2023 Stratham Summerfest

July 15, 2023

4-H Department Premium List

At Stratham Summerfest, the finished results of many 4-H member and volunteer leader efforts are on display. The 4-H Positive Youth Development program focuses on the practice of practical life skills through a broad variety of projects and activities. Many of these projects are displayed in the 4-H Building. These exhibits include individual and club/program displays of projects as well as educational displays developed to inform fair-goers.

If you are a first time exhibitor, please get in touch with the 4-H office so we can help you be prepared! (603) 679-5616.

The 4-H exhibit building was built in 1977 and dedicated to Lynn Garland upon her retirement as 4-H Extension Educator in 2008.

General Rules

1. Premiums or the permission to exhibit in future years may be withheld from anyone not complying with any rule or regulation in any 4-H class, or whose behavior is disrespectful to Event property, judges, superintendents, Extension staff, volunteers or other 4-H members, or whose behavior is not appropriate to standards and image of the NH 4-H program. 4-H members can be expelled from the Fair for not complying with these expectations.
2. Leaders -Reserve space by emailing or contacting the Rockingham County 4-H office by June 16th
3. 4-H building premiums listed are being offered to 4-H clubs, programs and members enrolled in Rockingham and Strafford Counties 4-H program. Members enter through 4honline.
4. 4-H Cloverbuds, ages 5-7, enter projects completed in only Division IV.

5. Products and articles must represent work completed since July 2022.
6. Exhibits are shown at member's own risk.
7. Exhibits must be set up on either Thursday, July 13, 3-7 p.m. or on Friday, July 14, 12-5 p.m., with judging occurring on a rolling basis Thursday and Friday. Your club's articles may be judged prior to the fair by contacting the 4-H office to make arrangements.
8. Exhibits must be taken down promptly Saturday evening, July 15, 5-8 p.m. or Sunday morning, July 16, 9:00-10:30 a.m. Any item removed prior to take down time will forfeit premiums and/or ribbons at decision of the 4-H building superintendent.
9. Clubs/Programs entering Summerfest are responsible for setup, take-down, and for completing exhibit sheets correctly. Club/Program exhibit sheets must be returned to the 4-H office with signatures of the 4-H'ers after they have received their payments.
10. Projects or exhibits deemed unsatisfactory, that don't have sufficient quantities, or are improperly labeled, may be disqualified. 4-H exhibit tags and canning labels are available at the Rockingham County UNH Cooperative Extension office. Exhibits that spoil will be removed.
11. All decisions of judges and 4-H superintendents are final.
12. Duplicate entries in any class will not be allowed, e.g., two pin cushions may not be entered by the same member. Items with similar skill/techniques will be grouped as a set with one ribbon and one premium awarded for the set. However, member may enter multiple different items in the same class, e.g., 1 sewing box, 1 pin cushion, and 1 needle book in the same class, Div. E, Class 1. Depending on the class, different techniques may qualify as a separate entry.
13. 4-H clubs are expected to have leaders and members volunteer to help at the fair i.e., 4-H information desk, participate in judging events, and do action exhibits.
14. To remove a project from the 4-H building for use in an event activity (e.g. the sheep lead line class), obtain permission from the building superintendent. Return project no later than one hour after completion of the activity or lose building premiums.
15. Entering exhibits in 4-H, authorizes UNH Cooperative Extension, 4-H to have and use any photographs or slides taken of participants, projects, or animals as is necessary for reports and public relations.
