March 29, 2004

WHAT: More than 116 state legislators will discover rising stars at the University of New Hampshire when President Ann Weaver Hart, the UNH Alumni Association and the Parents Association welcome them to the annual UNH Legislative Breakfast.

Legislators will meet with UNH students from Dover, Newmarket, Portsmouth, Manchester, Derry and South Acworth.

WHEN: Thursday, April 1, 2004, from 7:30-9 a.m.

WHERE: The New Hampshire Historical Society's Tuck Library, 30 Park Street in Concord

DETAILS: This year's theme, "Come Discover Our Rising Stars..." showcases eight undergraduate student research projects whose work carries impact for the state of New Hampshire and beyond. UNH President Ann Weaver Hart, USNH Board of Trustees Chair John Lynch and Vice President for Research and Public Service John Aber will offer remarks during the breakfast.

If you are planning to attend, please call Kim Billings, 603-862-1558.
