DURHAM, N.H. -- The University of New Hampshire's Center for International Education will host its annual Study Abroad Fair Wednesday, Jan. 31, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Strafford Room of the Memorial Union Building.

Representatives from 30 study abroad programs, including Australearn, The College Year in Athens, Sea Education Association and UNH's own programs, will be available to speak with students and answer questions. Last year, close to 300 students attended the fair.

The Study Abroad Fair is free and open to the public. For more information, call Rob Hallworth, the center's coordinator of student programs, at 603-862-2398.
