Trustees Announce Campus And Faculty Changes

Work on Lewis Fields To Be Completed Soon, Also Changes in Faculty

Campus improvements and faculty promotions, resignations, and appointments for the 1938 school year, were announced by the University of New Hampshire board of trustees this week.

A report of the Real Estate committee indicated that work on Lewis Fields will probably be completed before May 15, and Lucien O. Gottfried in June.

Approval by the board was given for the construction of a small frame structure near the University greenhouse for instructional and research facilities in botany, agriculture, and agricultural chemistry. A gift of $28,000 in 1921 by the generosity of Miss Frank Warren of the city was designated for the erection of a shelter for use of the University all-club and other recreational purposes by the trustees. A special committee was appointed to look into the matter of modeling the Hamilton Smith Library after completion evidenced a gift of $5,000 to be devoted to educational and miscellaneous conditions.

Appointments were made as follows: Lloyd C. Fogg, who has been serving under a temporary appointment since April 1, as assistant professor of history; Thompson V. Kalijarvi, from associate professor of mathematics at Loyola College; Clark L. Stevens, from assistant professor of mathematics at the University of Minnesota; W. A. Lytle, instructor of the experiment station to associate professor of forestry and associate forest economist; and C. W. Davis, assistant professor of botany and assistant botanist of the experiment station, as assistant professor of botany and assistant botanist.

A business meeting will follow the discussion of the affairs of the club at this meeting for the annual banquet of the I.R.C. to be held the latter part of May. All who are interested in international relations are cordially invited to attend this meeting.

EXECUTIVE OFFICERS OF WOMEN’S STUDENT GOVERNMENT CHosen

Annual May Queen Elect Named by Women’s Student Body, Last Wednesday

The officers of the executive council of the Women’s Student Government and this year’s May Queen were elected by the students of the university student body last Wednesday, April 21. Barbara F. Edgerton, a member of this council, was elected president of the council, and Nancy Preston, secretary of the council.

Barbara Edgerton is in her third year at the university and is a member of the Alpha Chi Omega sorority. Barbara Edgerton has been a member of the Women’s Athletic Association, the junior societies of the university, and the United States, and on diplomatic relations of the nation.

Also Changes in Faculty

Work on Lewis Fields

The International Relations club will hold a meeting Thursday evening, April 25, at 2:00 o'clock in the Common Office. The meeting will include a round table discussion on "International Relations in Civil War."

The Loyalist side will be represented by P. D. Conklin of the University of New Hampshire and William H. Henny of the University of New Hampshire. The Fascist side will be upheld by Florence Armstrong of the University of New Hampshire and Robert Davis. All the members of the club are expected to attend.

The business meeting will follow the discussion of the affairs of the club at this meeting for the annual banquet of the I.R.C. to be held the latter part of May. All who are interested in international relations are cordially invited to attend this meeting.

The bureau of appointments will sponsor a talking movie in Merrill hall tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock. This is presented through the courtesy of the Dietrich Corporation.

This picture is planned primarily for the benefit of seniors who are eligible for graduation. It is open to all students who wish to attend.

This picture is presented by the university in order to show the importance of salesmanship in securing employment, and to give students an opportunity of finding out for themselves after hiring an employer the job is satisfactory.

Dan Pettee Fondly Looks To School History Research

by Esther Barnett

"I think it's a great honor the trustees have done me," said Dean Pettee when asked about being the first student to report his coming back to the university. He is looking forward to his work as a historian in July. He has finished his first year as a member of the class of 1938 and is president of the university. He is looking forward to his work as a historian in July. He has finished his first year as a member of the class of 1938 and is president of the university. He is hoping to start his research which he intends to use to supplement with his personal reminiscences.

The picture is planned primarily for the benefit of seniors who are eligible for graduation. It is open to all students who wish to attend.

This picture is presented by the university in order to show the importance of salesmanship in securing employment, and to give students an opportunity of finding out for themselves after hiring an employer the job is satisfactory.

Dan Pettee Fondly Looks To School History Research

by Esther Barnett

"I think it's a great honor the trustees have done me," said Dean Pettee when asked about being the first student to report his coming back to the university. He is looking forward to his work as a historian in July. He has finished his first year as a member of the class of 1938 and is president of the university. He is hoping to start his research which he intends to use to supplement with his personal reminiscences.

The picture is planned primarily for the benefit of seniors who are eligible for graduation. It is open to all students who wish to attend.

This picture is presented by the university in order to show the importance of salesmanship in securing employment, and to give students an opportunity of finding out for themselves after hiring an employer the job is satisfactory.
by Donald Mendelson

Many countries which have never been strongly united have often been strongly stabilized by the threat of foreign invasion. The fear of foreign interference in domestic affairs has led to cooperation among political organizations and economic elements in a country as a counterbalance to the foreign invaders and propaganda in that country. This type of unification has in the vast majority of cases been strong enough to stultify the choices of the foreigners in dominating a country.

A counterpointing example of the unification that can come about in a country by many diverse elements is Russia. The April 26 tests were faced by much opposition from within the rank and file of the Allied forces. However, the moment that the Allies attempted to interfere in Russia’s domestic affairs in 1919, the peasants who were more or less neutral toward the internal fighting, immediately allied themselves with the Communists to resist the interference of foreigners in Russia’s internal affairs. Thus, the Allies contributed much toward the success of Communism in Russia by attempting to interfere in her internal affairs. It is highly probable that Communism might have been overthrown by the Russians themselves.

LEADERS

Congratulations to the newly elected officers and representatives in the Student Council and the Women’s Student Government!

With a majority of the student body taking part in the annual elections, these men and women represent the choice of most of the undergraduates. Placed upon the shoulders of the elected is the responsibility of bringing about improvements in the university, to be done by making a coordination between the Administration and the student body, to help gain the “highest interests of morale on the campus,” to promote the highest standard of honor and integrity in the student body, and to see the enforcement of the few written and unwritten laws of the University.

These purposes of the bodies to which these men and women have been chosen mean much. It is a challenge to them. Will they meet the expectations of the fellows? All too often, men and women elected to these positions have failed to meet the expectations of their office.

NOTICES

Memorah Society

As a result of a meeting held Wednesday afternoon, the Women’s Student Government decided to have an outing on Sunday, May 1, to the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Seabury, Pound, Conn. This trip will be limited to members alone and a few of the faculty members. This organization has had three regular outings this year, and to make sure we leave Sunday morning and will return early Sunday evening.

Outing Club

There will be an outing club trip to Mount Monadnock this Sunday at 9:00 P.M. On Friday and Saturday, there will be a joint trip with Radcliffe to Cape Cod.

Carnivals

There will be a meeting of the Carnival Club this Saturday at 7:00 P.M. in the Trophy room of the Commons.

New Books at the Library

The Haunted Comedy

By Willard Huntington Wright

Charles G. Leland

The Haunted Comedy is a short story collection of twelve ‘apparition’ stories, written in a conversational style. The characters are not simply confined to the afterlife; they roam about in the present, and their stories are told by various narrators, including the narrator himself.

Bum’s Bloomery

Cities of Refuge, Thursday

Dorothy L. Sayers

Court Guard to the Right

Salubrer Farm, Robert Tristram Coffin

Windless Victory and High Tenor

Michael Applewood

Forty-Fourth Century Look Down

F. Brett Austin

Country Kitchens, Delta Thompson Lakes

Relaxed Friend, Catherine D. Bowen—Barbara von Mezey

The Great N. C. E. Roseman

Here’s to Crime, Courtney Riley Cooper

The Sound of Running Feet, Thursday

H. O. R. and the Lawrence

Invisible Cities, Thursday

Pleasant Without Alarm, Walter Millis.

The World’s Greatest Folk Songs

O. C. G. of Singers

Photo Gallery, Thursday

O. C. G. of Photographers

C. E. F. Kenney Moes.

DURHAM NEWS

Continued from page 1

There will be an exhibition of Swedish artifacts next Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. James Chambrey. There will be an exhibition of Swedish artifacts next Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. James Chambrey.

The College Art association, with headquarters in the Business Office, was organized in 1912 to meet the need for a center of interest for the study of art. The club has grown in size and activity, and has become an important factor in the cultural life of the University.

Andy is a student at the University of New Hampshire and he is studying art education. He plans to become a teacher of art when he graduates.

ART EXHIBITION HELD AT LIBRARY

There has been an exhibit of paintings by students of the college held at the college library since April 5 to 24, an exhibit of a selection of the best paintings made by students of the college.

TUESDAY

There will be an outing club trip to Mount Monadnock this Sunday at 9:00 P.M. On Friday and Saturday, there will be a joint trip with Radcliffe to Cape Cod.

Carnivals

There will be a meeting of the Carnival Club this Saturday at 7:00 P.M. in the Trophy room of the Commons.

New Books at the Library

The Haunted Comedy

By Willard Huntington Wright

Charles G. Leland

The Haunted Comedy is a short story collection of twelve ‘apparition’ stories, written in a conversational style. The characters are not simply confined to the afterlife; they roam about in the present, and their stories are told by various narrators, including the narrator himself.

Bum’s Bloomery

Cities of Refuge, Thursday

Dorothy L. Sayers

Court Guard to the Right

Salubrer Farm, Robert Tristram Coffin

Windless Victory and High Tenor

Michael Applewood

Forty-Fourth Century Look Down

F. Brett Austin

Country Kitchens, Delta Thompson Lakes

Relaxed Friend, Catherine D. Bowen—Barbara von Mezey

The Great N. C. E. Roseman

Here’s to Crime, Courtney Riley Cooper

The Sound of Running Feet, Thursday

H. O. R. and the Lawrence

Invisible Cities, Thursday

Pleasant Without Alarm, Walter Millis.

The World’s Greatest Folk Songs

O. C. G. of Singers

Photo Gallery, Thursday

O. C. G. of Photographers

C. E. F. Kenney Moes.

DURHAM NEWS

Continued from page 1

There will be an exhibition of Swedish artifacts next Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. James Chambrey. There will be an exhibition of Swedish artifacts next Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. James Chambrey.

The College Art association, with headquarters in the Business Office, was organized in 1912 to meet the need for a center of interest for the study of art. The club has grown in size and activity, and has become an important factor in the cultural life of the University.

Andy is a student at the University of New Hampshire and he is studying art education. He plans to become a teacher of art when he graduates.
VARSLY LACROSSE
TEAM WINS SECOND CONTEST OF SEASON
Preble, Ballou, Kinion, Levine, and Karazia All Score as Wildcats Win

Winning the favor of a large opening crowd and passing the scorebook round after it won its second game of the season as it defeated Bowdoin, 11-4, on Saturday, on Memorial field.

The spring sports season is well under way at the university where every team except varsity and freshman baseball having gapped in at least one contest. The ball team was made to feel the weight of the first thing Saturday against the Bates Bobcats, but owing to the frightful form of the field, it was cancelled and this game will not be made up.

However, the team is scheduled to play Maine at 3 and Dartmouth at 5.

Thursday, the first ball tosses encoun- ter Austin-Cate. As usual, locally a hot group of players out there. The Maine Bobcats, however, have been doing well in the varsity events in which New Hampshire is a sure thing as Stan Holt of Rhode Island and then went on later to run the third relay and shuttle hurdle relay.

The starting line was set a yard away from the start line, but the first yard was little behind where he passed the baton to his teammate, and that position, was paced by Danielson of Bates, leaving Quinn with a slight dis- advantage to overcome to win.

The Wildcats enter in the half-mile run against the team, but for the home team.

The relay races were the only varsity events in which New Hampshire had a strong showing by the freshmen, and were led by the Bobcats.

The starting line was set a yard away from the start line, but the first yard was little behind where he passed the baton to his teammate, and that position, was paced by Danielson of Bates, leaving Quinn with a slight dis- advantage to overcome to win.

The Wildcats entered in the half-mile run against the team, but for the home team.

The relay races were the only varsity events in which New Hampshire had a strong showing by the freshmen, and were led by the Bobcats.

The starting line was set a yard away from the start line, but the first yard was little behind where he passed the baton to his teammate, and that position, was paced by Danielson of Bates, leaving Quinn with a slight dis- advantage to overcome to win.

The Wildcats entered in the half-mile run against the team, but for the home team.

The relay races were the only varsity events in which New Hampshire had a strong showing by the freshmen, and were led by the Bobcats.

The starting line was set a yard away from the start line, but the first yard was little behind where he passed the baton to his teammate, and that position, was paced by Danielson of Bates, leaving Quinn with a slight dis- advantage to overcome to win.

The Wildcats entered in the half-mile run against the team, but for the home team.

The relay races were the only varsity events in which New Hampshire had a strong showing by the freshmen, and were led by the Bobcats.

The starting line was set a yard away from the start line, but the first yard was little behind where he passed the baton to his teammate, and that position, was paced by Danielson of Bates, leaving Quinn with a slight dis- advantage to overcome to win.

The Wildcats entered in the half-mile run against the team, but for the home team.

The relay races were the only varsity events in which New Hampshire had a strong showing by the freshmen, and were led by the Bobcats.

The starting line was set a yard away from the start line, but the first yard was little behind where he passed the baton to his teammate, and that position, was paced by Danielson of Bates, leaving Quinn with a slight dis- advantage to overcome to win.

The Wildcats entered in the half-mile run against the team, but for the home team.

The relay races were the only varsity events in which New Hampshire had a strong showing by the freshmen, and were led by the Bobcats.

The starting line was set a yard away from the start line, but the first yard was little behind where he passed the baton to his teammate, and that position, was paced by Danielson of Bates, leaving Quinn with a slight dis- advantage to overcome to win.

The Wildcats entered in the half-mile run against the team, but for the home team.

The relay races were the only varsity events in which New Hampshire had a strong showing by the freshmen, and were led by the Bobcats.

The starting line was set a yard away from the start line, but the first yard was little behind where he passed the baton to his teammate, and that position, was paced by Danielson of Bates, leaving Quinn with a slight dis- advantage to overcome to win.

The Wildcats entered in the half-mile run against the team, but for the home team.

The relay races were the only varsity events in which New Hampshire had a strong showing by the freshmen, and were led by the Bobcats.

The starting line was set a yard away from the start line, but the first yard was little behind where he passed the baton to his teammate, and that position, was paced by Danielson of Bates, leaving Quinn with a slight dis- advantage to overcome to win.

The Wildcats entered in the half-mile run against the team, but for the home team.

The relay races were the only varsity events in which New Hampshire had a strong showing by the freshmen, and were led by the Bobcats.

The starting line was set a yard away from the start line, but the first yard was little behind where he passed the baton to his teammate, and that position, was paced by Danielson of Bates, leaving Quinn with a slight dis- advantage to overcome to win.

The Wildcats entered in the half-mile run against the team, but for the home team.

The relay races were the only varsity events in which New Hampshire had a strong showing by the freshmen, and were led by the Bobcats.

The starting line was set a yard away from the start line, but the first yard was little behind where he passed the baton to his teammate, and that position, was paced by Danielson of Bates, leaving Quinn with a slight dis- advantage to overcome to win.

The Wildcats entered in the half-mile run against the team, but for the home team.

The relay races were the only varsity events in which New Hampshire had a strong showing by the freshmen, and were led by the Bobcats.

The starting line was set a yard away from the start line, but the first yard was little behind where he passed the baton to his teammate, and that position, was paced by Danielson of Bates, leaving Quinn with a slight dis- advantage to overcome to win.

The Wildcats entered in the half-mile run against the team, but for the home team.

The relay races were the only varsity events in which New Hampshire had a strong showing by the freshmen, and were led by the Bobcats.

The starting line was set a yard away from the start line, but the first yard was little behind where he passed the baton to his teammate, and that position, was paced by Danielson of Bates, leaving Quinn with a slight dis- advantage to overcome to win.

The Wildcats entered in the half-mile run against the team, but for the home team.

The relay races were the only varsity events in which New Hampshire had a strong showing by the freshmen, and were led by the Bobcats.

The starting line was set a yard away from the start line, but the first yard was little behind where he passed the baton to his teammate, and that position, was paced by Danielson of Bates, leaving Quinn with a slight dis- advantage to overcome to win.

The Wildcats entered in the half-mile run against the team, but for the home team.

The relay races were the only varsity events in which New Hampshire had a strong showing by the freshmen, and were led by the Bobcats.
field would also be completed late this spring. It was reported that the University Pond project now under way will probably not be completed for use in the 1937 swimming season. Action was taken relative to equipment for the field house.

The new structure on the greenhouse property will provide space for soil mixing and storing, for experimental work with storage bins, for fertilizer storage and for experimental work.

WOMEN HOLD INTER-HOUSE ACTIVITIES

During the last few weeks, ten out of a possible eleven houses have entered the four tournaments and have made a successful beginning in basketball, badminton and bowling. The pin-pong tournament is now being carried on in the various houses.

 Theta Upilon was the winner of the basketball tournament. The Association of Women Day Students, represented by Edna Zure, Eleanor Howard, Mary Ther­bergy, Janette Jani is and Lurline Thomp­son, was victorious in the bowling con­test, the high score being 275. The run­ners-up were Chi Omega, Theta Upilon, and Smith Hall.

In badminton, the winner was Smith Hall, represented by Barion and Prince Chie Fu Mu; while second with Thompson and Edgely; and reaching the semi-finals were Scott hall (Ellel), and Smith Women Day Students (Stimson, Leath­ers). In the pin-pong tournament now in process, the winners of the respective houses will enter the semi-finals. Four points is given for every girl entering the tournament.

Executive Officers

(Continued from page 1)

Chairman of the Chi Omega sorority, for the next year, and is the president of the sorority this year. She is also a member of Pan-Hellenic and Psi Lambda.

Barbara Parsons was elected as the junior class member and Rachael Moore as the sophomore member. Bar­bara Parsons is a member of the Com­mittee on the Greek society, Christian Work, Inc., and the University 4-H club.

Pan-Hellenic Holds Semi-Formal Dance

The Pan-Hellenic semi-formal was held last Friday evening at the men's gymna­sium. Nate, Gold and his Commanders were featured for the first time on this campus.

The hall was decorated with streamers of the University colors, which were hung from the center of the room to the walls. The orchestra had many novelties, and played many unique arrangements. The champagne for the evening were President and Mrs. Ensghard, Dean Ruth J. Woodford, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Y. Blevett.

Engineers Attend

New York Convention

Fifteen members of the New Hamp­shire Student branch of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers will leave Durham May 2, accompanied by Professor Louis W. Hitchcock and Wil­liam B. Nelson of the department of electrical engineering, on a trip to Buf­falo, N. Y., where they will attend an annual convention of the Northeastern district of the A.I.E.E. This convention will be held May 5 to 7.

The students will also inspect several large industrial plants in the region.

In the Big Town, you see lots of empty packages. That means that pack after pack of refreshingly mild, good tasting Chesterfields have satisfied hundreds maybe thousands. Way out in Goose Creek Junction, you meet up with men who tell you that Chesterfields are milder—you see ladies who tell you how good they taste and what a pleasing aroma they have.