WILDCATS READY FOR CLASH WITH HAWKS TOMORROW

St. Anselm Ready After Weekend Rest Free From Competition

The St. Anselms college football team, yet to be defeated, will clash with the Wildcats on Lewis field Saturday.

St. Anselms with victories over Springfield, Ithaca, and Providence colleges will have every man available to play if called upon. Not having played last Saturday, the team had a chance to a well-earned rest. However, during the past week, every man has been put through an intensive drill: blocking, passing, and kicking all being stressed in an effort to keep the Wildcats from halting their victory march.

Nevertheless, the Wildcats, fresh from their crushing victory over Vermont last

TECHNOLOGY COLLEGE MEETS REQUIREMENTS

Engineers' Council Credits Engineering Department of University

Dean George W. Case has just received word that the departments of civil, electrical, and mechanical engineering of the College of Technology have been accredited by the Engineers' Council for Professional Development. The significance of this accreditation is that graduation from these departments will be accepted as proper educational training by licensing boards in states having laws to license engineers who wish to practice within their boundaries. Accreditation also assures the qualification for institutional membership in engineering societies of colleges and universities giving this type of instruction.

BENTLEY SPEAKS ON ENGLAND OF TODAY

In an interesting lecture, Rev. Harold Bentley, co-advisor of Christian work, Inc., spoke to a small but enthusiastic gathering about England, his native land on Monday at Ballard hall.

In the first of a series of lectures to be sponsored by Christian Work, Inc., Rev. Bentley told about the England he had left when he came to America to go to college and the England he returned to fifteen years later.

He mentioned the gradual decline of traditions in England, and spoke about the funeral of King George last winter which he witnessed. He also commented on the huge increase of building of cheap houses along main thoroughfares, the subsequent destroying of England's natural beauty.

After the lecture an interesting open forum was held during which students discussed topics of interest concerning England with Rev. Bentley.

COFFEE DANCE AT SMITH AFTER GAME

There will be a coffee dance at Smith hall after the St. Anselm's game. The success of the last dance insured the permanency of such gatherings after football games. All students are invited to dance, drink coffee, and be sociable. Women's Student government is sponsoring this party.

RUSSIAN SYMPHONIC CHOIR GIVES FIRST CONCERT OF SERIES

Basil Kibalchich Directs Eighteen Singers before Large Audience

The Russian Symphonic Choir, directed by Basil Kibalchich, opened the concert series last Wednesday evening at the gym. A group of about five hundred people attended.

The choir, consisting of nine men and nine women, sang as their first presentation an old Russian melody, "In the Lord's Name." The next selection, "The Last Supper," by Lvov, was followed by a tenor solo, "Blessed Be The Man," by Archangelsky, sung by Michael Dodo. The choir then presented for the first time in America, "Vesper Prayer," by Rachmaninoff. This composition featured a rich monotone for which Russian music is noted. "Psalm 18" concluded the first part of the sacred songs.

UNH CO-ED SETS RACING PRECEDENT

Sylvia Merrill First Girl to Race in College Dinghy Regatta

Sylvia Merrill will create a precedent this Sunday when she races in the Intercollegiate Dinghy regatta at M. I. T. Miss Merrill, who has raced at Weymouth and Marblehead for the past eight years, will be the first girl to race in an Intercollegiate Dinghy regatta.

She has been outstanding not only in racing, however, but she was valedictorian of her class at Weymouth high school in 1935 and has a leading role in the operetta, "Patience." Commodore Bob Nellson who has sailed the past few years at Marion, Mass., and who has been picked for the Prince of Wales Cup team will sail with her. The other crew will consist of Ernie Furnans of Prince of Wales Cup team fame, skipper and Ed Wright of the Portsmouth Yacht club.

The regatta will start at one o'clock, Sunday afternoon. The course will be from two miles to two and one half miles in length depending on the strength of the wind.

Princeton and Harvard will enter the race as the favorites. Princeton won the McMillan Cup trophy at Marblehead last summer and Harvard, skippered by "Bud" Fullerton, won the quadrangular meet at M. I. T. last week. New Hampshire's strength will be unknown until after the regatta but despite the quality of the opposition the club's chances for finishing toward the front are good. Following the regatta there will be a banquet at M. I. T. for all the participants.

At last Monday's meeting, the club arranged the winter program. They are planning to have several outstanding New England yachtsmen speak at their meetings. An extensive membership drive is being launched, especially among the women students so that they may have dual meets with men's colleges. The club will hold a meeting Monday, November 2.

MOVIE TALENT SCOUT WITNESSES NH PLAY

Lucille Ryman, studio talent scout for Universal Pictures Corporation, informed Mr. Hennesey, dramatic director of Mask and Dagger, that she intends to visit the campus sometime in the near future in search of talent. Miss Ryman stated, "We are primarily looking for leading men and women at this time—not character actors."

Mr. Hennesey announced that George Kimball has been added to the cast in the part of Robert and Richard White as the club waiter. Because of the illness of Barbara Clisham, Jacqueline Dondero will take the part of Mabel Dancy. George Nye and Olive Richards have been appointed stage managers for the production.

1070 BALLOTS CAST IN THE NEW HAMPSHIRE POLL

STUDENTS VOTE FOR OFFICERS THIS WEEK

The annual class elections start today when the Seniors will ballot for their respective officers. The Juniors will vote on Tuesday of next week with the Freshmen and Sophomores following up on Wednesday and Friday.

There are three corrections which should be made in last week's published list of candidates. There were two omissions; Edwin Chertok—Senior vice president, and Ruth Brown—Sophomore secretary. Also, under the Junior class nominees, William Henry was listed as a candidate for vice president instead of William Hersey.

The results of the Senior class voting will be published in the Tuesday issue of the New Hampshire.

The new voting booth will be used for all elections in the future. This booth is large enough to accomodate five people, a check-list clerk, a ballot clerk, and a moderator. Through the use of this booth the old method of signed ballots is abandoned.

"BUMP" HADLEY IS GUEST SPEAKER AT JUNIOR SMOKER WED.

New York Pitcher Tells Baseball Stories and Shows Pictures

"Carl Hubbell is the outstanding pitcher in major league baseball," Irving "Bump" Hadley, New York Yankee hurler told a large group of fans at the Junior class smoker held Wednesday night in the Commons.

The Yankee pitcher, winner of a 6 to 5 victory over the Giants in the recent World series, told briefly the highlights of the series, and told stories of the stars of the national game. Bringing his own amateur motion picture of the history of baseball, the scenes of the opening games, and the world classic, Hadley pointed out the different styles of the individual players, and his own ideas as to the playing of the various positions.

At the conclusion of the pictures, Hadley answered questions and then willingly signed autographs.

Harold Ferrin opened the program by giving one of his monologues. The committee in charge of the smoker was headed by John McKeigue. Thomas Giarla, John Shea, and Humphrey DeSchuiter assisted.

ALPHA CHI SIGMAS HEAR YALE CHEMIST

Alpha Chi Sigma, honorary chemistry society, held a banquet supper in the President's dining hall in the Commons, last Friday, October 23.

Dr. M. C. Molstead, counselor for the New England district of the society and professor in Chemical Engineering at Yale University, was the guest speaker.

TABULATIONS

Total number of votes cast	1070	Percentage of total votes cast
Landon - Knox (R)	672	62.8
Roosevelt - Garner (D)	355	33.2
Browder - Ford (C)	12	1.1
Lemke - O'Brien (U)	6	0.6
Void ballot cast	25	2.3

Alf M. Landon is to be the next President of the United States—according to the results of the poll conducted here Wednesday by The New Hampshire.

Tabulation of the ballots cast gives Landon and Knox a 1.89 to 1 lead over the democratic candidates; with the Communist and Union candidates trailing in third and fourth places respectively.

Inaugurating a new system of voting, The New Hampshire polled 1070 votes. An analysis of the checklist used to record student participation in the poll shows that 65.4% of the registered students voted. The use of this system by the Student council in the forthcoming class elections is expected to result in a considerably enlarged student participation in the selection of class officers over previous years.

CATHOLIC STUDENTS MEET AND ORGANIZE

In the first meeting of Catholic students on Tuesday evening at Theta Kappa Phi fraternity, temporary officers and a committee were elected.

Richard Galway was named president and Ruth Buckley, secretary. A committee of representative students was formed. It consisted of James Conrad, Paul O'Neil, James Kelleher, Jane Lin-scott, Peggy Quinn, Ray O'Connor and Jean Paquin.

Mr. Galway introduced Father Chartier, curate of Newmarket, who explained why the group was formed. Catholic students need a means for obtaining a Catholic viewpoint on the problems which confront them. The society will offer them a chance to discuss these problems in the lecture forums which will feature each meeting. The next meeting is planned sometime in November when permanent officers will be elected and a social program will be provided for.

STATE GARDEN CLUB HONORS MRS. WHITE

Mrs. George White was elected recording secretary of the State Federation of Garden clubs at the annual meeting of the organization held at the Hotel Carpenter in Manchester on Wednesday, October 28.

The election of officers for the year was held and annual reports were read.

STRAW VOTE

The New Hampshire was very much gratified by the success of the new voting system which was initiated at the presidential straw vote held last Wednesday. The efficiency of the new system both in increasing the usual number of votes cast by students and in the mechanical details of balloting was sufficient to justify the Student Council in deciding to adopt this plan for all their elections in the future.

The results of the election showed many interesting things about the students at the University. There is, of course, the expected majority of Republicans over Democrats. The Communist vote which amounted to 1.1 per cent of the total votes cast certainly does not bear out the findings of the Veterans of Foreign Wars at their meeting early last summer where it was declared that the campus of the University of New Hampshire was "a hotbed of radicalism."

For the benefit of those students who voted the Farmer-Labor party, we wish to point out that there was no candidate for the presidency in this party. Votes so made out were necessarily void.

The per cent of void ballots was large in view of the fact that chances to make mistakes in balloting were very limited and also that the voters were university men and women who should at least know something about ballots and voting even though they may never have voted at a formal election. If The New Hampshire poll taught any students something about voting, it will have served its educational purpose.

Weekend Weather Forecast

Friday, 10 A. M.

The modified Polar Continental air now over New England is slowly drifting northward again toward a storm of unusual size and energy which is at present passing eastward across Labrador. This storm center is so far north of Durham that we are not likely to receive any precipitation from it. Another mass of Polar Continental air has formed behind this storm, and yesterday it had already started moving southeastward, lowering temperatures at Hudson Bay stations as much as 25 degrees. Behind this second mass of Polar air, in the vicinity of Alberta, a new storm is apparently developing, though it is still too early to be sure what effect it will have on the weather of New England.

Temperatures will remain relatively low, and skies will be mostly clear, or only partly cloudy during the week-end, as Polar air continues to dominate the weather of New England.

For Durham and vicinity: Generally fair and rather cool today. Light southerly winds, probably shifting to west or northwest and increasing tonight. Somewhat colder before morning.

Saturday: Generally fair and continued cold over all New Hampshire. Moderate northwesterly winds, diminishing at night. Freezing temperatures in Durham at night may be expected.

Sunday: Increasing cloudiness and warmer. Rain before night is possible.

THETA UPSILON

Tau Chapter of Theta Upsilon announces with pleasure the pledging of Lucille Agnes True on Thursday, October 22, 1936.

TO THE EDITOR

TO THE EDITOR:

The Sophomore who proposed the plan for changes in the present nominating system has a hold on a good idea. No one knows any better than I how far from democratic this present system is, and how susceptible it is to dirty politics. Something has got to be done about it, and I sincerely hope that the members of the class of '39 will elect officers who will be willing to remedy the situation. I do know that anyone who has had to conduct a meeting like the last one, which was considered comparatively orderly, fully realizes the weaknesses of the regulations now in force.

Sincerely yours,

Joseph Tinker,
Pres. Class of '39.

SPECIAL TRAIN MAY GO TO TUFTS GAME

A special train to the New Hampshire-Tufts game, may be chartered for Wildcat rooters on November 7.

Tickets to the game may be purchased at the gym before Friday. The Sphinx members in each house have been asked to get the number of those who may go.

The Boston Alumni clubs are planning a party at the Cousens gymnasium after the game.

VARSITY HARRIERS RUN AT HARVARD THIS AFTERNOON

Frosh Will Meet Runners from Manchester on Saturday

The Harvard Opens will be run in Boston on October 30, at the Charles River course. Coach Sweet is taking all the varsity men and in addition one freshman, H. Jennison.

New Hampshire has two legs on the E. L. Farrel Trophy. If we win the meet the trophy will be ours. This meet, next to the New England Championship, is the most important of the season.

Although the team won the tri-college meet with Harvard and Dartmouth, the race showed that the team is far from being in condition. The recent cold weather has also retarded the varsity harriers. Nevertheless, Coach Sweet said, "I am certain that the fellows will give a good account of themselves."

The Wildcat entrants are: Captain Chertok and Craigin, Bishop, Drew, Edson, Ewing, Ferrin, Gurly, Mason, Munton, Jennison, Quinn, Sanborn, Shaw and Williams.

Frosh-Manchester

The Freshman Cross Country team will challenge Manchester's strength here on the Durham tracks, on October 31.

Coach Sweet is placing on the field his best Freshmen runners. Nothing is known of their opponents' strength except that they lost a close decision with Concord High. Our team defeated this team so the outlook is pretty fair. However in the past Manchester has either beaten us or given us a stiff battle. Coach Sweet states, "The Manchester race will be a hard fought battle, but we stand a good chance to beat them."

The runners will be: Captain Slater, Ford, Gale, Gould, Perkins, Pitman, Simpson, Swasey, Worcester and Wright.

PI LAMBDA SIGMA

On October 22, Epsilon Chapter of Pi Lambda Sigma initiated Miss Marie Cassily, '37, of Dover.

National Treasurer Miss Anna Gowe, and National Registrar Mrs. J. P. Brennan of Pi Lambda Sigma, were entertained at luncheon at the Colonial Inn, on October 26, by the Epsilon chapter. The pledges gave a tea in their honor in the afternoon at the apartment of Miss Ann Beggs.

Nov. 5 Kappa Sigma vs Alpha Tau Omega, 4:15 p. m.

Nov. 6 Lambda Chi Alpha vs Theta Chi, 4:15 p. m.

GRANITE

The Granite wishes to make public the following information concerning photognaphs for the Junior section:

Beginning Monday, October 26, photographs of the Juniors will be taken by appointment during a period of two weeks. Appointments may be made by calling Nelson Evans at 10 Mill Road for men, or Betsey Vannah, Alpha Chi Omega, for women. Heelers, also, will be sent out to sign up those slow to make an appointment. Is is urged that, in order to avoid difficulty, all appointments be kept.

There will be a two dollar fee payable at the time the photo is taken, this fee to cover the cost of a "glossy" for the Granite. Six poses will be taken, one of which is to be selected for the Granite.

All proofs will be mailed within four days after sittings; resittings will be made without additional charges by arrangement with the editor. Photos will be taken either in the Organization or the Trophy room of the Commons.

Regular office hours for the Granite staff will be announced Friday. The ballots and activity sheets will be called in in the near future. Those parts of the activity sheet which cannot be filled in at this time will be checked upon by the staff at a later date.

Any sophomores desiring to heel for the Junior yearbook are requested to be present at the regular staff meeting Wednesday, 8:00 P. M.

VARSITY RIFLE TEAM HOLDS HIGH RECORD

Thirteen Veterans of 1935 Team Will Shoot This Year

Winning ten out of nineteen individual meets; tops on one tri-college meet, and second best in two tri-college meets, is the record established by the University of New Hampshire Rifle team for the school year of 1936, in Inter-Collegiate rifle competition.

New Hampshire riflemen have defeated sharpshooters from many of the country's outstanding colleges and universities, including: Harvard, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cornell, Carnegie Tech., Boston college, Columbia, and others. Government teams, including Marine Barracks, Midships from the Portsmouth Navy Yard, and the cadets from West Point are also arrayed on the competition list.

From last year's rifle team, the following members are expected to return: B. Carr, E. Carrico, R. DuBois, J. F. Goodrin, P. Lampesis, A. Leocha, E. Lincoln, J. Mack, S. McCormack, F. O'Brien, D. Twyon, E. Furnans, and R. Plummer. Of this group, the following are lettermen: R. DuBois, P. Lampesis, F. O'Brien, and R. Plummer.

Weston McEvoy, manager for the 1937 rifle team, is at present, working on the coming schedule of meets. The New Hampshire will publish the complete schedule as soon as it is available and authorized.

OUTING CLUB PLANS EXTENSIVE SCHEDULE

During the coming few weeks, the New Hampshire Outing Club has set forth quite an extensive schedule.

This coming Sunday there is to be an all-day trip to Mt. Chocorua. The party of twenty will leave Ballard hall at 7:30 a.m. and return sometime in the early evening. The chaperone will be Miss Beckwith, and the leaders will be Ed Hayes and Jim Scudder.

On the week-end of November 7-8, there is a week-end trip scheduled, but the designation has not yet been determined.

Plans for the Annual Dad's Day dance on November 14, are under way. However, nothing definite can be expressed yet. On the fifteenth, the Blue Circleers are to have an outing at Mendum's pond at which time the new candidates will be initiated.

A. A. U. W. TO MEET

The American Association of University Women will hold a business meeting at the Commons at 7:15 o'clock on Thursday, November 5. The group will then hear Mr. M. J. Bonn in his lecture forum in Murkland auditorium.

RECREATION ROOM IS AVAILABLE TO GROUPS

The administration and students have for some time been trying to get some recreation rooms or a whole building for the enjoyment of the student body. In an effort to bring this about the Christian Work has offered to plan their activities on other days than Wednesday and Thursday in order that the social room and kitchenette will be available to student groups. This is being done to meet the growing need for general rooms on our campus. Both organized and unorganized groups of students are urged to make use of the facilities available at Ballard Hall.

The kitchenette is well equipped, and the social room has a piano, victrola, cards and tables. There is also a ping-pong room and other game amusements. Requests to have the hall reserved should be made to Miss Morrill, 105 Thompson hall.

Wildcats

Saturday in Burlington, are prepared to give the Hawks from Manchester their stiffest competition of the current season. Although it is probable there will be three regulars and one alternate missing from the lineup in Saturday's game due to injuries, both line coach Christensen and backfield coach Lundholm, will have ready a team that will provide both the defensive and offensive punch as was shown in the Vermont game.

With Quadros, Nathanson, Karazia, Verville, Mirey, Horne, Abbott, Preble, and Patten all ready for duty in the backfield, and with a strong line that has shown up so well lately, the Wildcats will be set to meet any defense or offense that the Hawks plan to throw at them Saturday.

The lineup for New Hampshire, uncertain as yet, is as follows:

Little	Left end
Mountain	Left tackle
Conrad	Left guard
Rosinski	Center
Lang	Right guard
Montrone	Right tackle
Rogean	Right end
Quadros (Nathanson)	Quarter back
Horne (Preble)	Right halfback
Karazia	Fullback

invited to attend this meeting and join the University 4-H club.

by John J. Finn

The season is slipping fast. Only three more games.

Vermont game chatter—Tommy Giarla broke his nose—Karazia looks as tho he shaved with a meat cleaver—Lekesky twisted a leg—and Vermont kept their record straight by not scoring (they haven't scored a point this year.)

Correction: Giarla didn't break his nose but a tackle with a six pound cast on his hand did, massaging Tommy's "schnozzle" not once but twice, getting bounced from the game after the second attempt.

Speaking of fumbles, we had an eight-yard loss error in the Vermont scrap.

On your feet, men—Listen: New Hampshire was the fifth highest scoring team in the country last Saturday!!! Eclipsed only by Kentuck, Dartmouth, Drake and Colgate. (This means total points for the year.)

Heard in the varsity dressing-room—"We'll hit those guys (St. Anselm's) so hard they'll land in Kittery." Why Kittery? Just bunt them away from the N. H. goal line. We'll be satisfied.

The odds (as quoted in Manchester), reveals the Saints as "three to one plus twelve points" favorites. A chance to make money here.

The poor frosh are stuck deep in the mire of a losing streak. We'll be merciful enough to forget a recapitulation but will say this: The reason the frosh are losing is a dire lack of reserves. A sparkling first string team is practically useless without a ready injection of fresh blood into a close game and that's just what "they ain't got."

Harry Smith in Eco. class: "You can't have your pie and eat it. But athletes shouldn't eat pie anyway. It's bad for them." Wouldn't it be nice if the extremes of breaking training during the season for the average college athlete was eating pie?

Saint Anselm's undefeated so far this season and has had but two points chalked against them. Providence, Springfield, and Ithaca have been her victims. Wonder whose next?

FREDRIC MARCHUNH KITTENS TACKLE BROWN CUBS TODAY

The New Hampshire yearling football team tackles the Brown freshmen in the last game on the frosh schedule this afternoon at 2:30.

Brown has a strong team with an impressive record, and Coach Demers predicts very hard opposition. The loss of the first string men, Larson and Miller, will weaken the team considerably, but an extensive shift in the line is expected to give much added power. The Kittens' starting backfield will be composed of Lankalis, Hanlon or O'Connor, Moriarty, and Captain Mitchell.

Continuing the concert after a short intermission, the group sang the "Aria of Variag" from the opera "Sadko," by the same composer. This was featured by a bass solo by Stephen Slepoushkin. The male section rendered the Church scene from the opera "Christmas Eve," also by Rinsky-Korsakoff. The bass section, with deep, pure tones, imitated perfectly the ringing of the bells. This was followed by Tschai-kowsky's "The Nightingale," a soprano solo sung by Mme. Alexander, supported by the remaining members of the choir. "Songs of the Reapers", by the same composer completed the second group of selections.

The final group was introduced by a rollicking "Medley of Folk Songs," by Zakoloff. There followed "The Scythe", by Verkeevsky, and two arrangements of traditional songs by Kibalchich, "Ukranian Lullaby", and "The Gypsies." Misses Helen and Effie Stetzenko sang "A Lament" as a duet. "A Peasant Song," by Verekeevsky was followed with a roar of applause. The program ended with an encore which brought forth the true rhythm and harmony of Russian composition.
