EDWARD W. PUTNEY ADVANCES TO RANK OF COLONEL

Military Department

Gives Colonel Insignia

Lieutenant Colonel Edward W. Putney, Professor of Military Science and Tactics at the University, was informed last Tuesday that he had been advanced to a colonel, the highest rank in his arm of the service.

The officers stationed at the University assembled at eleven o’clock Wednesday morning, names were called and the oath of office was administered to Colonel Putney by Major Swanton, Summary Court. Following the formal ceremony, Colonel Putney was presented with a new set of silver insignia by the members of the Military department.

Colonel Putney has been in the service for 28 years as a commissioned officer and 11 years in a non-commissioned capacity. He served as an instructor in Chemistry and Electricity at the Military Academy from 1912-1915. At the outbreak of the war in 1917 he went to France where he served with the 2nd Engineers, 3rd Artillery, as assistant-Commandant of the Artillery school of the USA. He was later engaged in the charge of a battalion of railroad artillery. For the remainder of the war he served with the chief of artillery, G. H. Saunder of the A. E. F.

Following the ceremony he addressed the Assistant Professor of Military Science at M. I. T., 1919-1923. Upon leaving M. I. T. he continued his technical training at the Artillery school at Fort Monroe.

He then enlisted at the Commander and General Staff school at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. In 1931 he graduated from the Army War College and in the same year he became a professor of Military Science and Tactics at the University with the rank of major. He was later advanced to the rank of colonel.

Ed. Preble, quarterback, and Paul Horne, halfback, were named on the All-New Hampshire football team for 1936, it was announced Monday.

This team marks a new era to New Hampshire boys, playing football for the first time against college teams throughout the country.

The team shows Harting of St. An­thony; Martin of Norwich; and Kissee and Kistler of Boston College; Dominick of Boston College and Kennedy of St. Anselm; and Gregory of Bos­ton College and Commons of St. An­selm, ends.

The backfield has Preble of New­ Hampshire, quarter back, and Horne, half back; Hawken, full back; and Di­ moss, full back.

This team comes very near to being an All-Catholic representation and could come one by dropping both the New Hampshire men for Dobbs and Murphy, both of St. Anselm.

Other New Hampshire men have play­ed on outstanding ball; it was stated, al­though not quite well enough to make the "All-New England" team. This year's/New­ Hampshire team, however, will be a tough one.

There are many who believe the New­ Hampshire team will be an excellent one.

Among those reporting were lettermen Frank O'Brien, Peter Langmore, Robert Clough, Pekin Hartman, and Robert Clough, Pekin.

The schedule, which has not yet been made public, will be released in time for the most part on the advice of the New Hampshire team, of course.

Most of the players are satisfied with the schedule as it stands, however.
