DURHAM, N.H. -- Public policy issues affecting lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender elders will be the focus of a seminar at the University of New Hampshire Wednesday, April 10.

The seminar takes place at 7 p.m. in the Memorial Union Building, Room 330. It is free and open to the public.

Guest speaker will be Kenneth Jones, research and policy director of the National Gay and Lesbian Task Force. Jones oversees the research projects of the NGLTF Policy Institute, a "think tank" founded in 1995. He previously served as research associate for the Center of HIV/AIDS Educational Studies & Training and the Social Intervention Group.

Jones' lecture will highlight a policy institute report that explores the pressing policy issues facing lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender elders in the United States.
