The Sustainability Institute is inviting nominations of UNH alumni for the UNH Sustainability Awards recognizing significant contributions to advancing sustainability in their work. The annual Sustainability Awards program celebrates and incentivizes achievements that best embody the principles and practices of sustainability.

Previously open only to current students, faculty and staff, the awards program has extended this year to include all UNH, UNH Manchester and UNH Franklin Pierce School of Law alumni.

Eligible alumni may be nominated for one of two awards: 1) Lifetime Achievement Award, recognizing a significant, multi-year body of work in professional or civic life; or

2) Graduate of the Last Decade, recognizing a significant body of work in the professional or civic lives of graduates of the last decade. Nominations are due Feb. 28.
