Wildcats Face Colby in First Game of Season

Blue and White Hopes Hinge on Veteran Line And Light, Fast Backs

The Colby Mules, sporting one of the greatest teams in the school's history, will gallop out on the turf of Lewis Field tomorrow afternoon at two-thirty o'clock to open the current football season against George Sauer's Wildcats. New Hampshire, with a veteran backfield, faces an entirely different problem than last year when the situation was reversed. "Our line will be fairly heavy with the exception of Steve Lampson", said Coach Sauer when interviewed on Wednesday, "but our backfield, containing three sophomores, will be quite light and inexperienced." The backfield is also very short on reserves.

Team candidates and coaches received encouragement this week when it was learned that Ario Piretti, senior guard, will be able to play the gridiron sport this fall. At first it was thought that Piretti would be off campus practice-teaching, but he has changed plans and is working out daily with the squad.

This week the varsity squad scrimmaged with the freshmen, who ran Colby plays. Straight football was stressed, as the coaches are trying to get the team in shape for the opener.

Joseph Levy Wins Scholarship Award

Joseph B. Levy of the class of 1943 has been announced the winner of the coveted Valentine Smith scholarship, most remunerative award offered by the University of New Hampshire.

Established by the late Hamilton Smith of Durham, the scholarship pays one hundred dollars a year for four years, if a reasonable average is maintained. Its award is based on the results of competitive examinations given in English, American history, algebra, plane geometry, and either physics or chemistry. This year thirty-eight freshmen competed.

Levy is a graduate of Portsmouth high school with the class of 1939. At the university he will major in chemistry as a student in the college of technology.

"Rec" Notice

Starting next Monday, October 2, "Rec" will be held in the women's gym from 6:50 until 7:50 each Monday and Thursday evening for all students. A beginner's "Rec" will be held in the gym at 7:50 each Wednesday evening for the benefit of those students who wish to learn to dance.

"Rec" was started two years ago at the University. It is sponsored by the Women's Athletic Association, and has proved so successful that it has been continued throughout the winter months. Two of the three times it is held each week, it is open to all students, and on Wednesday evenings, only those people who do not know how to dance are allowed to attend. Beginner's "Rec" has been especially popular in the past and it is hoped that a large number of people will be present at these sessions this year. Anyone who wishes to dance, but does not know how, is urged to go. This year, new dance records are being secured by the athletic department for this purpose, and will be ready at the gym for next Monday night, first night of "Rec."

Student Council Plans New Coordinating Board

At its latest meeting, the Student Council made plans for University Day, at which the council will officiate and take charge of all activities. The members also discussed a coordinating council which will make its first appearance on campus this year. Its purpose is to look into and attempt to solve coeducational interests and problems. The question of the point system, which involves coeducational office holding, was taken up also. The council voted to donate $150 to the band fund.

The next meeting of the Student Council will include nominations for men for the new coordinating council and discussion of the point system. A central filing system for honorary societies will be introduced into the university for the first time.

Registration Hits Two Thousand

Sackett Releases Figures For Largest Enrollment In History of University

In a statement issued to "The New Hampshire" Thursday morning, Dr. Sackett, registrar of the University, stated that registration would undoubtedly hit a new high this year by tomorrow noon, when approximately two thousand students, as compared with 1858 last year, will have registered.

Up to Thursday there were 1305 men 610 women already registered. This makes a grand total of 1915 for the three colleges.

The college of liberal arts led the registration with a small army of 1225 students, including 640 men and 585 women. Second place went to the college of technology with registration figures showing 382 men and one woman enrolled. One hundred ninety-one men and two women have registered for the four year agriculture course, while 46 men and one woman are taking a two year course in that college. The graduate school showed a total of 68 students registering with 47 men and 21 women enrolled.

Newman Club

Sunday night the Newman Club held an informal social meeting in Ballard Hall for the purpose of acquainting the freshmen with the members of the club, and to organize the freshmen for the coming Newman Club year. The Rev. J. D. O'Connor gave a short talk welcoming the new class. President Phil Smith spoke briefly, as did former president George McCaffrey. Refreshments were served, and the meeting adjourned at eight.

ent at these sessions this year. Anyone who wishes to dance, but does not know how, is urged to go. This year, new dance records are being secured by the athletic department for this purpose, and will be ready at the gym for next Monday night, first night of "Rec."

Services Held for Miss C. Thompson

After a prolonged illness, Miss Charlotte Ann Thompson, librarian of the Durham University for twenty-five years, and "Librarian Emerita" for nine years, passed away at her home on Ballard Street, Sunday, September 24.

Born in Durham on March 15, 1851, when Durham was still a tiny agricultural community, she spent her childhood here. After teaching for a number of years in Concord and Durham, she began her library career in the Durham Public Library, which later consolidated with the University Library.

Prayers were attended at her home on Tuesday morning, and funeral services were held at 3:00 P. M. at the Durham Community Church on the same day. The flag in front of Thompson Hall was lowered to half mast in tribute.

First Convocation of Semester Held at Cage Thursday

President Engelhardt Welcomes New Students To University Campus

At the first convocation of the year held at the Field House yesterday morning, President Fred Engelhardt welcomed the incoming students to the University and greeted the returning classes. The freshman class, the largest in the history of the college, marched into the hall to be met with cheers from the upperclassmen led by Richard Nellson, president of Student Council.

After various announcements were read by Nellson, Rachel Moore, president of the Association of Women Students, spoke on behalf of her organization in another welcome to new students. Then Nellson outlined plans of the Student Council to make this year a banner year in the history of the University, and led the group in cheers and songs.

In his address the president told the student body that "youth can do better things than fight wars." Expressing deep concern about the international situation, he maintained that in times like these we should hold tight to those principles and ideals which men have cherished, and keep our minds whole and rational. Freedom, and here on this campus we find true intellectual and social freedom, is the choicest of our possessions, and we should value it highly and resolve to keep it intact. He went on to sketch opportunities that the University offered in study and social life and ended with a fervent hope that all class rivalry would be of the friendliest sort.

Convocation ended at 12:15 with the singing of Alma Mater. In accordance with a system inaugurated this year, seniors, then juniors, sophomores and freshmen were dismissed in order to prevent confusion.

Except for the senior convocation of last spring, this assembly is the first since 1922 when the entire student body has been present. Lack of space in the gymnasium prohibited senior attendance for seventeen years.

Frosh Trounce Sophs at Annual University Day

Temporary Officers Chosen by Freshmen

For the first time in the history of university politics, two girls were elected to one office Thursday, September 21, when the Freshman Class appointed the Kimball twins, Flora and Dorothy, to the office of Secretary-Treasurer, pro tem.

Gaylord Davis was elected temporary President and Dennis Fogarty, Vice-President.

These officers will act until permanent elections are held later. This year a new system will be installed in elections, where solicited petitions will take the place of nominations by the voters. The ballots will be all drawn up and ready for voting on election day.

Dwight Long Opens 1939-1940 Series

Prof. Walsh Announces Concert-Lecture Series Program for Coming Year

The 1939-1940 Concert and Lecture series will be inaugurated next Wednesday evening, when Dwight Long, one of the few skippers ever to circumnavigate the globe with a one-man crew, comes to the lecture platform of Murkland auditorium.

The young skipper will tell of his year's trip, which took him from his native Seattle to the far corners of the earth. With one companion in his 32-foot ketch, "Idle Hour", he traveled down the Pacific coast, through the South seas, the Far East, Europe, and back home across the Atlantic. He will tell of the storms and hurricanes which he met on his 1200 mile trip from Samoa to New Zealand.

The following program has been announced by Professor John A. Walsh, chairman of the Lecture and Concert committee:

October 4 — Dwight Long — "The Seven Seas on a Shoe-String."
October 18 — Harold Bauer, pianist.
November 1 — Major Allen A. Macfarland — "Secret Service Thrills and Propaganda."
November 15 — Gerard Haft, cellist; Einar Hansen, violinist; Ethel Hutchinson, pianist.
November 22 — Hebert Agar — "What England Wants from America."
December 6 — Manchester A. Capella Choir.
January 7 — Federal Symphony Orchestra of Massachusetts. (First time full symphony has appeared on campus.)
January 10 — Louis K. Anspacher — "Drama As a Social Force in Democracy."
February 14 — Bashka Paef — Demonstration of Principles of Modelling.
March 13 — Blanche Yurka — "Comedy Through the Ages."
March 20 — Efreem Zimbalist, violinist.
April 17 — Royal Dadmun, baritone.
May 2 — Required Convocation — Lucien Price, Editor of the Boston Globe.

Season tickets for the concert are now available at the business office. Students and instructors desiring their tickets should get them within two weeks, since they will be on sale to the general public after this time.

The Lectures and Concerts committee, headed by Professor John S. Walsh, includes B. W. Bergathorn, new professor of music; J. S. Funkhouser, assistant professor of chemistry; K. S. Morrow, professor of dairy husbandry; J. T. Schoolcraft, instructor in languages; Mrs. Lucinda P. Smith of the English department; H. B. Stevens, publicity director; and R. B. True, assistant to the Treasurer.

Upperclassmen Defeated By Superior Ability of Yearlings in Big Events

The clouds cleared away, the sun shone, and the freshmen defeated the sophomores 4½ to 3½ at the annual University Day held Thursday, September 28 at Memorial Field. One sophomore, Robert Knowlton, received a broken collar-bone during the fray and several other participants were slightly damaged.

The freshman class assembled in front of Hetzel hall at 1:30 and, weighted down by the rope and preceded by the band, staggered up Main street to Memorial Field. The show started promptly at 1:50 when the freshman girls rang up the curtain by taking the cage ball event with four points to the sophomores' three.

The ten yard lead gained by the frosh when a sophomore runner tripped and fell during the first lap of the relay, was not enough to prevent the upperclass runners from winning.

Adorned in oversized rubbers and raincoats, and toting umbrellas and suitcases, the feminine contingent took up the battle again. The frosh girls won by proving that they can dress and undress faster than the sophomores.

The class of 1942 ambled off with the centipede race. Striding in perfect time, the long-legged sophomores finished the course ahead of the struggling yearlings. 1943 squared things up by demonstrating that freshmen make better wheelbarrows than sophomores do.

The class of 1942 lost the girls over-and-under basketball tourney by a policy of consistent fumbling. The frosh women thus gained three out of the four and one-half points won by the

Roland Hinkley to be at Band Dance

Roland Hinkley and his orchestra will provide music for an informal dance at the Women's Gymnasium tomorrow evening, following the Colby football game. The dance will be under the auspices of the University Band and the proceeds will go to the band fund for uniforms.

Last year, several dances were run by the band for this purpose, but as yet, the necessary amount has not been received.

The orchestra will start playing at 8 o'clock and will continue until eleven-thirty. In an effort to get as large a group as possible to attend this dance, the price has been kept to the minimum charge of forty cents, even though considerable additional cost has been incurred in securing a different band for this dance.

Notice

Tryouts for "Our Town", the new play by Thornton Wilder which will be the fall production of Mask and Dagger, were held Wednesday and Thursday nights at seven o'clock in Murkland auditorium and will continue Friday night.

The play will be cast over the weekend and the first rehearsal will be held Wednesday evening.

REGISTRATION

Last year The New Hampshire carried an editorial in its first issue in which a request was made to facilitate the machinery of registration, stressing that there seemed to be an unnecessary tieup in the treasurer's office and the registrar's office. This year the confusion in those two offices was somewhat alleviated, but not without adding more confusion elsewhere. It is just as bothersome to be kept waiting for an hour or two in Murkland hall as to be kept the same time in the business office.

Registration seems to get worse every year. Instead of becoming simpler it becomes more and more complex and difficult. Perhaps it is a necessary evil, about which nothing can be done, but on the other hand, when such a complicated and involved procedure as commencement can be run off with such precision that every member of a class as huge as that of last June receives his own diploma without a hitch in the exercises, then it would seem that registration could be simplified somewhat.

1939 - 1940

Once more the University of New Hampshire has begun its regular year. The freshmen have already been welcomed to the campus so many times they are groggy, but this little welcome is confined to that very dependable, but much abused and too often forgotten creature, the upper-classman. The New Hampshire again expects to carry on for another year at least and at this time welcomes the three upper classes back to the fold. Remember that this is your paper. It welcomes your constructive criticism and solicits your advice. Only through the cooperation of the staff and the students of the university can the paper be run smoothly and efficiently. To that end, then, we hope you will do your part towards making this year's New Hampshire a most successful issue.

TOMORROW

That is the day the football team opens their 1939 season. This year Colby replaces Lowell as the opener. The team has been working hard for three weeks and deserves the unqualified support of the student body. Two years ago when the university was represented by a winning team, school spirit and team support ran high. Last year when the team was experiencing difficulties it was disappointing to note that the support fell off. This year's team should be successful, but successful or not, it is the duty of each and every student and faculty member to support the eleven 100%.

FINE PRINTS EXHIBIT

An exhibit of the finest existing color reproductions is now on display in the Arts Center, Hamilton Smith Library. The prints are eighty in number and represent only outstanding painters from all periods of art history. From these prints the beginning of a permanent collection will be chosen, selected by students for University use. The pictures will be returned to New York for framing and then will be made available for rent, at a small fee, to individuals. Balloting will continue until Wednesday, October 4.

Refugees Selected for Consideration

Ernest Jawetz Nominated As First Choice; Philip Geffner as Alternate

The International Student Service, through the efforts of Rev. Robert L. James, Student Christian Movement leader, has notified the University of two young men for consideration for a course of study at the University of New Hampshire. All of the expenses would be paid by the students and administration of this college and taken from the "Refugee Fund" which was started last year.

Ernest Jawetz, who has studied at the University of Vienna for eight semesters, is a candidate for the scholarship. Although he arrived in this country only two months ago, he has been working this summer at the World's Fair, acting as a translator. He would, no doubt, enjoy New Hampshire, as he belonged to a skiing society in Vienna and won many championships.

Philip Geffner, the alternate choice, has studied at the University of Heidelberg, where he specialized in the natural sciences, and also at the Conservatory of Jerusalem in Palestine, where he studied music.

Both students are very highly recommended, and it is expected that arrangements will soon be completed so that a choice may be made in the near future.

freshmen, and could claim credit for the victory.

The cane rush was tied, each side garnering 19 canes. This event was probably the roughest of all the events as shown by the injuries received.

In the rope pull no decisive victory was gained. For 12 minutes both sides heaved manfully, getting nowhere fast. At the expiration of the time limit the sophomores had most of the rope in their possession, so the frosh entered the pond under their own power.

The class of 1943 is the second freshman class in the history of the University to defeat a sophomore class. Last year the present sophomore class vanquished the class of 1941.

With the Outing Club

The Outing Club is now making extensive plans for this year's activities. The first event of the season was the Freshman Outing at the cabin at Mendum's Pond. This outing was free to all freshmen, members or not, and transportation, a supper, and an evening of entertainment were provided by the club. Last year's attendance reached well over two hundred students.

The next event of importance will be the annual horse show on October 12. About seventy horses will be entered in this show and a varied program of model saddle horses, jumping, contests, exhibitions, will be provided. Student riding is to be one of the primary features of this year's show, as the Club is now sponsoring a riding school at the University. It is expected that an intercollegiate class will also be held.

It has always been a major problem with the club to provide an all-around program on campus for those members who do not participate in the week-end trips. Last year this problem was successfully solved with monthly lectures and moving pictures. Such famous hikers and skiers as Jack Durrance, Walter Prager, and Sidney Shurcliffe appeared on campus. Another series of lectures and movies is being prepared for this year.

An added feature may be an exhibition of part of the Sella collection of photographs owned by the Appalachian Mountain Club. Vittorio Sella of Biella, Italy, was a famous Alpine photographer and was present on expeditions in the Alps, Caucasians, Himalayas, and Equatorial Africa. The collection consists of over seven hundred photographs of mountain scenery.

In February the club will hold the annual winter carnival, one of the most active week-ends of the college year. Last year's carnival, the most successful ever held, was featured with an outdoor pageant, snow sculpture, ski competitions, a barn dance, and the Carnival Ball. A program of much the same type will be again in order.

Yacht Club Starts Social Activities

The Yacht club very successfully opened the year's campus activities Monday night, sponsoring the annual Registration Day Dance which found over 200 couples enjoying the music of Porter Kimball and his orchestra.

The dance was chaperoned by Dean Woodruff, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grant, and Mr. and Mrs. Jasper E. Bachelder. The money realized from the dance went to repair hurricane damage suffered by the Yacht club fleet last fall.

Toughest Schedule in Years Ahead of Varsity Harriers

When Colby College's runners become the first of six outstanding New England college squads to meet the New Hampshire harriers on Friday, October 6, the longest and toughest cross-country schedule during recent years will open.

With no outstanding runners on the squad, and with two of last year's mainstays not returning to school, the present outlook is discouraging. However, popular Paul Sweet, well-known mentor of the hill-climbers, is rapidly whipping the team into shape through the aid of an extra week of practice and a new, more difficult course. Coach Sweet indicated that his charges may be the "dark horses" of coming Triangular and New England meets.

The bulk of points this year is expected to come from the efforts of letterman Ted Underwood, who is the holder of the New England steeplechase record, Jack Kirk, Harry Atwood, and John Swasey, and in addition the hard-running Russ Sanborn, who returns to school after a year's absence.

Council Prepares Athletic Program

The Intramural Council which guides the activities of the intramural athletic program will hold its first meeting of the year Monday night at 7 P.M. in the Trophy room of the Commons.

The council is made up of two committees, one representing the fraternities and the other the dormitories and commuters. The fraternity committee consists of one representative from each fraternity and the dormitory committee is made up of the proctors and a representative of the commuters. "Chick" Justice, assistant football coach, is supervisor of the program.

The meeting is an important one and plans to conduct competitions in archery, softball, six-man football, and golf will be discussed. The intramural program is open to all students who are not members of the varsity or freshman athletic squads.

Intramural athletics enjoyed a very successful year during 1938-1939 and it is hoped that this year's activities will be even more successful. Winning teams in each sport were presented plaques which are hung in the lobby of the Field House.

There are several vacancies for the position of assistant manager in the program and all interested unit managers are advised to leave their names with the supervisor of intramurals.

'CATS FACE COLBY

Several minor injuries developed during the week as Clarence Parker, Phil Richards, Frank Leary, Francis Chase, and Vitold Wallace were among the casualties. Parker, whose triple-threat ability was expected to aid the New Hampshire team greatly, will not see any action because of a sore hip.

Because of the scarcity of backfield candidates, Bob Onella, formerly a guard, has been shifted to blocking back position. Although Ed Sauer will start in that slot, it is expected that the fast, hard-running Onella will see service.

Thursday and today coaches Sauer and Justice have been stressing practice in kick-offs, return of kick-offs, and return of punts. They will also try to perfect some of the offensive plays.

In spite of the fact that the varsity squad now numbers forty-two players, Coach Sauer wishes to have it announced that he would welcome any other men interested in football.

Two star performers from last year's team who as yet have not been able to report for practice are Burt Mitchell and Rip Jones. Mitchell, still recuperating from a summer illness, should report by October first, while Jones must submit to further physical examination before his football future can be determined.

The only position in the starting lineup which has not been decided upon is the left guard spot, where senior veterans Buck Buchanan and Ario Piretti are fighting it out. The men in other positions for the initial struggle with Al McCoy's Mules will be: ends, Lampson and Winterbottom; tackles, Johnson and Flaherty; right guard, Haynes; center, Burt; quarterback, Sauer; halfbacks, Clark and Hall; fullback, Gordon.

The struggle for the starting berth for the pivot position has been waged very forcefully ever since the beginning of practice by Ed Gould, transfer from Tilton, and the veteran Ed Burt. While Gould holds a slight edge in defense, Burt is a better offensive player. Burt, however, gets the call because of his seniority.

The price of the Athletic Association News, which gives the names and numbers of the players, the starting lineups, and the statistics of both teams, has been reduced from twenty-five cents to ten cents this year. This was done to put these helpful programs within the financial reach of every member of the student body.

New Coach Drills Rugged Frosh Grid Squad for Opener

Hefty Forwards Backed By Fast Carriers Give Promise of Good Year

Some 50 odd freshmen football candidates, many of them sporting class records as high and prep school performers, have been working since last Saturday under the capable direction of Tony Dougal and George Goodwin in preparation for their opening contest against Johnny DuRie's Jayvee outfit on October 14. The squad now working represents the bulk of a total of 78 freshmen who originally stated their intention of playing frosh football.

Although it will be two weeks before the yearlings take the field for an actually scheduled battle, they are being rushed along as fast as possible in order that they may furnish suitable opposition for Georgie Sauer's varsity huskies as they drill for early season skirmishes with Colby, Northeastern, and Maine. As a matter of record, Coach Dougal, former Temple great, considers the chore of preparing the regulars for their weekly contests as important to his squad as their own schedule of four games which he hopes to take in stride. In addressing the squad at their opening practice session, he said, in part, "Of course we have a schedule of our own, but our real job lies in preparing the varsity, getting them in trim for their next game, and in developing men for next year's team."

The general run of the squad is toward the hefty side. The line will be big, rugged, and fast on the charge, while the backs, although lighter than their front rank compatriots, promise to pack plenty of speed and drive into Dougal's single wing offensive.

Among the youngsters expected to shine the standouts are a quartet of backfield speedsters, Phil Mannigan and Pete DeGregory from New Jersey schoolboy circles, Bill Mugford, a hefty line smasher, and Don Begin, up from three years under crafty Bill Broderick at Salem. Others who should give good accounts of themselves include Win MacDonald, ex-Waltham high halfback, Charles "Pappy" Judd, 180 pounder up from Exeter where he played at end and the backfield, Frank "Bull" Bucci, 196 pound guard from St. Basil's, Ed Nihalski, another 190 pound guard candidate, up from Alliance, Al Sakoian, former Tilton line star, Harry Pascoe, a broad beamed tackle from Brewster, big Charley Costigan, 186 pound lad from Portsmouth High and Bob Smith who operated at a tackle spot for Keene High and Austin Cate before bringing his 219 pounds to Durham. Others are Roy Goodfellow, who played an end for Maine Central Institute; Johnny Dearborn, who operated at one of the Exeter terminals; Franklin Hill, whose former affiliation was with Marblehead High; Ralph Des Roches, tough little pivot man from Fryeburg; brawny Dick Cochran, who operated at the same spot for Proctor Academy and many more, far too numerous to mention in such limited space.

The schedule follows:
Oct. 14 — UNH Jayvee at Durham.
Oct. 21 — Phillips Exeter at Exeter.
Nov. 4 — Bridgton Academy, Durham.
Nov. 10 — UNH Jayvee at Durham.

Eighteen Students Win Scholarships

Eighteen students of the University of New Hampshire were named on Friday, September 22, as recipients of the Alumni Memorial scholarships for the school year 1939-40. These awards—each of $110—are made annually in memory of U.N.H. students who died in action during the first World War.

These scholarships have been given every year since 1922, when a communication to the board of trustees contained a provision that each class upon graduation may establish a fund and that the interest from these funds will be used for the awards.

The students who will receive the scholarships this year are: Beryl Colburn, '43; Robert Davis, '43; Ray Doyle, '42; Roy Goodfellow, '43; Richard Gordon, '42; Harold Hall, '42; William Jahoda, '41; Irving Karelis, '43; Jack Kirk, '41; Steve Lampson, '41; Charles McLaughlin, '43; Edward Mackel, '43; Peter Meneghin, '43; Edmund Miholski, '43; William Mugford, '43; Bernie Suslak, '43; Vitold Wallace, '43; Gordon Wheler, '43.

Freshmen Harriers Point for Opener

Coach Paul Sweet's freshman cross-country squad of forty-five candidates, turned out Monday for its initial workout.

As usual, early sessions will be devoted to conditioning and instruction in the fundamentals of cross-country running. The coaches have their work cut out, as a large majority of the boys are inexperienced, and the team is faced with a tough, six-meet schedule. The opener is with the strong Portsmouth High outfit on October 6.

Any freshmen desiring to try out for the team or a manager's position still have a chance to show their wares and are urged to report to Coach Sweet at the Field House.

Debators Hope for Successful Season Under New Coach

Tau Kappa Alpha Retains Twenty-six Last Year Members as Nucleus

The University this year will be represented by a strong debating team with Tau Kappa Alpha, national debating society, retaining twenty-six of its last year members, losing only ten by graduation. The honorary fraternity is composed of students excelling in public speaking. Its chief aim is to foster better speech on the University campus.

The debating team this year has a new pilot at its helm, with Mr. William Sattler as its coach. Mr. Sattler will have charge of the team in its inter-collegiate debating matches.

The team will be composed of both men and women. A number of applicants have already put in a bid for a position on the team. There will also be a freshman debating team composed of both men and women coached by Mr. Sattler.

Correspondence for debates with leading colleges in New England is now underway. The team has not yet completed its schedule, but it has been announced that an exhibition debate, with Bates as an opponent will be held

WE ANNOUNCE with pleasure the recent change in the personnel of our tailoring department. Mr. Leo A. Burke, formerly of Boston, Mass., is now in charge. We are sure that you will find his work more than satisfactory.

The College Shop

the latter part of October.

An exhibition debating tournament, at Hanover, has also been arranged, and will be held late in October. The U.N.H., Dartmouth, Middlebury, and several other leading colleges in New England will participate.

Even a Railroad Spike can't "take it" like this Jewel of a Parker Pen

SAYS THE RAILROAD SPIKE—
"IN ONE OF THE 5 TORTURE TESTS I WAS CRIPPLED FOR LIFE BY FERRIC CHLORIDE (ACID) SOLUTION."

SAYS THE PARKER VACUMATIC—
"I WAS FILLED WITH THE SAME ACID—WROTE ALL DAY—A 5-MILE LINE—AND I'M JUST AS GOOD AS EVER!"

GUARANTEED for LIFE

(against everything except loss or intentional damage)

We're using more than 250 college papers to tell students of the 5 devastating and devaluing tests recently performed by the Parker Vacumatic to prove it will last for life. No other pen we know has ever faced such torture. Yet the Parker Vacumatic did it—can do it any time—and come forth in perfect working order.

1st—Filled with Acid (strong ferric chloride solution which ate away a railroad spike) instead of with ink, this incredible pen wrote a 5-mile line with the acid on a revolving paper-covered drum and finished in perfect working order.

2nd—"Bomb" Test: Parker's Diaphragm filler encased in an oxygen bomb FOR WEEKS, where a single day equals 6 months' normal age—to prove its long life.

3rd—"Electrocution": Every Parker Diaphragm proved 100% leak-proof by exposing it to 5,000 volts of electricity which flashes a red light if there's even a pinhole leak.

4th—"Drip Test": Pens filled and hung points down for hours in frigid temperature, then in torrid temperature.

5th—Dropped 3,000 ft. from an airplane to prove the lovely laminated pearl barrel and cap are Non-Breakable.

You never saw such a pen. You never owned one. A sacless pen that holds far more ink than ordinary rubber sac pens—shows the ink level at all times, hence won't run dry without warning, in classes or exams. So go and see it now and get it for college and for life.
