Eleven Votes Oppose Overwhelming Majority in Favor of the Blanket Tax

Results from the students on the student activity tax last Friday showed an overwhelming majority in favor of the tax. Out of 58 votes cast there were 57 for the blanket tax and only 11 dissenting votes. This shows 98.07 percent of the votes cast were in the affirmative.

Tax Incorporated Two Years Ago

The blanket tax, which was inaugurated in New Hampshire two years ago, has proved to be of ever increasing popularity and in each of the three years which a vote has been taken by the students of the three lower classes the percentage rate of affirmative votes cast has been higher than that of the previous year.

In 1935, which was the first vote on campus, the majority of voting students cast 95.3 per cent of those cast and in 1936 it was 93.34 per cent, with 98.03 per cent cast in this institution.

The tax voted for in New Hampshire was invested in this tax than in any other similar institution in New England.

WEIRD ACTIVITY TAX
THE LISTENING POST
by Donald Meadham

The death of John D. Rockefeller, Sr., rendered the presiding judge of the general presidency exemplary precedence to people engaged in all walks of life. Over a billion dollars were left for the support of religious and educational institutions. In the case of secular concerns, the loss of Mr. Rockefeller, after his retirement from the business of the world, was a very significant and the best possible advantage. An eloquent could truly say, "He was generous be- cause he was good."

In the case of religious institutions, it was a fine attribute of Mr. Rockefeller to give away. It was a fine attribute of Rockefeller to give away.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL OPENS ON AUGUST 22

Religious school will open for the twenty-second year at the University, August 22, continuing through August 27. The program will feature a laboratory with classes in various kinds of church work. Twenty-five courses will be offered. There will be classes for teachers, intermediates, junior, and intermediate departments.

The faculty will be headed by Dr. Ruth Richards Miller of Milford, Mass., educator at Boston University School of Religion and Social Work. Dr. Miller is a graduate of Mt. Holyoke.

Mrs. Naomi Elekhal, assistant professor of psychology, will be dean of women and the Rev. Clifford H. Osborne, pastor of the Congress Street Methodist Episcopal church, Portland, Maine, will be dean of men.

More than 300 students from 12 states and foreign countries will be enrolled in the school. Registration is open to all those interested in church work.

Dr. Fred Engelhardt has been named as a new trustee.

The last program of the Women's Guild was in the form of a luncheon at the home of Mrs. James Chamberlin. Mrs. Allan B. Partridge and Mrs. George Thomas were chairmen of the luncheon committee. Afterward Mrs. James Fundhower sang a group of spirituals, and the sewing committee put on a style show.

CHESTERFIELDS will give you more pleasure... They Satisfy... Up-to-the-minute trains and modern planes make travel easier... more pleasant.

And wherever you see folks enjoying these modern things of life you'll see them enjoying Chesterfield Cigarettes.

The colorful scenes from New Hampshire's history that were shown to New England town Saturday composed a Mother's Day pageant that was unique and instructive, as well as entertaining.

The use of a local historical theme was patriotic without being provincial, and was much more apropos than a celebration of the conventional episodes seen so frequently. The men students who took part—this was the first pageant for several years which has had masculine participation—performed their roles creditably and provided a good background for the chorus dancing of the girls.

Up-to-the-minute methods and finer ingredients... pure cigarette paper... mild ripe aromatic home-grown and Turkish tobaccos, aged and mellowed for two years or more... make Chesterfield an outstanding cigarette.
