

the year in volunteers 2020

Each year, volunteers donate their time to extend the work of UNH Cooperative Extension. They help make New Hampshire's individuals and communities more successful, and its natural resources healthy and productive.

where they live & give their time

An additional 4 volunteers gave 572 hours in statewide initiatives, and 55 volunteers gave 726 hours to efforts in neighboring Maine and Massachusetts.

covid-19 safety training

UNH Extension responded to the COVID-19 pandemic, in part, by developing a training to educate volunteers on how to keep safe while volunteering outdoors.
