Maeve McDonnell '21, a business major at UNH Manchester, is spending the summer working as a digital and social media intern at Stay Work Play New Hampshire, a nonprofit that highlights what makes the state a great place for young people to live. McDonnell began her college career at the University of Tampa, but the New Hampshire native found herself missing the fall foliage and snowy winters of her home state. She transferred to UNH Manchester halfway through her sophomore year, which she describes as "the best decision I have ever made." Read the rest of McDonnell's story in her introductory post for Stay Work Play.
