DURHAM, N.H. -- The University of New Hampshire has the following experts available to comment on the pending confirmation of New Hampshire Episcopalian Gene Robinson as the first openly gay bishop.

David Frankfurter, professor of history and religious studies, can discuss the Bible and how nothing in it directly addresses same-sex relationships. He can be reached at davidtf@cisunix.unh.edu or (603) 862-3015.

Michele Dillon, associate professor of sociology with a focus in religion, can speak to the specifics of Robinson and the Episcopal church as well as religion and sexuality in a more broad way. She can be reached at michele.dillon@unh.edu or (781) 239-3552.
