DURHAM, N.H. – Students at the University of New Hampshire’s Sawyer Hall are offering an evening of supervised activities at the Mast Way Elementary School Parents Night Out scheduled for April 8, 2005. The program is suitable for elementary school-aged children and provides parents with an opportunity to take a break and enjoy an evening together.

The event takes place from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. at the Mast Way Elementary School, 23 Mast Road in Lee. There is no cost for participating children. The UNH students offer dodge ball, crafts and other games as part of their community service partnership with the Mast Way Elementary School Parent Teacher Organization (PTO).

Sawyer Hall is a residential community of more than 100 UNH students who enjoy intramural sports. For more information about the event, contact Alina Torres, director of Sawyer Hall at 862-3606.
