

Thompson School Students Receive Big E Scholarships

Contact: Beth Potier
603-862-1566
UNH Media Relations

Sue Gallup
413-205-5041
Eastern States Exposition

October 25, 2006

DURHAM, N.H. -- Three first-year students at the University of New Hampshire's Thompson School of Applied Science received $1,000 scholarships from the New Hampshire Grant Committee at Eastern States Exposition ("Big E) for their FFA and 4-H work. The students are:

- Sarah Smith of Danville
- Bryan Tasker of Strafford
- Justine Mary Morris of Haverhill

The scholarships were presented in September at The Big E in West Springfield, Mass., New England's largest fair. More than 100 New Hampshire FFA and 4-H members have received Big E Scholarships totaling over $100,000 since the program began in 1979.

The Thompson School of Applied Science at the University of New Hampshire offers eight associate degree programs with a focus on practical, applied learning. For more information, go to www.unh.edu/tsas. For more information on the Big E, visit www.thebige.com.