WHAT: “Celebrating 50 years of the Civil Rights Movement: Honoring Rosa Parks, a Woman of Courage”

WHEN: Thursday, Dec. 1, noon to 2 p.m.

WHERE: Memorial Union Building, Strafford Room

BACKGROUND: “Celebrating 50 years of the Civil Rights Movement: Honoring Rosa Parks, a Woman of Courage” is an interactive educational program to celebrate civil rights, social justice, and nonviolent protest. Most historians date the beginning of the modern civil rights movement in the United States to Dec. 1, 1955. That was the day when Rosa Parks refused to give up her bus seat to a white passenger in Montgomery, Ala. Her courage helped to bring about the civil rights legislation that has transformed the lives of millions of men and women in this country for generations to come. Come pay homage, view video footage of Rosa Parks and engage in the small group Dialogue Café led by faculty, staff and students. Sponsored by the Office of the Provost and Diversity Initiatives.
