

Calling All Philosophers

The NEH summer seminar on philosophy, to be held at UNH, now accepting applications through March 1

Tuesday, February 5, 2019

The University of New Hampshire will host philosophy scholars for a four-week seminar that will explore philosophical responses to empiricism in Kant, Hegel and American philosopher Wilfrid Sellars. The program will run June 19 to July 19, 2019. The program is now accepting applications through March 1, 2019.

NEH seminars provide opportunities for college and university faculty to enrich and revitalize their understanding, scholarship and teaching of humanities topics that bear upon undergraduate education.
