PAULINE CHELLIS, NOTED DANCER, WILL COME HERE FEB. 20

Women's A.A. Obtains Artist For Intercollegiate Play Day

Pauline Chellis, noted exponent of the modern dance movement, will present a demonstration-recital on Saturday, February 20. She will be assisted by her dance group.

In addition to being well-known as a concert dancer, Miss Chellis has an enviable reputation as a teacher and lecturer and is a faculty member of a number of private schools and universities in New England. Among them are Sargent college of Boston University, Bouve school of physical education, the May school, and Posse school of physical education. Her annual recital in Boston is one of the most important events on the season's dance calendar.

Among the first to recognize the importance of contemporary dance trends, particularly in reference to the development of modern dance in America, Miss Chellis is regarded as an authority in pedagogic circles and recognized as one who has made distinguished contributions to the fields of modern dance in this country through her originality and skill as a choreographer. The program which she will present Saturday, February 20 is composed of all original compositions.

Miss Chellis is coming to New Hampshire under the auspices of the Women's Athletic Association. Her recital is part of the program planned for the annual Intercollegiate Play day. Tickets are being sold by members of the Women's Athletic Association.

MISS FOTTLER GIVES TALK ON VOCATIONS

Miss Fottler of Boston University was the speaker at the February meeting of the Association of Women Students held in Murkland auditorium on Wednesday afternoon. Her subject, "After College What," was concerned with the choice of a vocation after college. She stressed the point that the vocation chosen should be suitable to each individual.

"Women students who are taking courses in the Liberal Arts college need more of a variety of courses, if they wish to compete with girls pursuing technical courses. Particularly they need short-hand and typing if they wish to obtain any place in the business world." This was one of the main ideas which she brought before the women students.

Violinist Prefers Murkland Auditorium to White House

From the White House to Murkland auditorium, that was the experience of Ruth Breton last Wednesday. And believe it or not, Miss Breton preferred Murkland!

"Tonight's audience was so appreciative," the charming violinist remarked after her concert here. "The applause was spontaneous, the kind that makes you feel people really like to hear you." At this point, Betty Baker, Miss Breton's talented accompanist, entered the conversation by saying "Until a few days ago I never knew there was such a place as the University of New Hampshire, but from now on I'm going to be an ardent booster of it."

After much persuasion, Miss Breton divulged some high-lights of her musical training. "I naturally took to the violin," she said, "but what success I have achieved is due to constant practice. Even for a gifted musician the concert stage demands vigorous train-

Ruth Breton Presents Program Before Appreciative Audience

On Wednesday evening Ruth Breton, outstanding American violinist, climaxed the concert series in Murkland auditorium. Opening her concert with Beethoven's Sonata in D Major, Opus 12, No. 1, she played the various movements of the composition. She did not reveal the full range of skilled technique, however, until she played her second selection Concerto in D Major (first movement) by Tchaikowsky. Variations on A Theme by Corelli, by Tartini, Melody by Gluck and Rondo by Mozart were well received, but were not melodious enough for the average member of the audience.

The last group on the program was distinguished by melodic phrases which displayed the polished style of the youthful artist. The compositions were; Mazurka—Chopin, Nocturne—Boulanger,

Scherzo Tarantelle—Weiniawski.

Thunderous applause greeted the completion of these compositions. Graciously Miss Breton responded to encore after encore until she had played five selections. Three of her encores were received better than any of her scheduled selections. The sheer beauty of melody and the interpretation which Miss Breton gave to them account for their decided popularity.

Oriente, from Kaleidoscope had the appeal of seductive Oriental rhythm. Coprice Viennois, and Leibestroid, both by Kreisler, terminated this outstanding presentation by Ruth Breton.

Betty Baker, an artist in her own right, accompanied Miss Breton on the grand piano loaned by the Baldwin Piano Company of Boston.

STUDENTS RECEIVE BOARD REDUCTIONS

First Semester Savings Made Decrease Possible

As a result of savings during the first semester the University Dining hall was able to announce a five dollar reduction to the freshmen returning for the second semester.

Under this new rate the freshmen will pay an average price of twenty-two cents for each meal, while the cafeteria patrons will pay twenty-five cents per meal.

The present total for the school year to students eating in the Dining hall is forty-one dollars less than the board bill of ten years ago, when six dollars was considered a low weekly board charge. Reduced food costs, wholesale buying and economy in operation have made this marked reduction possible.

Up to 1929-30 it was the policy of the University Dining hall to give cash rebates following a saving in operating costs. Present rebates take the form of lowered rates.

JUNIORS ANNOUNCE COMMITTEE FOR PROM

The officers of the Junior class have recently selected the committee for this year's Junior Prom.

NOTICE

During the last three years there have been an unnecessary number of calls for treatment at the Hood House during the evening. Recently this tendency has been growing and seriously handicaps the one nurse on duty in taking care of patients in the infirmary.

With this in mind the following regulations will go into effect February 1, 1937.

1. A charge of one dollar ($1) will be made for all calls at the Hood House between the hours of 5 p. m. and 8 a. m.

2. The fee for such calls will be cancelled by the Hood House staff when they find that the onset of the illness or injury occurred at such time as to make necessary a call during this period.

3. When a student, who has been sent by the Hood House staff, is asked to return for treatment or observation after hours, no fee will be charged.

ROY D. HUNTER,
Acting President.

Women Students Get Spring Privileges

Those women of the University who have received an average of eighty or above for the first semester of this year will be allowed to assume the privileges of the class above theirs for the remainder of the school year it was announced recently.

In previous years this change did not go into effect until after the spring vacation. The results of this innovation will be carefully watched by the authorities. If it is found that it has a negative result, the women will be forced to wait until after spring vacation for their new freedom in the future. It has already gone into effect for the freshmen and the upperclass women will assume the new rules when their list is released this weekend.

FAMOUS PIANIST TO GIVE RECITAL HERE

Mr. Bauer First Became Prominent As A Violinist

The Lectures and Concerts committee will present Harold Bauer on February 10 at eight o'clock in Murkland auditorium.

Harold Bauer is a very well known pianist. He was born in England and began his career as a child prodigy, devoting his interest to both violin and piano, although the former rapidly became more important in his life. At the age of ten, he played with an orchestra, and later started his career as a violin soloist. During this period he toured England, and started to tour Russia as assisting violinist to a singer. Because of conditions in that country during the war, Mr. Bauer was forced through necessity to accompany the artist on the piano. After this lengthy period, he found he could not persuade people that he was not a pianist, and so devoted himself to three years of study to really become one.

In Madrid an enthusiastic reception encouraged Mr. Bauer to proceed with plans for a concert tour, after which he played with most of the important orchestras in the world. In 1900 he came to America to play as solo artist with the Boston Symphony Orchestra. In the same year he appeared with the Kneisel Quartet, and two days later gave his first New York recital.

Since then he has toured America and has become a citizen residing in New York.

In 1918 he founded the Beethoven Association, and has done a great deal in developing musical appreciation in this country.

Reserved seat tickets at seventy-five cents each may be obtained from Howard Feindel at the Business office.

UNDEFEATED PANTHER TEAM WINS FROM UNH SEXTET ON HOME ICE

Lack of Practice Shows Up As Team Fails to Coordinate

The varsity hockey team playing for the first time on home ice, lost a hard game to the undefeated fighting Panthers from Middlebury by a close score of 2 to 1, last Tuesday.

Scoreless First Period

Neither team scored in the first period, but the Wildcats broke the scoreless tie when Bob Banchester took a short pass from Bill Facey and sent the puck into the net in the early stages of the second period. However, the visitors tied the score before the period was over when Cairns, Panther center, shot through Norris. Before two minutes had elapsed in the last period, Cullen, left wing for Middlebury, assisted by left defenseman Phinney scored the second goal thus turning a tie into victory for the still undefeated Middlebury team.

According to Coach Lundholm: "Lack of conditioning and timing in offensive play may be attributed to lack of practice, but improper covering up in front Boston College, Saturday. The Wildcats defense seemed to be almost inexcusable."

ADVISORY COUNCIL DISCUSSES IMPORTANT UNIVERSITY CHANGES

Improvements in Curricula Adviser System and Calendar Sought

The Student Advisory council, at its first important meeting of the year, discussed changes in the University curricula, advisory system, and length of vacations at the University. The Advisory council acts in an advisory capacity between the student body and the faculty. Individual student problems may be presented to the council for solution.

At this meeting it was suggested that a simpler course in History 1 be offered. The present course, it is argued, is an excellent one but necessitates the study of too much material for one year's work. Also, a proposal that courses in citizenship (political science) and sociology should be open to freshmen and that Chaucer should not be required for a major in English was introduced.

With regard to scholarship, the possibility of having pupils who receive warnings in any subject receive extra instruction from senior majors, was discussed. This would not only benefit the student who is failing, but also the senior who helps him. It was suggested, too, that the system of advisors be changed.

In order to provide time for review studying before the intensive examinations, it was proposed that classes stop two days before the semester finals begin. A two week recess at Christmas was also urged.

At the meeting, nominations were offered for the permanent chairman of the council. The nominees were George Nye, Van Buren Hopps, John Arnfield, and Olive Richards. The election will take place at a later meeting.

ST. ANSELM BOWS TO FROSH IN WILD GAME

Hersey and Leocha High Scorers in 42 - 27 Victory

Facing the St. Anselm freshmen in a rough game of wild shooting, hard-charging, and much fouling, the smoother Wildcat Kitten hoopsters widened an eight point lead at the half to the 15-point gap at the end of the 42-27 struggle in the preliminary to the varsity encounter at the gym on Tuesday night.

New Hampshire's aggressive pair of forwards, Jack Hersey and Butch Leocha, continually broke up the opponent's attack and scored between them 25 points—more than half of the team's score.

Coach Conroy's charges met stiff opposition in the first period. Two minutes after the whistle Leocha made the first point of the game on a foul shot. Score at the end of the period—6 to 6.

The second period saw the Kittens setting a pace which could not be stopped for the rest of the game. Hersey and Dunn featured with some spectacular shooting. In spite of much unsuccessful shooting of foul shots by both teams, the score piled up to 20-12 at the half.

DEBATING, PRO OR CON?

A short time ago there appeared in the columns of this paper a letter from a disconsolate reader, one of our own student body, disparaging of the abolition of an intercollegiate debating team representing the University of New Hampshire.

Why was this intellectual sport struck from the extra-curriculum? It wasn't because of finances, as a great many of the students have been erroneously led to believe. Nor was it a lack of facilities or keen enough competition.

The real reason behind the dropping of an organized debating team was the students of the university, not only students taking actual part from the platform, but the students who should have been interested listeners.

For a time, the best competition in this part of the country was offered to the university, and for a time the University of New Hampshire took a really active part in debating.

But there never was a large following behind the speakers. The auditorium was scarcely ever the scene of more than a handful of enthusiastic hearers.

Debating stands high among intellectual outsiders, with a good team and a fine backing lending a great helping hand to the rise of an educational institution. Debating offers a cooperative recreation as well as a chance for the non-athlete to represent his university in competition with other institutions.

Anything, whatsoever, which has a chance to raise the standing of the university among others is worthwhile to you, as a student and as a graduate.

Why can't we bring debating back into the extra-curriculum of the university, as a benefit to the school collectively and to us personally?

WILDCATS UNDERDOGS IN GAME WITH TUFTS

Johnny DuRie May Play Last Five Games of Season

Tomorrow evening the Wildcat basketballers take on their traditional rivals, Tufts, at the Cousens gymnasium in Medford. Still in the throes of a losing streak, the New Hampshire boys will take the court as underdogs, but are far from downhearted.

Swasey Hopeful

Coach Swasey is still hopeful for the success of the season. Hit hard by sickness of Hanson and DuRie and a heart-breaking and inexplicable slump, all attempted combinations have failed to have the desired results.

Although Johnny DuRie is now out of the hospital, his weakened condition will not permit his playing. However, within a week or ten days, it is hoped he will be available for practice. He may participate in the last five games of the season, four of which will be in the New England Conference league.

Tufts, on the other hand, started slowly and has come along remarkably fast during the last two weeks with victories to their credit over Worcester Tech and M.I.T. The later was victorious over New Hampshire.

Weather Forecast

Friday, 10 A. M.

Durham and vicinity: Snow ending some time tonight, followed by colder weather before morning. Northerly, shifting to northwesterly, winds.

Saturday: Clearing and colder. Northwest winds, increasing during the early part of the day. Temperatures will be below freezing during the day and at night.

Sunday: Generally fair with slowly rising temperatures. Some cloudiness is possible before night. Gentle, shifting winds, probably becoming southerly. Temperatures will fall below freezing again at night.

VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM UNABLE TO END LONG LOSING STREAK

Drop Sloppy Game To Lowell Textile 31 - 23

Monday night on their home court the New Hampshire varsity "bad luck basketballers" continued their losing slump by bowing to a fast-moving Lowell Textile quintet by the score of 31-23.

The Wildcats looked very impressive as they dominated the play during the first half and the first part of the second half when they were leading by the score of 19-13.

Captain Rokean put his mates off to a good start as he registered two foul shots one-half minute after the game started. They held this slim lead through a heavy exchange of fouling during most of the first half which ended with the score 15-13 in New Hampshire's favor.

In the second half a flashy attack led by Doukaszewicz and Gianaris of Lowell Textile soon whittled down the lead of 19-13 which Chodoski's and Hanson's long shots had produced in the first two minutes. When Arnie Rokean called time out, the score had become tied at 19-19. Rokean then charged Doukaszewski who made the foul shot which put Lowell to the fore for the rest of the game. With the exception of some clever work by Chodoski, Lowell was from this time on in almost complete control of the ball.

Eddie Chodoski, who has been shifted to center in Swasey's recent shakeup of positions, was New Hampshire's out-

RELAY TEAM ENTERED IN MILLROSE GAMES

The varsity one mile relay team leaves tonight at 10:30 on the "State of Maine" pullman for New York where they will compete in the Millrose A. A. games at the Madison Square Garden. The boys arrive in New York at 7:30 Saturday morning, and will put up at the Hotel Bristol, about two blocks from the Garden. The team will leave New York Sunday noon, arriving in Durham at 7:30 P. M.

As the New Hampshire goes to press, Coach Sweet is undecided as to his team, but in all probability it will be the same as the one which was victorious at the Prout games in Boston last Saturday, with Percy Whitcomb running the first lap, Jack Gisburne the second, Jack Downs the third, and Huck Quinn running the anchor leg. It was Huck's excellent time of 50.4 for the quarter that kept New Hampshire's time down.

The Wildcats will run against Middlebury, Bowdoin, Tufts and one or two other New England colleges. Manager "Prof" Grupe predicts victory for the Blue and White on the basis of their performance last Saturday.

Those making the trip are: Downs, Quinn, Gisburne, Whitcomb, manager Grupe and Coach Sweet.

WOMEN CHOOSE STAR BASKETBALL SQUAD

The women's all star basketball squad was recently chosen from the class teams. They are as follows: forwards—Olive Roberts, Clara Morse, Louise Redden, Betty Moore, Mary Williams, Dorothy Corbin; guards—Eleanor Mastin, Frances Ham, Augusta Timberlake, Anna Hemenway, Ruth Grady, Genella Barton. They have two games scheduled—Colby Junior college and the Friendly Club of Concord.

UNBEATEN UNH RIFLE SQUAD MEETS LOWELL

Major Samuel Buracker's undefeated squad of sharp-shooting marksmen travels to Lowell tonight to match skill with bullets against the rifle team of Lowell Textile.

"We have outshot Lowell in the past", said Coach Buracker, "and are confident to take them over this year in spite of the fact that we know nothing of their success this season."

Not a single man has been lost to the squad by probation, and two veterans who have had appendix operations are returning to the squad. Frank O'Brien is practicing at present, and Robert Dubois is expected to return to practice shortly.

Making this trip are eight riflemen, the coach and manager.

Ski Team At Dartmouth Today

Tomorrow will see all the varsity teams going into action. The varsity and freshman basketball teams play a double-header with the Jumbos at Medford tomorrow night. We're not going to venture any predictions but Coach Swasey's boys are about due for a win in spite of the fact that their showing against Lowell Tech was anything but impressive. However, if there were fewer cat-calls, boos, and advice from the crowd and more cheers, it would help the team a lot when the going got tough. The only time any applause is heard is when someone sinks a basket.

And in spite of the request that everyone remain in his seat until all the players leave the gym, the floor was crowded the instant the final whistle blew. The spectators are asked to remain in their seats so that the players, who are sweaty, may get to the showers as soon as possible and not catch cold standing around. It would be greatly appreciated if everyone would comply with this simple request.

For the first time in three or four weeks enough water in the solid state was found in the vicinity of Durham to play a hockey game on. Ice is something which by this time is somewhat of a curiosity here. However on Tuesday the N. H. puck chasers faced off against undefeated Middlebury. Yesterday they took on Northeastern and today they go up against B.U. The boys are showing plenty of power and drive and are improving with every game. That game with Boston College tomorrow promises to be one of the best of the season.

Up in Hanover the ski team is doing its best to make Dartmouth's Winter Carnival a success, while down in New York the track team will be showing its stuff in the Millrose Games. Speaking of winter, we see that New Hampshire now has snow as well as ice. In fact several excursion trains are scheduled to bring hundreds of skiers to the mountain resorts this week-end. Looks like we may have winter after all!

The varsity trackmen will meet Bowdoin, Northeastern, and Middlebury at the Madison Square Garden in an effort to win its first gold medal in the Millrose Games. Coach Sweet will probably send out the same team that defeated Brown and Tufts so decisively last week at the Prout Games.

The frosh runners will have their first dual meet February 20 at Exeter Academy. The events will include the 40 yard dash, a 300 yard dash, a 600 yard dash, a 1000 yard run, a two lap relay race, 45 yard high hurdles, a high jump, broad jump, and pole vault. This is the first time in the history of the team that it has been represented in an indoor meet by high jumpers and pole vaulters. At present however, there are not enough men entered in the various events. Jumpers and middle distance runners are needed badly.

Beginning with the B.A.A. games a week from Saturday the team will have a meet every week throughout the remainder of the season.

VARSITY PUCKSTERS MEET B.U. TONIGHT

Wildcats Seek to Vindicate Earlier Defeat by Terriers

Tonight the New Hampshire puckmen meet Boston University on Durham ice in a New England league hockey game. The Boston team was victorious in the first encounter this season but the Wildcats are much stronger now than they were then and they will be out to avenge the 3-1 score. The two frosh teams will also play.

Saturday, Boston College, leaders in the New England league, moves into town. B.C. handed B.U. a 6-5 defeat earlier in the season and will give Coach Lundholm's men their hardest battle of the season. New Hampshire with one win and two defeats has flashed plenty of power this season especially when they defeated a highly favored Army sextet.

Co-captain Herb Merrill will probably start at left wing with Bob Manchester at right wing. Co-captain Bill Facey will be at center with the Martins, Russ and Wendell, in the defense positions. Ken Norris will guard the net. A second line of Jimmy McMahon, Ray Patten, and Ziggy Rogers will also be available.

By the time the average college boy today succeeds in accumulating the horsehide, the pigskin, the coonskin, and finally the sheepskin, poor father hasn't much hide left either . . .

—The Gettysburgian.

Word comes from Boston that Billy Weir has signed his 1937 contract with the Bees. This will be the first year that Billy has gone south and it will be his first full year in the big league. Manager Bill McKechnie expects the chunky southpaw to become one of his regular starting pitchers this year. Billy has kept himself in fair shape while at the University this fall and winter and should be in condition shortly. We certainly wish him the best of luck.

Dartmouth Winter Carnival Meet Offers Keen Competition

Handicapped by lack of practice due to the scarcity of snow, the New Hampshire ski team trekked northward to Hanover yesterday where they will be one of the competitors in the ski meet held in conjunction with the annual Dartmouth Winter Carnival. The meet will be a close affair all the way with teams representing Dartmouth, McGill, Montreal, Amherst, Williams, Yale, Harvard, Middlebury, Norwich and New Hampshire, not to mention the representatives of Swiss Universities who are now touring the country, all entered in this great meet.

Eight Men on Trip

Under the guidance of Coach Ed Blood, former captain and Olympic star, the following men will make the trip: lettermen Karl Craigin, Johnny Damon, Bob Jones, and Jim Scudder, who will form the nucleus of the squad, as well as Lawrence Whitcher, Phil Johnson, Al Manton and Gene Duffy, who have been outstanding skiers as freshmen, will constitute the team.

The cross country race will find Karl Craigin, International Cross Country champion of 1935, Jim Scudder, who is now participating in his fourth varsity year, Johnson and Duffy representing the Blue and White. New Hampshire should score heavily in this event, for the experience of the Wildcats will stand in good stead.

In the downhill, jumping, and slalom events, New Hampshire's lack of experience will prove detrimental. Competitors in the jumping will be Johnny Damon, Bob Jones, and Al Manton and in the slalom it is expected that Lawrence Whitcher and Johnny Damon will carry the Blue and White. Bob Jones is the only entry in the downhill race.

Wildcats Have One Meet

The loss of Norman Haweeli, who earned his letter as a freshman last year, will be keenly felt. Haweeli's broken ankle does not permit his participation,

At a meeting of the members of the Varsity relay team earlier this week, Jack Downs was reelected captain. Jack, whose home is in New Brighton, N. Y., prepared at Post Richmond high school, where he was outstanding in track.

In his four years at New Hampshire, he has been on the relay team for four years and was captain and high scorer last year. He has been a member of the spring track team for the past three years and the cross country team for two years.

Jack is a member of Scabbard and Blade, the Cauldrons and the N. H. club. He is also the secretary-treasurer of the Society of Civil Engineers.

but it is felt he will be ready for duty shortly.

The Wildcats have had only one meet this season when they competed in the Eastern Slope meet last Sunday against the Dartmouth Outing club, the Hanover Ski club, the Appalachian Mountain club, the Yale Outing club and the Schussnerie.

In the cross country race, Karl Craigin and Jim Scudder placed fourth and fifth while Scudder, Damon and Whitcher finished in ninth, tenth and eleventh places in the slalom. No jumping was held.

In the second half the Kitten hoopsters walked away with the victory over the outplayed and tiring St. Anselm squad. Fontaine, stellar guard, was knocked down in the third period, and received a knee injury. The injury was not serious, and he came back to play later. Final score—42 to 27.

Outstanding for St. Anselm was Moriarity, who scored 11 points and who played the hardest for the losing cause in the second period.

The Kittens were playing without Ray Chamberlain, high-scoring forward, who was lost to the squad by probation.

THREE HIGH SCHOOL TEAMS STAND OUT

There are three outstanding teams in Class A basketball throughout the state, according to Carl Lundholm who is preparing to conduct his eighth consecutive Interscholastic Basketball tournament. The three teams are Keene, Nashua, and Manchester Central. Berlin should not be forgotten, however, for the boys up North have a strong outfit.

Keene has won eight and lost none to hold the distinction of being the only undefeated Class A team in the state although they have another game to be played, this one with Claremont. Nashua has won eight and lost one. However, the game lost was to Leominster of Massachusetts. They still have two games to play, one with Central and one with St. Joseph's. Manchester Central has lost to Nashua and Lowell but has won six games, counting Portsmouth and St. Joseph's among their victims. Berlin has already defeated St. Joseph's by a large score and has another game to play with them.

Coach Lundholm is now in the process of visiting the teams under consideration and although hampered by his duties as hockey coach, hopes to comb the state as thoroughly as possible.

Her mind is like a railroad time table: Subject to change without notice.

4-H CLUB HOLDS VALENTINE SOCIAL

The university 4-H Club will hold its February meeting next Monday evening in the Commons Organization room at 7:30 o'clock. All students are cordially invited to attend this meeting.

The program is to be both of an educational and a social nature. Rachael Moore and Allen Holmes will have charge of the program which is to be in the form of a Valentine social.

Hard-fought Game

The game itself should be the usual hard-fought New Hampshire-Tufts encounter. Last year's game was the best of the season when, in the last ten seconds, Izzy Harris, Tufts' captain, shot a basket the length of the floor, the longest ever seen here.

The following men will make the trip: Bissell, Hanson, Boy Chodoski, Witter, Rokean, Bishop, Murphy, Cotton, Sullivan, Gozonsky and Morrison.

The probable line-up, subject to last minute changes, will be Hanson, R.F.; Bissell, L.F.; Chodoski or Bishop, C.; Rokean, L.G.; and Witter, R.G.

Tufts' probable line-up will be: Galuska and Spath, forwards, Wojciechowski, C., Kyrios and Collier, guards. Of these men Galuska, Kyrios and Wojciechowski were in the game last year.

FRESHMAN PUCKSTERS DOWNED BY ANDOVER

Team Makes Good Showing Despite Lack of Ice for Practice

After waiting for good weather for the past four weeks, the freshman puck chasers finally got a break from the weather man and journeyed to Andover for the annual game with that school where, handicapped by lack of worthwhile practice and also by the loss of Jerry Gaffney and Blink Ward by exams, the freshmen were defeated 2-1.

Andover Superior

Andover, playing their third scheduled game since the championships at Lake Placid, showed superior team play, and attacking power. New Hampshire, on the other hand, getting off to a slow start, showed superior strength in the final period and kept the puck in Andover territory almost the entire period.

The first period was rather slow with both teams handicapped by bad ice. However, the teams played cautiously with only two or three stops apiece for the goalies.

In the second period, Andover, led by their great center, Cap Hazen, scored two goals and carried the game to the wild Kittens.

Randall Scores

Entering the final period on the short end of the score, the collegians played excellent hockey, scoring one goal, a combination pass from Spearman and Carlson to Randall, and having another ruled out after the whistle.

For Andover, Hazen, Tenney and Rounds were outstanding. For New Hampshire, Thayer in the net was good. Carl Randall and Bill Spearman looked good as did Johnson and Winterbottom at the points.

Coach Mitchner was satisfied with the showing the team made, realizing the handicap under which they played.

The summary:

New Hampshire—Spearman, Moore, Roper, rw; Randall, Carlson, Senior, lw; Davidson, Richardson, c; Johnson, Carlson, rd; Winterbottom, Hanlon, ld; Thayer, g.

Andover—Tenney, Davis, Adams, rw; Foster, Seymour, Blanchard, lw; Hazen, Pike, c; White, rd; Hunt, Poor, ld; Rounds, g.

Goals—Second period: Hazen (unassisted), 6:05; Andover, Hazen (Tenney), 9:00; Third period: N. H., Randall (Spearman, Carlson), 5:55.

Penalties—Randall, Seymour, Hunt, Randall.

Referee—Cole. Time—Three 15 minute periods.

Claudette Colbert says:
"My throat is safest with a light smoke"

"An actress' throat is naturally very important to her. After experimenting, I'm convinced my throat is safest with a light smoke and that's why you'll find Luckies always on hand both in my home and in my dressing room. I like the flavor of other cigarettes also, but frankly, Luckies appeal most to my taste."

An independent survey was made recently among professional men and women—lawyers, doctors, lecturers, scientists, etc. Of those who said they smoke cigarettes, 87% stated they personally prefer a light smoke.

Miss Colbert verifies the wisdom of this preference, and so do other leading artists of the radio, stage, screen, and opera. Their voices are their fortunes. That's why so many of them smoke Luckies. You, too, can have the throat protection of Luckies—a light smoke, free of certain harsh irritants removed by the exclusive process "It's Toasted". Luckies are gentle on the throat!
