

In This Issue of IMPACT

Tuesday, May 14, 2019

The stories in this issue of IMPACT highlight not only how donor support affects our students but also the power that meaningful relationships have to connect the university to communities beyond campus.

Consider the exceptional individuals who've inspired gifts that help Northeast Passage and UNH's Institute on Disability deliver high-impact programs to New Hampshire citizens, or the lifelong friendships that are memorialized in the Walk of Memory at the Field House.

Donors like you help students like Kiley Kennedy '19 and Andrew Jablonski '19 see themselves in new ways and seize life-changing opportunities. An investment in talented students, whether business or law, agriculture or engineering, is also an investment in the future of our beloved home state.

Thank you for being part of the community that makes UNH a great place for students and a wonderful asset for New Hampshire.
