Schoolboys Ready for Interscholastic Meet

Eight Hundred Young Athletes from 51 Schools Expected for Games

Headed by several of last year's champions and present record holders, some 900 secondary school athletes from the seven states of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Mass., Rhode Island, New Jersey, and New York, will start arriving this afternoon for the 28th annual New Hampshire Interscholastic Track and Field Meet here tomorrow.

One important notice has been received by Director Paul Sweet to the Seton Hall, last year's domineering winner in the prep school division, will send only one man, Ed Styrna, to compete in the meet, as Seton Hall has been invited by Villanova College in Pennsylvania to compete there. This change will take away any chance of the Orange, N. J. school repeating its triumph of last year. Their one contestant, Styrna, last season set a new record of 173 ft. 5½" in the 12 pound hammer throw, while competing for

Forensic Society Chooses Officers

The new officers of Tau Kappa Alpha, honorary forensic society on campus, were elected at a recent meeting at the ATO house. John Hall, now enrolled in the University Graduate School, was elected president. Other officers elected were: Jack Wentzell, vice-president; Virginia Alden, corresponding secretary; and Pearl Lippman, recording secretary. The following three seniors received the initiatory degree of the society: Rachel Cox, Edward Rothstien, and Ralph Carruth.

An initiation for new members was also conducted, Katherine Myher presiding at the meeting in the absence of the president, Leo Moscardini. Plans were made for the spring banquet to be held on May 20 at which time juniors and sophomores to whom bids have been offered will be initiated.

First Woman Commencement Speaker Addresses Seniors

by Rae Morrison

A woman will address New Hampshire's graduates for the first time in the history of the university. Dr. Lillian Moller Gilbreth, distinguished consulting engineer—and the mother of eleven children—will speak here at commencement, June 17. Besides carrying on her numerous domestic duties, Dr. Gilbreth has become one of the country's foremost consulting engineers in industrial management.

In the scholastic field Dr. Gilbreth has had an exceptionally wide experience: she holds eight degrees from colleges from coast to coast. By no means has she confined her interest to scientific studies, for her first two degrees were obtained in the field of literature. Since her marriage to Frank B. Gilbreth in 1904, Dr. Gilbreth has received degrees from Brown University, University of Michigan, Rutgers College, Russell Sage College, and the

Roger S. Bruford Begins Active Duty as Marine

Looking forward to his first regular assignment as Marine Corps officer, Lieutenant Roger S. Bruford, a former student at the University of New Hampshire, is a member of the class of young officers who will graduate from the Basic School here on May 3. Later he will report aboard the USS NEW YORK for duty with the fleet.

Following his graduation from here, Lieutenant Bruford accepted a commission as a 2nd Lieutenant in the Marine Corps. For the past ten months he has been attending the Basic School, where all junior officers of the Marine Corps are required to take a post-graduate course.

This course includes the proper handling of military weapons, drills, map-making, scouting operations, military procedure and administration.

Tucker Speaks at Student Conclave

Sponsored by the Student Christian Movement, thirty students of at least 15 different nationalities meet here Saturday and Sunday, May 11 and 12, in their 6th annual International Friendship weekend. The weekend and meeting is prepared to further development of fellowship between American and foreign students.

Saturday afternoon there will be a tea and reception following which Mr. Luther Tucker of New York will speak. Mr. Tucker will be present at the banquet at 7:00 P. M. in the Commons.

Mr. Tucker will celebrate Holy Communion at the Durham Community Church, 8:30, Sunday morning and at 10:45 will preach at the regular Sunday morning service. The International Students will meet in the Commons Room, Ballard Hall, at 9:30 to discuss the subject of "What the European and Asiatic wars have done to universities and colleges throughout the world", in an open forum.

University of California. She is also a member of the national honorary society, Phi Beta Kappa.

In connection with her work in psychology she has published two books, "Psychology of Management", and "The Homemaker and Her Job", besides numerous articles on education and psychology. She also served on the President's Committee for Unemployment and the New Jersey State Board of Regents. She is now the president of Gilbreth Inc., consulting engineers in management.

The commencement will be held Monday afternoon, June 17, in the Field House. Dr. Gilbreth will be the only speaker. The music is in charge of Bjornar Bergethon of the Music department; the University Concert Band will play not only for commencement but for all graduation activities, including the ball game, class day, and baccalaureate.

Tennis Notice

Men are asked not to play on the women's tennis courts or on Memorial Field, unless accompanying a woman student. These courts are reserved especially for the girl students, and men may play on them if they enter the court or field with a woman student.

Fifteenth Annual Mother's Day Plans Progress Rapidly

Music Festival Planned for Afternoon; President Will Give Talk at Lunch

The fifteenth annual Mother's Day of the University will take place on Saturday, May 18. The festival is a tradition at the University.

Immediately upon arrival all mothers will register at the Faculty Club from 8:00 to 11:45 and at the Field House from then until 12:30 when registration will close. This will enable them to obtain identification cards, any information, and tickets for the luncheon.

For an hour, starting at 9:00, tours will leave the Faculty Club under the able direction of various faculty members. These tours will take in as much of the campus as time allows, showing off the new improvements which are under way and specially prepared exhibits.

These tours are not compulsory and any mothers who wish to do a little sight-seeing on their own may do so. All classes are to be open to visitors.

At approximately 11:20, and with luck as to the weather, the University regiment will parade on Memorial Field. After this a buffet luncheon will be served in the Field house. The faculty has been invited to attend the luncheon and President Englehardt will address the mothers after lunch.

Professor Bergethon has been working with the combined Glee Clubs, Band and Orchestra to produce the high spot of the afternoon events—the Music Festival. The program will start at 2:00 in the Field house.

Several athletic events will take place during the afternoon: the varsity track meet with Rhode Island, the freshman baseball game with Bridgton Academy and the varsity lacrosse game with Springfield. These events may be attended without charge upon presentation of the Mother's Day registration cards.

A number of the fraternities and sororities will hold special luncheons and "open house" for the mothers during the afternoon.

The committee working on the affair is as follows: R. C. Magrath, chairman, C. L. Martin, R. G. Webster, and A. G. Welch, committee of tours; Mrs. Helen McLaughlin, in charge of refreshments at the Faculty club in the morning; H. W. Feindel, registration, and A. S. Northby.

A.A.U.W. Convenes For State Meeting

The annual meeting of the American Association of University Women will be held in Peterborough on May 11 when the Monadnock Branch plays host to the state meeting. Dean Ruth Woodruff, state president, and Miss Doris Bean, secretary for this state, will attend.

The business meeting will be followed by a luncheon, after which Constance Warren, formerly of Exeter and now president of Sarah Lawrence College in Bronxville, New York, will speak. She is the author of a recent book entitled "A New Design for Women's Education".

Student Council Chooses Officers for Next Year

At the first regular meeting of the new Student Council, held in the council rooms at Ballard Hall, Monday evening, under-officers were elected by the group to serve with President Matt Flaherty, who automatically became president of the Council by receiving the highest vote of any junior. Those elected are as follows: Vice-president, Raymond Doyle; Treasurer, Jack Kirk; Secretary, Roger Judkins; and Corresponding Secretary, Wilson Brunel.

The new officers will be formally installed at the annual Student Council banquet, which is to be held on Monday evening, May 13, at Simpson's, on the Portsmouth road. Members of both the outgoing and incoming Councils will be present, in addition to several members of the faculty.

Outing Clubs Meet at Allenstown, N.H.

U.N.H. Outing Club Host to Intercollegiate Conference May 10, 11, 12

The University of New Hampshire Outing Club will be host to the ninth annual Intercollegiate Outing Club Association conference to be held on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, May 10, 11, and 12 at Bear Hill Pond Camps, Allenstown, 25 miles from Durham.

Approximately 36 colleges and universities are represented at this conference, some coming from as far south as Swarthmore, Pennsylvania, and Vassar, in Poughkeepsie, New York. Each club will send three delegates to the conference—which is the same general plan as has been used in previous years.

The delegates will arrive Friday afternoon and the conference will officially begin at supper on Friday night. After supper there will be a talk by Professor Woodward, who is one of the chaperones of the conference; then one of those well known I. O. C. A. sings led by Will Brown of the Dartmouth Outing Club. Will Brown is known throughout the east for his leadership and organizing ability.

Chodorov Play Selected for Spring Dramatic Production

by Mado Crafts

Hugh Walpole once wrote a series of stories about an English family called "Herries", and it is from one of these stories that Edward Chodorov has taken the basis for his play "Kind Lady", which Mask and Dagger is staging for its spring production, on May 22, 23, and 24.

The Herries family was a very large one, and Walpole, like John Galsworthy in his "Forsyte Saga", deals with several generations. They are very long stories, and very novel. Their novelty is fully exemplified in the story from which "Kind Lady" was adapted, as the play was taken almost directly from it.

"Kind Lady", is truly a very strange, modern melodrama. Though very laugh-provoking at times, between these places the play produces a tense and eerie atmosphere which attracts no end of attention from the audience.

Miss Jean Adams, vice president of the Mask and Dagger Society for the ensuing year, will portray Mary Herries, the leading role. At the beginning of the play Miss Herries is a lovable, old, English maiden lady; but as time goes on, circumstances make her a of the program which was devoted to reports from the various committees that have been working on plans for the celebration of the University's 75th anniversary.

Dean Ruth Woodruff, Professor Thorsten V. Kalijarvi, and Professor Raymond Starke discussed the preparations for the ten-day conference, June 17-26, on the "Welfare of New Hampshire". The tentative program includes the following topics: the Home; the Nearby Community; the Community, the State; Social Controls; Productive Network; Underlying Resources; Human Resources; and possibilities for the next quarter century.

Eugene K. Auerbach described the activities planned for Alumni Day and the Alumni College of 1941.

The objectives of the celebration have been outlined as follows: to appraise the development of the university during the 75 years of its existence; to point out the present possibilities of rendering service to the people of the state; and to formulate a program for continued development in the future

Class Meetings

The senior class will hold a meeting next Tuesday evening to discuss commencement plans and to make preparations for a class picnic, a long defunct custom which will be revived this spring.

In the past Herculean efforts to get a large attendance at these class meetings have resulted in the appearance of from twenty to thirty students. It is impossible to do any business without a quorum present, and it is usually impossible to get that quorum out. We all recall last year when three separate meetings were called before enough members of the class of '41 could be brought together to nominate class officers.

It is a sad commentary on our democracy that the many are only too willing to allow the few to govern them. When it is all over, when the officers we would never have chosen are elected, when resolutions which we would never approve have been passed, we will complain loudly and bitterly about the high-handedness of a few individuals. But we are too lazy or busy or uninterested to attend the meeting and see that our projects and our ideas are discussed and acted upon.

Perhaps a benevolent despotism for campus government would go better here than this democracy which is such darned hard work.

Hi, Kids!

Visitors, and we have loads of them each year, are always welcome to our campus. We're proud of our long stretches of lawn, our trees and our rocks. We're proud of our many buildings, even more so this year with renovations going on in the women's gym and a new dormitory under construction. And with a naive, almost childlike delight, we love to show our University to guests.

But we are especially glad this week-end to welcome the scores and scores of schoolboys here to compete in the 28th annual Interscholastic Track and Field Meet. From this group in former times have come many students and athletes to New Hampshire. And we are happy to show them the beauties of our athletic plant.

We're really awfully glad to have you with us, kids,

Mortar Board Has Student Writer Election, Banquet Out this Week-end

At the last meeting of Mortar Board, Monday afternoon, May 6, the officers for the following year were elected. They are: Eleanor Hillier, president; Marie Donahue, vice-president; Marjorie Callahan, secretary; Elizabeth Kinsman, treasurer; and Lois Draper, editor-historian. They were elected by both the new and the old board, and the initiation took place at a banquet Thursday night at Commons.

The new president, Eleanor Hillier, is a member of Alpha Xi Delta sorority, vice-president of Women's Student Government, a member of Pan-Hellenic, Phi Sigma, Big Sister Committee, and served as assistant editor of the Granite. Miss Donahue is a member of Pi Lambda Sigma, Elizabeth Kinsman of Alpha Xi Delta, and Miss Draper comes from Theta Upsilon.

The initiation banquet was held in Commons. The list of guests included Miss Woodruff, President and Mrs. Engelhardt, Mr. McGrail, Mortar Board advisor; Miss Betsey Vannah, Miss Olga Conon, Miss Anna Baum, Miss E. Hope Squires, and Miss Ruth Grady, a Mortar Board member who is now practice teaching and who returned for the event.

The Student Writer for 1940 is to be released this week-end. Twenty-four, possibly twenty-five students are represented in the 144 pages of this year's Writer. The number of students whose work is included is thus diminished, but the pieces are longer, on the whole, than they were last year. There are about fourteen stories, and fewer essays, but the work in poetry has been so much improved that five sections are devoted to five poets, and at least eight more writers are represented by verse.

Margaret Brehaut, Shirley Evans, and Harry Hatchell have made themselves conspicuous by the great amount of material submitted for the Writer. Hatchell, who has already won the Atlantic Monthly's story contest and had some of his work published, will have three stories in the Writer. Margaret Brehaut distinguishes herself in two stories showing a distinct sense of humor. Shirley Evans presented the board who selected the material for the Writer with a big problem.

The only four essays so far are both good and remarkably different, dealing with the varied subjects of town politics, camp and the woods, pacifism and the novel, "Studs Lonigan."

East of the Water Tower

by Sumner Fellman

With the 1939-1940 school year gathering itself up for its finishing sprint—as the sad faces of the seniors can testify—and final exams becoming a less remote threat every minute, it is interesting to pause for awhile to look back. All in all, it's been quite a year. From the registration day dance last fall to last Friday's Junior Prom, almost every social event has reached a new high in attendance and enjoyment. At Cambridge, people are still talking about the exhibition of spirit shown by the New Hampshire rooters in Harvard Stadium; and the undefeated record of the varsity baseball team at present is just another chapter in a year of creditable athletic activity. The new wing on Congreve, the remodeling of the gym, a very noticeable improvement in the character of the faculty, and the size of recent honor rolls are convincing evidence that the University is growing both as far as the plant and the scholastic standards are concerned. It's a rosy picture—and one which makes those of us who won't be graduating this June warmly glad that we'll be back for another, perhaps better, year of it next fall.

Perhaps one of the most exciting revelations of the past year was the discovery, with the tremendous success of "Glamorously Yours," that our student body includes a wealth of talent, and that New Hampshire may soon be rivalling the Hasty Pudding Club of Harvard in producing professionally-done campus musicals. Aside from a slight weakness in some of the acting, the production as a whole was generally acclaimed as a complete hit; moreover the fact that the majority of the company will be back next year makes the future of Granite Varieties look decidedly rosy.

Now that "Glamorously Yours" and the Junior Prom have become history, the next event of major importance is Mask and Dagger's presentation of "Kind Lady", scheduled for the 22nd, 23rd, and 24th of this month. Those who have been watching the rehearsals of this play are agreed that it cannot fail to surpass the successes of other Mask and Dagger presentations of the past year. One of the factors in this expected success is the "differentness" of the play—it manages to combine intense drama with rollicking comedy guaranteed to have spectators rolling in the aisles. Libby Kinsman as a frightened maidservant, Don Crafts as a slightly tipsy young American, Davy Crockett and Justine Pillsbury in their roles as a comically evil pair of crooks, and Helen Vasiliou and Ginny Alden, who both have the difficult assignment of playing mentally unbalanced characters—all these are only part of the capable cast of veteran Thespians who support Jean Adams and Ken Tuxbury in the leading roles. With opening night less than two weeks away, Director Hennessey is rapidly rounding the production into shape; but already it is evident that "Kind Lady" will carry on the Mask and Dagger tradition of finished performances.

Returning to the subject of "Glamorously Yours" for a moment—there have been many inquiries on campus as to what happened to the proposed plan of having Seger Ellis play the songs from the show at the Prom. Unfortunately, the fact that the music

East Hall Dance

East Hall is giving a spring house dance in the Commons Trophy room, Saturday, May 11. Dancing will commence at eight and continue until 11:30 to the tender strains of "Rec" music. Chaperones will be Mrs. Knowlton and Mrs. Dame, house mothers of Commons and Fairchild respectively.

Phi Sigma Elections

At the meeting of Phi Sigma, national honorary biological society, held on Wednesday, May 8, election of officers took place. The following are the new officers: president, Paul Shaw; vice-president, Robert Bickle; recording secretary, Martha Holt; treasurer, Dick Snowman; corresponding secretary, Eleanor Hillier; program chairman, Dr. Dunn and William Jahoda.

During the meeting, papers were read by the pledges. The final initiation and banquet is to be held on Wednesday, May 15 in Nesmith hall.

was not copyrighted made it necessary to discard this plan, because of the danger that the songs would have been stolen. We had an opportunity to discuss this matter with Irene Taylor, the band's vocalist, at the Prom, and were pleased to learn that Ellis would have been very glad to play the songs, had they been sent to him. However, Miss Taylor pointed out that such a move would have been simply inviting theft, and that the committee had acted wisely in deciding against attempting it. Perhaps next year, the score of the show will be copyrighted in time to have the music played at one of the big dances—which should go over big if the regrets expressed at the failure to have it done this year are any criterion. Be as it may, we agree with all the students who have been saying that such songs as "Moondreams", "My Love Song For You", "Virtuous Coed", and "In Shadows" are vastly superior to most of the songs one hears over the radio these days. Just another sign of what New Hampshire students can produce when they try.

ROTC Unit Honors Mitchell's Mother

In connection with the military ceremonies on Mothers Day, May 18, 1940, a new custom is being initiated.

The mother of the cadet colonel of the R. O. T. C. Regiment of the University will be invited to take the review and to decorate the guidon of the winning company or battery for that week. This ceremony of honoring the mother of the cadet colonel will be observed each year hereafter.

President Engelhardt is sending a special invitation to Mrs. Mitchell, mother of Cadet Colonel Mitchell, to be present at the Mothers Day ceremony and to decorate the guidon.

Mrs. Engelhardt and Mrs. Edwin K. Smith will be with Mrs. Mitchell in the reviewing line. The Scabbard and Blade Society will present bouquets to these ladies in honor of the occasion.

Attention Seniors

The official University of New Hampshire degree ring is here. It is absolutely the first time any class has ever been able to get one. Orders can be given to the following members of the senior class: Franklin Ayer, Lambda Chi Alpha; Barb Chase, Chi Omega; Katherine Myhre, Alpha Chi Omega; Vic Tyson, Theta Chi; and Paul Raynes, Kappa Sigma.

University Dining Hall

by Herb Smith

Tomorrow is the big day here at the Lewis Athletic Fields. Not content with an interscholastic track and field meet in which 889 high and prep school boys, from 7 states will compete, New Hampshire has scheduled all varsity and one freshman team to be in uniform. Another freshman team was scheduled to play Saturday—lacrosse with Thornton Academy, but announcement was made that the game was to be moved up to Friday afternoon at four o'clock due to the crowded facilities on Lewis Fields.

The Wildcat tennis players were certainly taken over the nets last Monday by Williams, when they lost, 9-0. This was the first defeat in three meets, the Cats having taken the University of Connecticut and Boston University into camp rather easily. Tomorrow the crack team from Rhode Island State University journeys here to meet the Wildcats.

The frosh baseball team won a nice ball game from Austin Cate Academy 4 - 1, and then lost a heart breaker to Exeter 8 - 7. The boys just weren't on the ball too much in the Exeter game, as an error in the 9th inning (with the bases loaded with prep schoolboys, and the count of two strikes on the third and last batter) let the ball game go into extra innings, and which eventually saw the game being lost.

It was a tough one to lose, but likewise it was a nice one to win from Exeter's standpoint.

Williams Defeats Wildcat Net Boys

The Blue and White net squad suffered its first defeat in three meets, at the hands of a surprisingly strong Williams College team at North Adams, Mass., by a score of 9-0.

Coach Scott and the team could only comment on the superior play of the opponents. No one could give an adequate explanation for Williams' sudden rise in tennis strength which has accompanied a similar rise in strength in other sports.

The very same "Cats" who had taken the measure of Conn. State and Boston U. just couldn't match the speed and skill of the Williams club.

A Big Day

When so large an athletic establishment as the Lewis Fields becomes so crowded that some meets have to be shoved ahead a day, there really must be a lot going on. That's tomorrow. . . .

Coach Sauer Plans Fall Football Camp

In the lecture room of the field house on Thursday, May 16, an important meeting for all students interested in football will be conducted by Coach Sauer and Coach "Chick" Justice. The meeting will be held immediately after drill at 4:15 if the frosh "Rain Prayer" gets results.

The coach has promised that the meeting will be very brief and that it would not interfere with any practice session that afternoon.

The discussion will center about the plans for the training camp next fall and a unique plan for summer correspondence initiated by Coach Sauer.

In his office, Coach Sauer smiled cunningly as he sketched the colorful social activities to be introduced into the fall camp set up for the first time. When asked for a more enlightening statement, Sauer's smile broadened. "I'm saving that for the meeting", he said.

The latter plan will enable football aspirants and any others interested in football to keep in touch with one another by sending cards to Coach Sauer who will edit them in a bulletin form to be mailed to all contributors. The boys are expected to contribute anything of interest in their vicinity and anything in the humorous line will be especially welcome.

Those attending the meeting will be asked to submit their names and summer addresses and football equipment size.

W.A.A. News

This year the women's physical education department is again sponsoring the entrance of an intercollegiate archery team in the 11th Annual Intercollegiate Telegraphic Archery Tournament of the National Archery Association. Last year was New Hampshire's first appearance in this tournament which began eleven years ago with 10 teams of 8 archers representing nine colleges.

Our girls made a fair showing considering the adverse weather last spring and the lack of indoor facilities. The team score was 1686 which represented individual scores ranging from 79 to 310.

The scores for the tournament will be recorded during the week of May 18 through May 25. The highest totals of the Columbia Round will be taken regardless of the order of shooting.

Tufts Lacrossemen Next for Wildcats

Coutts and Piretti Made Co-captains; Dougalmen After Third League Win

Led by its newly-elected co-captains, Ario Piretti and Lloyd Coutts, the varsity lacrosse team resumes its battle to keep the New England League championship tomorrow in their tussle with Tufts College on the Lewis Field turf. Piretti and Coutts were elected at a meeting of the lettermen earlier in the week, and will guide their teammates for the first time against the Jumbos.

With the enforced postponement of the Harvard game, Coach Dougal has been forced to drive his charges hard to keep them at a game-winning peak. "Scrimmage every day" has been the battle order so that the men will not lose the feel of game competition. And although Tufts will not be the Wildcats toughest opponent of the season, Dougal is worried for fear that his team will be a bit "rusty", come game time.

Thus far, Williams is the only club that both teams have met this season, and although comparative scores have never won a game; it is interesting to note in passing that the Wildcats took their history-making battle with the Up-staters, while Tufts came out on the short end of a 12 to 0 score. Dougal pointed out when this was mentioned, "I wouldn't worry if we had that Harvard game under our belts, but a two weeks lay-off right in the middle of the season is bound to have its effect."

The return of Rog Cattabriga to action after recovering from his wrist injury brings a shake-up in the defense positions. Cattabriga started the season at first defense, but will be forced to oust Bill Brunel in order to regain his position. The other battle for a starting berth is between "Pep" Martin and Victor Kizala at the point position. These four are nearly on a par, and their work during the week will determine which two will get the nod on Saturday. Other starters remain the same.

Other important news from the lacrosse camp is the election of Coutts and Piretti to the position of co-captains for the remainder of the season. Both these men are veterans of four years of lacrosse play, each being a regular starter since freshman year. The combination should be a success because the temperament of each man will serve as a check for the other. Piretti is the fiery, driving type of leader; while Coutts is of a cool, calm mien.

Students will be admitted to the Interscholastic Track and Field Meet Saturday on presentation of their student ticket.

Wildcats Set to Claw High Flying Huskies

Frosh Baseballers Win One, Lose One

Behind the one hit pitching of Red Davis, the Kittens defeated the Austin Cate baseball club 4-1 here Monday afternoon. The game was featured by the slow pitching of Koslosky, the Austin Cate hurler. Davis twirled good ball in spots and in others he was wild.

Austin Cate put on a poor exhibition of base running in the first inning when Son Lamond had the opportunity of touching out two base runners simultaneously at third.

Red Davis also did well at the plate gathering two safe bingles.

The Kittens dropped their first decision of the season when they lost an 8-7 heartbreaker at Exeter Wednesday afternoon. The game went eleven innings before the prep-schoolers put the clincher across the platter. The bases were loaded when Kane slammed one through Lucas for a home run tying the score.

Lacrosse Kittens Meeting Thornton

With rain causing the postponement of last Saturday's game with Governor Dummer Academy, Coach Johnny Durie's freshman lacrosse boys have had two weeks to prepare for an unknown Thornton Academy team from Saco, Maine.

The game was originally scheduled for Saturday, but due to the many athletic contests on that day, it was set ahead to 4:00 P.M. this afternoon.

Little is known of the Thornton team, as this is believed to be the first season that they have played any interscholastic lacrosse. Their coach, Koseba, is a graduate of Springfield College, where the emphasis is generally placed on tricky shooting, so it will not be unexpected if he has a few "trick shot" artists on his squad.

The Thornton Academy football team is generally one of the best in Maine, and undoubtedly some of the big boys will be trying their hand at lacrosse.

Coach DuRie expressed his belief that his boys would win the game if they played the same hard-fighting type of game they did against Exeter two weeks ago.

The Wildkitten lineup will be changed a little this week, due to the loss of Don Begin through studies. Bill Moore will be in the nets with Guy Gowen, and Ed Mackel flanking him, and either Bob Middleton or "Lu" Carpenter playing the third defense position. Captain Martin will have either "Win" MacDonald or Francis O'Malley as one mid-field man, and either Gene Wright, or Leo Vogel in Begin's mid-field slot. The attack position will be filled by regular first team attackmen, Cochran, Lanyon and Randall.

SCHOOLBOY MEET

Nashua High School.

The strong St. John's Prep School of Danvers, Mass. now looms as the probable winner in the prep school division. If they do come through in first place this year, it will be their seventh win in eight years. Their reign began in 1933, and they made a clean sweep every year until Seton Hall knocked them off last year.

In the out-of-state high school competition, Lawrence High of Lawrence, Mass. seems strong enough to repeat its last year's victory when they nosed out Worcester Commerce of Worcester, Mass., by six and one half points. A surprise may be pulled, though, as the Rhode Island high schools, who are competing for the first time, have some very good men who might possibly come through in first place.

Portsmouth High School, twice champion, is conceded an even chance of carrying away the trophy again this year in the in-state high school division, although Manchester Central has come up with a team that may sweep them into the champion's seat.

The only in-state record holder who is returning to the meet is Don Burnham of Lebanon, who holds the record of two minutes, three seconds, in the 880 run, established when he was a sophomore in 1938. Burnham is a runner that might easily make his team a dark horse in the race for the in-state crown, as he is capable of running any race up to the half-mile relay.

The 1940 meet will be the largest held here, with 51 schools and 889 contestants competing.

Director Sweet announced today that Joseph Orpen of Medford will be official starter again. Other head officials will be John McKittrick of Dorchester and Edward Blood, New Hampshire's assistant track coach, field; Carl Martin of Durham, finish; Tony Dougal of the physical education staff, timer; and Sweet referee. Dr. Fred Engelhardt, president of the University has accepted an invitation to be honorary referee.

Assisting Sweet in preparation for the meet is Alphonse Lucier of Portland, Maine, manager of the 1940 freshman winter track squad.

The final list of schools entered in the meet is: In-state (N. H. high school class): Bristol, Concord, Dover, Franklin, Hanover, Keene, Laconia, Lebanon, Manchester Central, Manchester West, Milford, Nashua, Penacook, Portsmouth, and Newport.

Out-of-state high school class: Maine: Bangor, Brunswick, Cony, Deering, Gardner, John Bapst, Kennebunk, Lewiston, Portland, South Portland, Thornton. Vermont: Brattleboro, Burlington. Massachusetts: Brockton, Dedham, Gloucester, Lawrence, Lowell, Lynn Classical, Lynn English, Peabody, Quincy, Rindge, Waltham, Weymouth. Rhode Island: Cranston, and Hope. New York: Mount Pleasant.

Preparatory School class: New Hampshire: New Hampton, and Tilton. Maine: Bridgton, Coburn Classical, and Hebron. Massachusetts: St. John's and Thayer. New Jersey: Seton Hall scrawny alligator, when they have a beautiful black and white kitten? Or rather, they had a kitten, but the Phi Mu's swiped it. Poor Copernicus! They admit committing that felony, but the Phi Delta U's won't admit swiping the croc.

Which, in our humble opinion, is the height of discretion. If they admitted it, the criminally minded Phi Mu's would probably burn the house down. Just because the Phi Mu's are females, everybody sympathizes with them, while in our opinion the Phi Deltas are blameless. They're just a bunch of clean-living, hard-playing boys, and wouldn't have a thing to do with such an atrocious outrage. We consulted Uncle Zeke, and he says that the foggy Phi Mu's haven't even been feeding the cussed thing right. He needs a little raw meat, fed every two days, from the end of a perfectly sterile toothpick.

Phi Mu Version

"So the Phi Dilly Whoops want to make a mountain out of a molehill, eh? We loved our Leonard dearly, but try and find out who picked up that mangy kitten in South Berwick! He thought it was a mountain lion! We wish to announce that we didn't swipe the Sigma Alpha Epsilon:—Preparations are under way for the annual Mother's Day Program. The intramural athletic teams have begun in good style. The tennis team defeated Sigma Beta, 3-1; and Phi Mu Delta, 4-0. The baseball team beat Fairchild Hall 9-2. The Student Landlords held a meeting at the house Wednesday night, at which time elections were held. Charles Burleigh was elected Commodore of the Yacht Club, Kenneth Shaw was elected Steward, Andreas Turner Turner, vice-commodore, and Boyd Watson, the manager of transportation.

Alpha Gamma Rho:—Dean Alexander was a dinner guest Tuesday night. The baseball team met Newmarket High School recently. William Mitchell and Everett Johnson were recently initiated. Plans are being made for a house picnic soon.

Phi Mu Delta:—Volume 1, Number 1 of the Nu Beta Nus came off the presses, Wednesday night, in time for our Alumni Weekend, Saturday. Brother Hopkins took a bit of culture at the closing concert of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, Saturday night. T. Ramage has been pledged to Phi Lambda Phi. Richard Hawkins has been appointed Fire Warden and Dave Hopkins has also been elected to an honorary position.

Pi Lambda Sigma:—Officers for next fall were elected last Tuesday evening. The new officers are as follows: Beryl Marcotte, President, Josephine Kleczynska, Vice-Pres., Marie Donahue, second vice-pres., Catherine Sullivan, Secretary, Faith Williams, Treas., Cecile Cote, Ass't Treas., Ann Grimes, ritualist, Sophie Byck, Registrar, Marjorie Farwell, Historian and Elizabeth Williams, Social Editor. Mary Murphy was pledged recently.

Phi Alpha:—Men recently initiated are: Sheik Karelis, Bob Moss, Bernie Elsmann, Bob Isenburg, Bernie Rubin, Bill Rosen, Al Rudwick, Julius Freidman, Bob Ray, Meyer Satzow, and Sam Askenazy. A trip is being planned by several of the brothers who wish to go to Wyoming. This will take place the week after school closes.

The House baseball team opens its 1940 campaign this week with several promising rookies. Si Leavitt has been elected Co-Captain of the tennis team. He was also captain last year.

Lambda Chi Alpha:—The spring house dance and the annual steak fry were successes in spite of the weather, which caused the steak fry to be held indoors. Chaperones for the dance were Mr. and Mrs. Hobby and Mr. and Mrs. Crissy, Mr. and Mrs. True, Ed Rogers, John DuRie, Zipp Otis, Art Robinson, and Rab Emory were among those present.

Mickey Moore, Lou Bissel, Ace Nutter, Stan Low, Ed Burt, and Monroe Evans will attend the Intercollegiate Outing Club Association Conference at Allentown this weekend.

poor little kitty, we took the underfed little critter to our house where he can get proper care and medical treatment."

The Phi Delta Upsilon's should be thoroughly told off after a blasting statement like that. The Phi Mu's did have little Leonard, the alligator, commonly called Baby, after their fashion, out in a mud puddle, before the admiring eyes of many Phi Deltas. That night he disappeared from the well-stocked kitchen of the Phi Mu house. All eyes well-trained to throw suspicious glances gaze toward Phi Delta Copernicus was held as a hostage! And they claim he (?) likes being held.

Several blasphemous, threatening letters have been received at the house, demanding everything from a cake to wearing apparel. The Phi Delta Upsilon's even held a mass meeting, and threatened the poor defenseless Phi Mu's with physical violence (imagine, in this day and age,) if Copy wasn't returned. They paid the ransom, they even gave Phi Delta back the cat, but still no alligator. Call the G-men! A further statement from Phi Mu, in answer to the slanderous statement in the Durham Times; "We always keep the shades down! That, at least, has nothing to do with our present war."

NH Manufacturers Convened at Durham

Representatives from many of New Hampshire's industrial concerns gather here for a Research Day meeting which will be held on Friday, May 17. The meeting is sponsored jointly by the New England Council and the University's engineering experiment station and is held simultaneously with similar meetings throughout New England. Dean George W. Case of the College of Technology is chairman of the Research Day committee.

Special emphasis will be paid to New Hampshire's situation in the development of new products and new processes during the all-day session. Manufacturers of the state will have an opportunity to meet with leaders in New England industry, and talk over their problems.

A discussion on vocational training, led by Dr. Arnold Hanson, chairman of the industrial education survey committee at the University, features the morning session. Superintendent James A. Hamlin of the Sanford, Maine, schools will be one of the speakers.

Industrial research will hold the attention of delegates at the luncheon gathering in the Commons, as John G. Callan, professor of industrial management at Harvard university's Graduate School of Business Administration, addresses the group. Arrangements have been made to broadcast Prof. Callan's address over WHEB.

The afternoon session will consist of a panel discussion on New Hampshire's industrial position with reference to finance, research, production, management, transportation and distribution, industrial trends, and marketing and sales. Seven prominent leaders in New Hampshire industry will take part in this discussion.

Will any sophomore interested in becoming staff photographer of the 1942 Granite please get in touch with Bill Rudd at Lambda Chi Alpha tonight? Telephone 155.

Professor Scudder Wins Second Prize

The judging for the First National Intercollegiate Photographic Salon, sponsored by Lens and Shutter took place Saturday, May 4. Stonleigh, Williams, Brooklyn College and the University of New Hampshire were represented. The total number of entries was sixty-five prints representing the work of twenty-two people. The general subjects of the prints were, still life, animals, snow scenes, sophisticated portraits and campus scenes (UNH).

Three prizes and ten honorable mentions were given out. The first prize was awarded to John Jay of Williams College, the same who "shot" the amateur motion picture film "Skies Over Skoki", one of the films recently shown at Duncan McD. Little's show. Professor H. H. Scudder of UNH took second prize for "The Alps". Third prize was awarded Geraldine Paule of Stonleigh for her photograph "Fruit Study". The honorable mentions went to Priscilla Bartlett, Alajos Schuszler, Myrtle Freeman and D. Carpenter all of Stonleigh; and three more to John Jay of Williams; one to Dick Phenix and one to Ray Griffin both of UNH and one to George Wolinsky of Brooklyn College.

The prints were judged by Mr. Franklin I. Jordan, and Mr. Arthur Hammond co-editors of the American Photography Publishing Company and both F. R. P. S. Mr. Hammond is the author of a well-known book on composition and writes a column known as the "Question and Answer Department" in the American Photography Magazine. Mr. Jordan is a prominent exhibitor, probably exhibiting more pictures in a year than any other man in America. They have judged around 6000 prints in the last two months including the recent Boston Camera Club Salon.

Their criticisms of the prints were based on good arrangement as to light
