

The UNH Parents Council: Back to the Future

Tuesday, April 27, 2021

The way it looks now, as with so many other aspects of campus life at UNH, we expect the UNH Parents Council to be fully back at it next fall after a year and a half of COVID-related suspended animation. With our own Wildcats graduating or graduated, we'll also be looking for the next class of parent leaders. We'll be reimagining all we can be as we push ahead with our core responsibilities of grant-making to student groups (we oversee the allocation of $50,000- $60,000 to more than 30 student groups each year), running the UNH parents Facebook group, and generally representing and connecting UNH parents nationwide to the university. It's an energetic, positive group ... and a great way to engage with the school. Open to all parents, regardless of where you live.
