Automobile Crash Victim is Reported Slightly Improved

Wm. Schmidt Remains In Critical Condition As Result of Auto Accident

The condition of William Schmidt, 18-year old university freshman, who was critically injured in the three-car crash near Dover Sunday night, was reported from the Wentworth hospital as slightly improved last night, although he is by no means out of danger yet. Schmidt suffered a fractured skull and internal injuries in the accident which took the life of Mrs. Regina Wentworth of Dover.

Hector Desjardins, alleged driver of the hit-and-run car, pleaded not guilty in the municipal court of Dover Tuesday, to a charge of reckless driving resulting in death. He was released on $1000 bail for a hearing on Monday, October 23. Desjardins, a barber residing at 5 St. John street, was also charged with driving without a license and leaving the scene of the accident. J. E. Lariviere, also of Dover, was charged with allowing an unlicensed person to drive his automobile. He too was released on bail.

Mrs. Victoria Couillard, 42, of Topsfield, Mass., driver of the automobile in which Mrs. Wentworth was a passenger, was able to leave her bed Wednesday, but was not released from the hospital.

Chemistry Majors Visit Paper Mill

Nineteen senior chemistry majors will see one of the largest plants of its kind in the country next Monday and Tuesday when they visit the Brown Paper Company in Berlin. Accompanied by Dr. Atkinson and Dr. Zimmerman on their two-day visit, the chemists will view the manufacture of cellulose, which is used for lacquers and explosives; toweling; chemically treated paper which is made into oil pipeline and used extensively; chloroform for anaesthetic purposes; and the preparation of the gas chlorine.

New University Radio Studio Rapidly Nears Completion

Although no definite date has been set for the opening of the new U.N.H. Broadcasting studios and construction is still under way, John P. Neville, assistant to the Director General of the Extension Service, is very enthusiastic about the coming year as far as the broadcasting unit of the Extension Service is concerned.

Mr. Neville bases this enthusiasm on the fact that the studio this year will be outfitted with some of the most modern equipment known to the radio industry.

Located at 308 Thompson hall, the new studio will include a broadcasting room large enough to accommodate approximately 40 people; a control room separated from the studio proper by a double-glass window; and a foyer to

Folio Club Holds Initial Conference

The Folio club held its first meeting last Monday at the residence of its sponsor, Dr. Towle, where various members had a discussion on the reading they had done during the summer. "Christ in Concrete" by Donato, and "The Rains Came" by Louis Bromfield were two of the interesting works of literature discussed. Dr. Towle also read a short story by the famous writer Kay Boyle, and an analysis of the story followed.

This is not a departmental club, nor is it open to any single class, for any student of the University, interested in the reading of current literature may become a member. The Folio club is not a work-shop group, as the meetings are carried on in an informal and friendly manner, and opportunities to do creative work are encouraged. An intra-club lending library is also enjoyed by members.

The only condition for acquiring membership in the club is interest, and any person who is interested, is cordially invited to see Dr. Towle, who will give further information about the club's activities.

Cost Accountants Hold Oct. Meeting

The October meeting of the New Hampshire Chapter of the National Association of Cost Accountants held at Commons last Wednesday evening, was most successful, with nearly fifty businessmen and accountants in attendance.

The speaker was Mr. Clinton W. Bennett of Boston, who spoke to the group on the subject of "Inventory Control." He emphasized the fact that the many changes in business procedure over the last several years have resulted in the necessity of better control of inventories, both from the standpoint of physical quantities and monetary valuation, if the business is to be successful in this present age of competition. Under the new procedure, Mr. Bennett pointed out, accountants will make test checks of physical inventories as well as verify prices and extension. Business is facing new problems relative to the valuation of current inventories, he added.

provide space for studio guests. The studio will be completely soundproofed, acoustically correct, will be amply lighted by new-type electric lights, and will be ventilated by a forced-draft ventilator.

Mr. Neville expressed the hope that the students will, during the course of the current school year, be able to present their own program. The cooperation of the student council would be needed for such a presentation and the whole project would be completely in the hands of the students.

It is hoped that, later in the year, certain students who are interested in the technical and production ends of radio will be given the opportunity of receiving practical experience in their chosen fields.

Attention Juniors!

Will all members of the junior class who have not yet turned in their class schedules, kindly do so at their earliest convenience. Leave them at the office in Ballard hall, or give them to some member of the Granite staff. These schedules are necessary if you want an appointment for your class picture. The photographer is here for a limited time only and your picture may be left out if you delay too long.

Those who have missed their first appointment will be given another, and we wish they would do their level best to show up or let us know in advance if they can't come.

It is the desire of the staff to get the Granite published earlier than in former years. We need the cooperation of all juniors to make this possible. Charles Wm. Craig.

University Plans Dad's Day Program

Expect Over 1,000 Dads To Attend Campus Tours And See Football Clash

The 15th consecutive Dads' day will be held this year Saturday, October 28, when over 1000 fathers are expected to attend the celebration in their honor.

A varied program has been arranged by means of which Dad will be able to become better acquainted with the institution, its work, and its faculty. As in previous years, immediately upon arrival in Durham, Dad will register at the faculty club where he will receive tickets to the football game and the dinner. Dad will then have the opportunity of touring the University under the leadership of members of the faculty, who will leave the Faculty Club at 15-minute intervals from 9 to 11 o'clock.

After Dad has eaten dinner with the faculty members at the new Field House, he will be all set for one of the major events of the day's activities. The climax will be the annual gridiron clash between N. H. and Vermont.

Following the game several fraternities, sororities, and dormitories will hold "open house."

"Our Town" has Staging Problems

A revolutionary type of production is now under way in the form of Mask and Dagger's coming show, "Our Town." Nothing similar has ever been attempted in the history of the University's dramatic society.

The outstanding novelty of the show is the lack of scenery. The actors have only a few chairs and tables to work with. Except for these few articles, each actor must depend on the strength of his own ability to put across to the audience both the action of the play, and the idea of the properties that are absent.

Another novelty attached to this play is the lack of any type of music. No orchestra is used, either during the performance, or between the acts.

To climax the unconventionality of "Our Town" the most prominent part is none other than the Stage Manager. This part is used to comment on the action of the play, which savors strongly of the ancient Greek chorus that was used for the same purpose in Greek dramatics. Walter Webster, who is cast as the Stage Manager, is already showing great promise in rehearsal.

Late additions to the cast have been: Louis Israel as "The Man in the Auditorium", Avis Bailey as "The First Dead Woman", Katherine Sullivan as "The Lady in the Box", Justine Pillsbury as "The Second Dead Woman", and Mario Manzone as "The Second Dead Man."

Record Crowd Attends University Horse Show

Sackett Announces Enrollment Total

The largest enrollment in the history of the University, topping last year's by 92, was announced today by Dr. Sackett.

Two hundred and one students, 198 men and 3 women, have enrolled in the college of agriculture 1276 persons. 669 men and 607 women, have enrolled in the college of liberal arts; while the enrollment in the college of technology has reached 390. Strange as it may seem, only 389 of the technical students are men — one fair co-ed has become technically minded. In addition to the 49 men taking the two-year agricultural course, one woman enrolled. All this goes to make up a grand total of 2008 students on campus.

Piano Recital by Bauer at Murkland

Next Wednesday, October 18, Harold Bauer, popular American pianist, will open the 1939-40 concert series in a return engagement at Murkland auditorium.

Many of the upperclassmen will no doubt recall Mr. Bauer's last appearance here two years ago when he spent several days on the campus counseling those students interested in music.

Mr. Bauer is well known both in this country and in Europe. He has appeared with the Berlin, Vienna, London, and Berlin Philharmonic orchestras. Born in England, he came to this country in 1901 when he made his debut in the Boston Symphony orchestra. In 1921 he became an American citizen.

News Letter Will Not List Absences

This year the "Weekly Letter" will not publish the list of students with authorized absences. Instead, this record will be kept in the Registrar's office where it may be consulted by members of the faculty. In addition, printed absence slips are now being prepared. Those officials who may authorize absences will give the original authorization to the student and send the duplicate to the Registrar's Office. The student will keep his copy to show when demanded.

The "Weekly Letter" will list students who leave the University, who transfer from one college to another, or who are forced by illness to long absence, without being able to notify instructors in advance. There also will be various notices and items of information of interest to faculty members. Notices of meetings of faculty groups, such as committees, departments, colleges, and so on, when made in the "Weekly Letter", may be considered to have been brought to the attention of every member of the faculty.

The "Weekly Letter" will be issued on Tuesday. All material for inclusion must be in the Registrar's Office before 5 P.M., Monday. Suggestions regarding services the "Weekly Letter" might render are invited.

Sattler Releases List of Debaters

A list of debaters active last year has been released by Dr. Sattler. The varsity squad included Edward Nye '41, Robert Sweatt '41, Robert Winer '39, Fred W. Hall '41, Paul Verras '39, Milton Kaplon '40, John P. Hall '39, Allan Korpela '39, and George Edson '39. The frosh squad included Neale Westfall, Ashley Nevers, Harriman Smith, and Richard Bryant. Jack Sheinuk '41, served as manager for both squads.

This year the varsity will debate the question "Resolved: That the United States should follow a policy of strict isolation towards all nations, outside of the Western Hemisphere, engaged in armed international or civil conflict." This question was proposed by the national honorary public speaking fraternity, Tau Kappa Alpha, to which all students taking part in intercollegiate debating are eligible for membership. Both squads hold their first meetings this week.

KEEP OUT OF IT

In a recent editorial the Harvard Crimson proposes that President Roosevelt intervene as mediator in the European war to achieve peace and terms this move "the happiest conceivable, regardless of our strong democratic sympathies." Frankly, we can see no reason why President Roosevelt should intervene, interfere is a better word) in the current disagreements in Europe.

In the first place, he has in the past made overtures to Hitler proposing peaceable settlements and arbitration of difficulties, only to have Hitler insult him and his country. No one outside of the United States should have the right to call the president names or otherwise decry his efforts.

In the second place, there are definite traditions and customs which prevent him politically from taking such action. The reference is to the Monroe Doctrine and such tradition and precedent as was laid down by Washington in his Farewell Address. In case there is any doubt about it, the Monroe Doctrine provides that if Europe will keep out of the affairs of this continent, we will not stick our noses into their little parties.

So far, at least, Europe has been too busy to bother with the western hemisphere. We have no provocation to junk the Monroe Doctrine for the sake of preserving world peace. After all, how much peace has there been in the world since 1918 and the end of the "war to end wars"?

The current war is a war of imperialism and as such is none of our business and as such we should stay as far away from it as possible. The people of the United States do not want war. The only people who want the United States to go to war besides the interests who would profit by it, are the Europeans who would like to have us on their side so they could have our resources at their disposal. They care little about the manpower we could furnish, but the money and supplies we could offer, make the prospect of the U. S. or an ally very attractive.

But we ought to have learned our lesson in 1917-18. It is said that any human will make a mistake but only a darn fool makes the same mistake twice in a row. If the United States gets involved in this fiasco the future of our democratic government is hopelessly lost.

As a matter of fact, the president has already committed the United States to protect Canada in case of an attack. This is in accord with the Monroe Doctrine. He has also committed the United States too far in the direction of support of the European democracies when he assumed the responsibility of the country by saying that "Our frontiers are on the Rhineland." This is certainly assuming a great deal more than most Americans would be willing to concede.

Mr. Roosevelt had better be consistent in his declarations. If he is consistent in his efforts to keep us out of war, and will continue with his present policy of non-intervention in the war, it is our opinion that about 130 million other Americans will be greatly pleased. The memory of President Wilson's fruitless notes to the Central Powers prior to our entrance into the World War is too fresh in the minds of Americans.

No, Mr. Roosevelt, though you have visions of becoming a great man in the eyes of history, please have as little to do with the 1939 edition of Europe's Serial of War as possible.

To the Editor

For the past few years the unhappy shadow of a potentially great organization has been haunting the campus. The constructive imagination and cooperative desire of a large group of students has succeeded in revivifying the Cauldrons. It has tremendous possibilities and great benefits to offer the University.

Any organization to be an organization must serve a definite need and attempt to achieve a specific set of aims. The non-fraternity men on campus have not in the past participated in student activities to the extent that their majority justifies. They have failed to realize that it is not only a privilege but a duty to participate in the great variety of student activities on campus.

In order that this University achieve the heights of democratic education distinctions the active cooperation of every single student is needed. The Cauldrons attempt to impress this duty on the non-fraternity men.

One of the greatest benefits accompanying educational development in a competent University is the social contacts and refinements a student obtains. Unfortunately many of the available forms of socialization are accompanied by a considerable measure of financial expense. In order that finances may not deny the student such obvious benefits the Cauldrons offer the greatest benefits at the lowest cost.

The specific purpose of the Cauldrons is to organize the non-fraternity men so that they may obtain group contacts, fellowship, cooperation, action, and a general good time. Thereby the Cauldrons will facilitate the enjoyment of University life for many, and make the institution truly democratic.

The organization is open to all non-fraternity men (excepting freshmen, until rushing season is over). Those interested may apply directly to President Robert Sweatt, 106 West Hall or attend the next meeting Tuesday evening, October 17, in Commons Trophy room.

(signed) Robert Sweatt, Pres.

Freshman Runners Meet Concord High

The freshman cross country team faces a combination representing Concord high Saturday afternoon at Lewis Fields. Friday afternoon the frosh Junior Varsity team faces the Dover high outfit.

The Dover meet is more or less of a practice one in order to give the boys on the Jayvees an experience in competition. This is Dover's first year at cross country, so little is known of the opposing team's ability.

The freshman varsity takes on the harriers of Concord High in a meet that promises to be close. Crane, Concord ace, is reputed to be able to give Wayne Lowry, Kitten flyer, a good race. This duel should make things interesting, as both boys will be trying hard to give their teams a margin to work on.

Those running for the Frosh varsity team are: Lowry, Campbell, Gibbs, Keough, Joslin, Emmons, French, Hamlin, Holmes, Carter.

The Junior Varsity runners include: Foley, J. Hamlin, LeLoup, Fancy, Mueller, Haas, Ferrullo, Emery, McGinnis, Pearson.

From the "North Conway Reporter": Your boy is going to carry on what you have started; he is to sit in your plate and attend to those things which you think are so important.

Precocious youngster.

Varsity Harriers Tangle with Bears

The varsity hill and dalers journey to Orono, Maine, Saturday to tangle with the cross countrymen of the University of Maine.

Last week's victory over Bates saw Jack Kirk, Ray Rivers and Ted Underwood sweep the first three places in that order. Kirk's performance, in 24 minutes and 43 seconds, was an excellent one, and Rivers and Underwood were not far behind. Warren Jones, mighty mite of the team, was also well up in the contest until he was stricken with cramps in the final stretch. This week the Sweetmen will be without the services of "Hap" Atwood, who is laid up with a badly sprained ankle.

Don Smith, Maine's New England champ, promises to make things hot for the Wildcats. Coach Sweet's men are rounding into shape, however, and should be able to give the Bears a real battle. The team will be picked from the following men: Kirk, Rivers, Underwood, Jones, Sanborn, Shaw, Mullen, Huntoon and Swasey.

Kitten Gridsters Vie with Jayvees in Season Opener

Injuries Hamper Johnny DuRie's Strong Players; Frosh Sport Big Team

As Tony Dougal's and George Goodwin's football forces line up against Johnny DuRie's much improved Jayvee aggregation this afternoon, there will be many eager eyes watching with keen interest, a much publicized freshman team. The '43 men have a good deal more practice under their belts than their foes, but the latter promise a good, hard game from all angles of play. Coach Tony's understudies boast a good running, passing, and bucking attack, with the running attack containing a bit of "legerdemain" in the form of some tricky reverse plays.

The Jayvee squad, numbering about 35, has been working on its running attack all week, though much time has been spent in scrimmage with the varsity.

Besides having fine first and second string outfits, the freshmen have third and fourth teams which Coach Dougal regards none too lightly. They have been progressing unusually fast in the last week.

Kitten Line-up

On the "Froshie" first team, Ray Goodfellow will start at left end. Ed Mackel will hold down the other end position. At left guard there is a keen struggle between Whitey Ackerman and Ed Mihalski with Mihalski likely to get the nod. Al Sakovian appears to have the right guard position tucked away although Frank "Bull" Bucci of Greenwich, Connecticut has been pressing him hard all week. The starting center in today's fracas may be either the rangy Ben Suslak or 145 pound Ralph Des Roches. Without doubt, Harry Pascoe will be "running with the kick-off" from his left tackle position, while Bob Smith, 219 pounder from Keene High and Austin-Cate, will be at right tackle. In the backfield, New Jersey's Phil De Gregory will be at quarter. Pete Meneghin and Don Begin will start at the halfback spots and "Battering Buck" Mugford has been elected to answer the whistle at fullback.

With this array of football finery, the freshmen aim to "strut their stuff" at Lewis Field this afternoon.

The Jayvee outfit, however, hampered slightly by a jaw injury to Hickin, a Zidowsky shoulder injury and a bruised ankle to Al Boggett, promises to be no pushover. If there is any spot on the team where there is an abundance of material, it is at the end spots. Starting the game for the Jayvees at left end will be Al Lucier or Howard Steele; at right end either Clark or Lufkin may get the call from Johnny DuRie. Blaine and Sweet have been nominated at the two guard slots, while Keegan and Fever will start beside them at tackle. Sandwiched between the guards Sweet and Blaine, Thompson will be in the pivot position. In the backfield there is Thayer at quarter, Pinks and Evans or Kostanzo at the halves and the triple-threat Bill Feeney of Haverhill, Mass., at fullback. Feeney promises to give the freshmen a lot of trouble this afternoon with his rifle passing, shifty, running, and his agile kicking. Feeney also has a very capable replacement in Piffard, a much improved back. Of the players mentioned, Thompson, Clark, Sweet and Lucier are veterans.

The line-up:

Frosh — Goodfellow, le; Pascoe, lt; Ackerman or Mihalski, lg; DesRoches or Suslak, c; Sakovian or Bucci, rg; Smith, rt; Mackel, re; DeGregory, qb; Begin, lhb; Meneghin, rhh; Mugford, fb. Jayvees — Lucier or Steele, le; Keegan, lt; Blaine, lg; Thompson, c; Sweet, rg; Feuer, rt; Clark or Lufkin, re; Thayer, qb; Pinks, lhb; Evans or Kostanzo, rhh; Feeney, fb.

Strong Maine Club Host to Wildcats at Orono

by Richard F. Cook

No more sissy games for our intramural competitors! The fraternity and dormitory boys have abandoned touch football for real tackle. In former years lack of ability and equipment prevented the rank and file of our aspiring athletes from competing in the more strenuous form of pigskin toting. This season, however, Chick Justice has inaugurated six-man, tackle football, and its popularity and success have been immediate.

Regularly scheduled games are now being played by eighteen teams. The players are using ancient, battle-scarred uniforms which are relics of former gridiron battles. Some of the games are even played under the floodlights, at night, which lends a professional air to the contests.

The outlook for tomorrow afternoon in Orono is rather cloudy. Coaches DuRie and Dougal, after scouting Maine against Rhode Island State last Saturday, report that the potato staters have a fast, hard-running offense. The tackling of the Wildcats must show plenty of improvement over last week if they are to stop this powerhouse.

Last year the Bears drubbed the Sauer men, 20-0, before a Dad's Day crowd at Lewis Field. But this time we're looking for the New Hampshire Blue and White to win.

Coach Paul Sweet's runners turned in a splendid performance against Bates on the home course last week and should give Maine plenty of competition. Don Smith, New England cross country champion, who thrilled us here last spring in the New England by winning the half-mile and mile races in record time is the leader of the Bear squad. We're not picking Kirk, Underwood, Rivers and company to beat the veteran Maine star but if they can sweep the next few places, the New Hampshire hill and dalers may race to a win.

Veteran Bears Favored But Improved Blocking May Change Outlook

With another hard week's work behind them, George Sauer's Wildcat varsity takes the field at Orono tomorrow afternoon in an attempt to hang up its second win of the young campaign, and, at the same time, gain in some measure, revenge for the 21-0 lacing administered by the men of Maine a year ago.

Although the Bears are reported to have their best offensive unit in years, a snappy club with shifty running and crisp blocking its main forte, the Wildcats should at least put up a good battle, especially so if they can show as much improvement over last Saturday as they did in the seven days between the Colby and Northeastern contests.

Veterans Out

Physically the club will be in just about the same shape as when it entered the Husky fiasco. Fred Winterbottom, veteran wing, and Ed Sauer husky, blocker, are still hors de combat, and a few of the boys picked up bruises in the game Saturday; but generally speaking the club came through practically unscathed.

Burt Mitchell, who started on the comeback trail last week, will be used sparingly again tomorrow, but before many weeks should be back in there regularly since he is rapidly regaining the strength lost in his recent critical illness.

Coach Sauer was anything but optimistic when interviewed by "The New Hampshire" reporter. Taking into consideration that Maine, according to the scouts' reports, has her best team in years, practically the same club man for man that drubbed the Blue and White last year, and the fact that New Hampshire, while having shown definite improvement over her opening day performance is still far from a finished ball club, the outlook is, of a certainty, far from rosy.

Fundamentals Stressed

Practically the entire week has been devoted to a return to fundamentals with special attention being given to tackling and down-field blocking, two departments in which the club was sadly deficient last week. At the same time the club has had the opportunity to look over the Maine attack as staged by the Blue-shirted Jayvees.

The Bears, as mentioned previously, are practically an all-veteran unit. The line, from end to end is exactly the same as started last year's contest, and in Gerrish, 185-pound fullback, and Dyer, flashy half, the Pine Tree Staters have a pair of backs capable of busting the old game wide open at a moment's notice. Opening their season against little Arnold, the black-shirted Bears ran up a 47 to 0 victory, and last week slammed Rhode Island State to the tune of 14 to 0.

Good Spirit

Coach Sauer refused to make any prediction as to the outcome of the battle, but only said, "We have a lot of work to do before that game. The boys know what they're up against and are really working hard out there. They've got plenty of the old spirit, and if they can show enough improvement in their blocking and tackling it'll be a big day. If not we'll be in for a long, long afternoon."

The probable starting line-ups are as follows:

New Hampshire	Maine
Lampson or Leary, le	re, Lane
Flaherty, lt	rt, Johnson
Piretti, lg	rg, Genge
Burt or Gould, c	c, Burr
Haynes or Onella, rg	lg, Cook
