Dick Starke to Play at Veterans Memorial Ball

Proceeds Will Go for World War II Memorial, Gala Weekend Planned

The students of the University of New Hampshire will once again dance to the strains of Dick Starke and the Riveters from Phillips Andover at the Memorial Ball to be sponsored by the Student Veterans' Organization from 8 until 12 on Saturday, May 19, at New Hampshire Hall. This 10-piece band will be remembered from Faculty Night of last March 24 when its appearance there caused it to be spoken of as "the best band that's been here all year." Women students have been given 12:30 permission.

The Memorial Ball is being held to raise funds for a World War II memorial for the war dead of this university. Chaperones will be Dean and Mrs. William A. Medesy, Mr. and Mrs. Everett B. Sackett, President Harold W. Stoke, and Colonel Joseph F. Daly.

Brad Chase is general chairman for the event and the committees are headed by the following: Frenchy Drouin and Burt Rounds, decorations; Lou Brown, tickets; Bud Tibbets, refreshments.

The beauty contest which was previously announced for this weekend has been called off, but other affairs have been scheduled to make the weekend a full one. Boston College will come here Saturday afternoon to compete in a track meet, and that same day at 2 o'clock will find the Gymkhana presented by the Whips of the Riding Club. Sunday afternoon, the finals in the tennis tournament sponsored by Student Veterans' Organization will be played off.

Committees Expand Student Union Drive

A campaign to raise funds for a proposed student union building in memory of University of New Hampshire students who have served in the armed forces was expanded here recently with the appointment of special committees to assist in the drive.

Until recently, the drive was conducted entirely by the alumni of the university under the leadership of William T. Call, '13. In accordance with recent action taken by the Board of Directors of the Alumni Association, an executive committee for the fund drive was named. Bradford McIntire is chairman, and Prof. H. I. Leavitt is secretary. Others on the committee are President Harold W. Stoke, Frank W. Randall, president of the board of trustees, and Ernest W. Christensen, Jeremy R. Waldron, Harry L. Farnham, and Mrs. John T. Croghan, all of the board of trustees. Raymond C. Magrath, Francis E. Robinson, Samuel W. Hoitt, Mrs. Carl Lundholm, and Robert A. Wilson of Portland, Me. make up the rest of the committee.

On the faculty and student committee are Claude Henry, president of Student Council; Margaret Tower, president of Women's Student Government; Jean Gleason, editor of "The New Hampshire"; and Marian Gorman, president of Mike and Dial.

On the Alumni Fund Council are President Stoke, Raymond C. Magrath, Bradford W. McIntire, William T. Call, Robert A. Wilson, H. I. Leavitt, Francis E. Robinson, and Arthur Davis.

Commencement Ball June 2

The Commencement Ball, sponsored jointly by the junior and senior classes, is scheduled for the Saturday evening of June 2, at New Hampshire Hall.

The Queen will be chosen at the dance, and an elaborate coronation ceremony is being planned. The committee is trying to secure a "big name" band.

"Whips" To Sponsor 1st UNH Gymkhana

Show Demonstrates Ability Of Women Horsemen

The first University Gymkhana will be presented by the Whips at 2 p.m. this coming Saturday, at the show ring, according to Miss Ruth Brown, Master. This event will be unique in the history of the university, for although horse shows have been held on campus, at no time has there been such an event put on for the benefit of university riders alone. The Gymkhana is being presented by the Whips, which is a riding club sponsored by the Department of Physical Education for Women, under the direction of Miss Evelyn Browne, faculty advisor. The purpose is to give all women riders on campus an opportunity to ride in competition, and demonstrate their ability as horsemen.

The event is expected to provide good entertainment for all spectators. There will be two horsemanship classes for advanced and intermediate riders, and a pair class, in addition to a number of novelty by the Whips to music, and finally jumping exhibition. Each rider will be responsible for the appearance of the horse she rides. About fifteen horses will be used, most of which are owned by Mr. and Mrs. Dick Ellis.

The weather has seriously handicapped preparations for this vent but Mary Phillips, chairman of the Gymkhana, says the show will go on provided it is not pouring rain at that time. In the event of rain, the show will be postponed until a later date.

Mr. Eralsey Ferguson, well known as a judge of horses and riders throughout New England has consented to act as judge. He has judged the shows at Colby Junior College for the past three years, as well as those of a number of camps. Mrs. Harold Scudder, honorary member of the Whips, will present the awards. Bleachers will be available for spectators, and admission is free.

Soph Street Dance To Be Smooth Affair

Do you swoon with the sweet and low? Do you go in for a smooth rhumba under the stars? You'll find all this and plenty of fancy surprises at the Sophomore Street Dance to be held May 29 on T Hall parking lot.

The class of '47 under the direction of President Joe Bennett, promises to be a solid affair with 11:30 permissions for stags and dates alike. Admission will be next-to-nothing and the G. Harris Daggetts and the Donald Chapmans will chaperone. Further information will be divulged as the plans for this super occasion unfold.

Chairman of the decorations committee is Ora Mathes assisted by Pat Parker, Lynn Bates, and Gerry Little. Lucille Larrabee is chairman of entertainment with Jinx Creeden, Penny Abbott, Jean Hennessey, and Sandy Beaver. In charge of refreshments is Betty Collins assisted by Fran Williams, Anita Kittle-son, and Barbara Gibson. In charge of music are Barbara Vogt, Claire Rieneau, and Alan Hartman. Assisting all committees is the executive council comprising the class president, vice-president, Jean Firth, secretary, Nancy Tupper, and John Hashim, treasurer.

So. Americans Talk Here Next Week

"What the United States Looks Like to Latin America" is the topic chosen for discussion on Wednesday, May 23, in Murkland Auditorium by three Latin Americans who are studying extension education in this country through the invitation of the Institute of Inter-American Affairs. Sponsored jointly by the Extension Service and the Durham branch of Americans United for World Organization, the talks will be at 7:30 p.m. Prof. Allen B. Partridge will be the moderator.

The group, made up of Domingos Pellegrino from Brazil, Antonio Penate from Columbia, and Adela Rodriguez from Venezuela, is spending several months in New Hampshire receiving instruction and practical field experience in better farming methods and Extension work in agriculture and home economics. This is part of the State Department program to promote hemispheric solidarity and to increase production of vital war materials, such as food and fiber, in other American republics by training and preparing selected students to carry on youth and adult education programs. Most of these students who are in training in various Extension services throughout the country have a farm background and a college education.

Chemistry Professor

Mr. Pellegrino is a professor of chemistry at a college of agriculture in the state of Sao Paulo, Brazil. He has been in the States since last fall and has already done work in Virginia, California, Oregon, and after he leaves New Hampshire will go to Tennessee. Mr. Penate has had training in Arkansas and Indiana, and will go to Puerto Rico before returning to his home in Bogota, Columbia. He is particularly interested in 4-H Club work. Miss Rodriguez before coming north was serving as a field home demonstration agent in a supervisory capacity in the Home Demonstration Service in Venezuela. She will be in New Hampshire until next February.

At an organizational meeting last Thursday a student chapter of Americans United was formed. Constance Ledward is chairman and Natalie Brooks is vice-chairman; Jean Gleason, secretary; Barbara Hayden, treasurer; Gerald Singleton, membership chairman; Jane Whitney, publicity chairman. Norman Bauer and Francis E. Robinson are faculty advisers. There will be a meeting of the student group Thursday evening at 7:30 in Ballard Hall. Plans will be outlined for the following year.

view any student interested in handling their circulation in Durham beginning with the college year next fall.

In cooperation with the Seventh War Loan Drive, which officially opened May 14, there will be a special program at the Franklin Theater at 4 o'clock, Thursday afternoon, May 17, for students and again at 8:15 o'clock in the evening. Instead of the regular admission price, the post office staff will be on duty to sell a minimum purchase of one dollar in war stamps to be used in admittance. Those students who wish to have this purchase of war stamps credited to their house will receive a ticket stating the amount of their purchase which they are to turn in at the stamp booth in Murkland Hall.

This program to aid the selling of war stamps will consist of a specially prepared short called "7th War Loan Drive" featuring Bob Hope and Bing Crosby with numerous other stage and theater celebrities, a full length feature "Let's Face It," starring Bob Hope, and a short talk by Lt. Richard Clark of Nashua, a graduate from the University, class of '41.

Song of Bernadette Thursday, May 17th At Murkland Aud.

Produced by Newman Club Jeanmary Durant Plays Role of Bernadette

The Newman Club production of "The Song of Bernadette," Franz Werfel's story of a simple maid of Lourdes, is being put on tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in Murkland Auditorium. The play is dramatized from the novel by Jean and Walter Kern and was given its premiere production by the Speech and Drama Department of the Catholic University, Washington, D. C.

The opening scene of the play shows Bernadette as a family friend, and villagers see her, a meek, sickly, dreamy child, and unusually ordinary girl who gives no hint of the wonder which is soon to come into her life. Then follows the vision which Bernadette is privileged to see, the vision which brings the great flood of skepticism, persecution, and notoriety into her life. Stories grow like wildfire spreading to all France, stories of miracles that happened at the Grotto where little Bernadette Soubirous prayed. Processions come, the blind and the lame, the believers and the skeptics. And soon Bernadette's name is known throughout all France.

Fire Dept. Sponsors Benefit Show May 18

An informal entertainment will be the attraction at New Hampshire Hall this Friday night, May 18, at 8 p.m. It is a benefit show sponsored by the Durham Fire Department and anyone may attend. The admission is fifty cents for adults, and twenty-five cents for children, tax included.

This event is for the purpose of raising funds to purchase two-way radio equipment for the University of New Hampshire Durham Fire Department.

Mr. Ace Gorham, the magician featured at their annual Christmas party, will play a return engagement. In addition to his forte of original magic of the hilarious comedy type, he will demonstrate his "Eyeless Vision."

Accompanying Mr. Gorham will be the talented Thompson Twins, with their marimba duets and vocal harmony.

After earning a commission as second lieutenant of infantry in the Reserved Officer's Training Corps, Lieutenant Clark was called to active duty upon graduation from the University of New Hampshire. He went overseas in January, 1942, and in New Caledonia was transferred to a cavalry reconnaissance troop. As the only officer who could speak French he handles the training of native troops.

As a leader of a rifle platoon, Lt. Clark went to Guadalcanal later in 1942, and saw action there until the close of the campaign. From Guadalcanal he went on to the Bougainville "step" toward Tokyo. It was there at "Hill 260" that Lt. Clark was wounded in the arms and legs by a mortar burst during the vicious fighting with the Japs. Only 65 men were left in the 26-year-old Clark's battalion when the hill was finally captured.

In addition to the Bronze Star and the Purple Heart, Lt. Clark has the Combat Infantryman Badge for exemplary conduct in action against the enemy, and the Asiatic-Pacific campaign ribbon with battle stars for Guadalcanal and Bougainville.

While an undergraduate, Lt. Clark was a member of the staff of "The New Hampshire," Outing Club, Christian Work, the Yacht Club, the Rifle Team, and was manager of the baseball team.

Mujokenkofuku!

May 8 saw the end of the war in Europe. A few days later men who have accumulated 85 or more points began to receive their honorable discharges.

May 14 the Seventh War Loan drive officially opened. The national quota is larger than it ever has been in any previous drive. The quota for this university is larger.

Why?

This is why. We can't stop buying stamps and bonds until we get terms from Japan equal to those of Germany. This means:

Around the Campus
by Bill Heller

Tell you what, Abbie, I'll stop drooling over Lauren Bacall if you'll do the same about Humphrey Bogart. What a woman! . . . I don't think that they ought to show pictures like that in Durham; I haven't been able to study since. . . . Glancing around the office here, a statement comes to my mind that must be duly credited to Marge Byers. She said that she intended to major in men next semester. . . . Good luck, Marge, you should be able to do well in it. You've minored in it for a semester so far. . . . Talking about the office force, it wasn't long ago that I found out "Poppy" Danos' real first name. I think that valor is the better part of discretion, though, and I won't let it out.

The Seventh War Loan Drive opened officially on Monday, and we don't see why we can't put a plug in here for the government. . . . We know that all the students on campus are going to do their part in seeing this Drive go over the top; therefore, this won't be a speech on the true and righteous art of patriotism, but just a reminder to let the moths out of those purses and wallets, drag out those old quarters and dollars, buy a few less sodas (and other stuff), and buy a few more stamps and bonds. Nuff said on that. . . .

Neal O'Hara told us (in his column of Saturday, May 12) that "twirling" off this column is the softest racket he knows of. . . . To tell the truth, it's not so soft, but it does have its advantages; no one will be writing any dirt about us. . . . Some one asked us on campus if we would publicly ask Leon Stevens to get a hair cut. . . . We haven't seen him since last Thursday, so if you've already gotten one, Leon, we take it all back! . . . Say, who's going to tell "J. J." Hanagan how to drive a car? We've been wanting to for months, but never got around to it. . . . Wonder how many crack-ups he's had this week?

Well, the baseball team leaves Durham Thursday and Saturday to two games off campus. . . . After their second consecutive loss maybe this will change their luck. Certainly hope so! . . . Talking about sports, I noticed that the racing ban was officially taken off, and we're wondering what this campus will look like on a Saturday afternoon when Rockingham opens. . . . Bet it will look like an A-1 ghost town! . . . Some of the girls on campus should take the next piece of news to heart and

Annual Interscholastic Track Invitations Issued

Invitations are in the mail for the University of New Hampshire's thirty-second Annual Interscholastic Track and Field Meet to be held in Durham, Saturday, June 2. The meet will be restricted to New Hampshire high schools, and team championships will be recognized in Class A schools (200 or more boys) and Class B (less than 200).

The meet will begin at 10:00 a.m. with finals in the high and broad jumps, pole vault, shot put, and discus throw, and trials in both hurdles and the 100 and 220 yard dashes. Finals in all other events will start at 2:00 p.m. excepting the hammer throw which will start at 1:30 p.m.

The invitations were sent to all schools that have participated in the meet during the past five years and to several others because of their participation in the State Cross Country Championship meet last fall. Any other New Hampshire high school wishing to participate in the meet should write to Coach Paul C. Sweet at UNH for information.

try to do something to better the situation. Will someone please teach Ellie Knowlton and Marge Dolan how to walk in the dark. They both fell into a stream coming home from the AKD initiation. It's a little early in the season for swimming, even if it is May. . . . From the weather we've been having lately I even doubt that the ice flows are out of Oyster River. . . . It was really too bad that the train from Durham got into Boston a half hour late Saturday. By the way, Nancy Nuzzo, what did you and those two Ensigns (they were Ensigns, weren't they?) do until you made your train at the South Station? . . . Intrigue, intrigue, intrigue; gosh, we love it!

From the looks of this article, it seems that we're about ready for some of our weekly song titles, so let's go: Summer Time . . . Don't you believe it! The Man on the Flying Trapeze John Grady after partaking of the "Evil Spirits"

Just a Prayer Away . . . June tenth I Don't Need a Million Dollars But Uncle Sam does!

This looks like the close of another article, Abbie, so you can put that big straw bonnet back on your head and trudge your weary way home, while I sit here and think up some stuff for next week's column. . . . Don't be late next week. I hope to have a lot of stuff, especially a couple of winning scores from the baseball team.

Sailors Nip Wildcats 3-1 in Tight Ball Game

by Jack McGinn

It's still the same old story — yes we may break out into lyrics after watching one woeful game and another tip-top game in which the Wildcats were the losers, in both instances. The Donnybrook with Camp Langdon saw Twit Henry's inaugural as pitcher and the soldiers helped him no end in his first pitching chore for the Wildcats. The New Hampshire fielders also lended the soldiers a helping hand with several errors that allowed them to run across the plate with apparent ease. Regardless of the errors and loose playing in general the boys from Portsmouth were definitely the better ball club and had plenty of experience. Remember that basketball game last winter when the soldiers ran the 'Cats right into the floor with speed to burn? That is exactly what happened Thursday and how! They not only had speed afoot but their twirler, Ray Sutton, had it in his powerful left arm as he left seven Wildcats gazing fondly at third strikes. Well, enough of this moaning as we turn our thoughts to Saturday's duel with Uncle Sam's Navy in the presence of the Sanford Naval Air Station.

Fred White pitched his heart out for the 'Cats and as you well remember two errors turned the tide of battle and left him with a loss as a reward for all his hard work. Those are the breaks, however and nature must take its course. The Sailors presented a well balanced team with no spectacular players but they did have nine men who could and did play heads up ball and worked together as a unit. This is due no doubt to the fact that they have played eight games and have had plenty of time to get use to each other. It is of my opinion, however, that the 'Cats could take them over the ropes if the two teams met at a later date. What do you think?

Dis and Data

A very discouraging factor thus far in the diamond campaign is the lack of attendance at the games. The stands accommodate approximately 1,200 fans but it is very doubtful if 100 fans were on hand to witness last Saturday's fray. This very abundant lack of spirit is very discouraging to the ball players who work afternoon after afternoon during the week and then play before a half-hearted group of students. How long is this to last?

Next Saturday the ball club embarks to Boston to engage Northeastern University. The Huskies clipped the 'Cats twice last year and have a club as strong if not stronger than that of last season. The Wildcats will not be favored to cop the verdict but one never knows, does one?

Boston College will drop in Saturday to meet Coach Sweet's trackmen. The Eagles have a well-balanced squad from all reports and are coached by Jack Ryder, developer of Gil Dodds, the country's ace miler. The meet gets underway at 2:30 sharp.

Chalk up another victory for Red Crory. Red whitewashed Binghampton last week allowing them only two hits. Pretty soon Red will find himself with the Phillies.

Dr. Chan of Dartmouth Speaks at A.W.S. Convo

Pitchers Duel all the Way as Both Twirlers Wiff Eight Men

With Fred White and Whitey Wiechman waging a masterful pitching duel, the Sanford Naval Air Station eked out a 3-1 win over the Wildcats last Saturday at Brackett Field.

The game got off to a fast start with both twirlers retiring the sides in order. The Sailors threatened in the second inning loading the sacks with only one out. By virtue of McLane's single an infield error and a free pass to Mangrella. White bore down, however, and struck out Wiechman and got Francher on an infield out to retire the side.

The 'Cats got their lone tally in their half of the second as Steve Haynes opened the inning with a resounding double to left field. Haynes went to third on Tibbetts' single and scored on Honkla's infield out.

The Sailors went out in front in the third canto aided by a little loose playing by the Wildcats inner garden. Lanky Dan Rogers led off with a single, stole second and went to third on McLane's grounder which Swekla tossed over Tibbetts' head. Rogers ambled in on Mangrella's long fly to right and a few seconds later McLane trotted across as the gobs' classy shortstop, Bowden, rifled a single to right.

The Wildcats threatened in almost every inning but Wiechman was tight in the pinches and pitched his way out of trouble without too much effort. The Sailors put the duel on ice in the eighth frame as Rogers again singled, stole second and scored when Vickery muffed Mangrella's roller.

Fred White pitched a neat game for the Swaseymen striking out eight but his teammates gave him little in the way of support committing five errors, two of which opened the gates for the sailors' runs.

These men can tell you why the 7TH WAR LOAN is the BIGGEST yet!

YOU ARE being asked to lend more money than ever before—in the 7th War Loan.

These men can tell you why.

They can tell you of giant ships ready to slide down the ways this year.

They can tell you of a whole new air force in the building—huge new bombers and fast new jet-propelled planes coming off the lines by thousands.

They could show you why it is cheaper and quicker to give our Pacific Forces entirely new equipment sometimes—instead of shipping tanks and guns from Europe.

They can, in short, show you 101 ways in which your dollars are needed more than ever to bring America's might to its full strength—so that we may crush our foe the faster, make an end of killing, and bring our men back home.

Will you tell these men "I can't afford to buy my share"?

THE GENERALS and admirals can show us why our money is needed—more money than before.

But other men can show us something, too.

They're the men with twisted, crippled limbs...with clever iron hooks instead of hands. The blind men...the men with scarred, seamed faces. And perhaps worst of all, the men with blasted, darkened minds.

They can show us, clearly, how small is any sacrifice we make in lending money.

If you have an income, whether from work, land, or capital, you have a quota in the 7th War Loan. Find out what that quota is—and make it!
