary of its adoption, the Public Welfare Association, Inc., is sponsoring an essay contest and enrollment of "Friends of the Constitution."

Anyone interested may apply to the department of political science, where additional information may be obtained.

Yes, other things being equal, style-minded people would choose the Parker Vacumatic for beauty alone! But other things, too, including performance, make this revolutionary invention the national favorite by a still bigger margin—by 9 to 4.**

One important difference—its ink supply is ever visible—the ENTIRE length of the barrel. Thus it shows days ahead WHEN IT'S RUNNING LOW.

Another great difference is the patented Parker filler. There's no other like it. It requires no sliding piston immersed in ink—its working parts are sealed in the top WHERE INK CAN NEVER TOUCH THEM—can never decompose them.

The Parker point is Scratch-proof—precious Platinum combined with solid Gold.

Every student needs this miracle writer that doesn't "let you down" by running dry in classes or exams.

NEW CLUB HOUSE NEARING COMPLETION

Containing all the conveniences to properly house and accommodate varsity, rival teams, and spectators, the new club house, within the concrete stands at Lewis Stadium, will rank with the best, when it opens on what is hoped will be the day of the St. Anselm's football game.

Standing at the end of the stadium, and facing the baseball bleachers, the first ten bays (21 x 40), will be used by home varsity teams, and has space for approximately 85 lockers, a coach's room, treatment row with showers, and toilet facilities. The third bay will have space for 30 lockers, showers, and toilet facilities. The fourth bay will be a rest room for women spectators, with additional space allotted for the storing of equipment. Bay number five will be a boiler room, and will also have storage space for equipment. The sixth bay will contain toilet facilities for men spectators, and the seventh bay, to be used by visiting teams, will have space for forty lockers, showers, and toilet facilities, eighth and ninth bays will be used for home teams, with space for 85 lockers, coach's room and showers. All these bays mentioned will be heated, with hot and cold water facilities. It is believed that the convenience and size of the club houses will do much towards relieving the congestion of the present gym, improve sanitation, and bring the players nearer the fields in which they play.

The new parking area, adjacent to the new field, is capable of accommodating 400 cars. The total number of cars parked there for the Maine game amounted to 293, out of a total of 4,000 machines which remained in Durham over last Saturday. Superintendent of property, Harold W. Loveren stated that the whole parking area has had its final surface of gravel, and after having been allowed to settle over the winter, it is hoped that the space will have its covering of tar in the spring.

seums of Europe and America. To avoid slight variations in faithfulness to the original which occur when photographing is done in this country, all the originals were sent abroad, even though that meant that they had to be away for six or eight months while the plates and first copies were being made. One of the jury, Mr. Adolf Dehn was sent to Vienna, where the facsimiles are made, to supervise the manufacturing. Several leading American painters were called in to aid him in checking the proofs with the originals, before approving the plates for the final finished work.

Anyone interested in securing reproductions of the pictures which are now on exhibit at the library may secure information from Mr. G. R. Thomas, Architecture dept., Demeritt Hall.
