DURHAM, N.H. -- A continuing forum in the wake of the Sept. 11 attacks will be held Thursday, Oct. 4, from 12:30 to 2 p.m. in the Strafford Room of the MUB. It originally had been scheduled for Tuesday, Oct. 2.

"Perspectives on September 11: Islam and the Geopolitics of the Middle East" is once again hosted by the Office of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs. A three-person panel will offer their perspectives, and Provost David Hiley will moderate.

The event is open to all faculty, students and staff. Bring your own lunch. Coffee and cold drinks will be provided. For more information, call 862-3290.
