Forget the freshman 15 in Manchester. In September, UNHM interim dean J. Michael Hickey '73 announced a new partnership with Granite YMCA that opens up a wide array of health and fitness options to Manchester students. The Wildcat Wellness Program provides all full-time students with full membership privileges at the Granite YMCA — an important complement, Hickey says, to the academic amenities available at the college's new Mill Yard campus. The partnership benefits YMCA employees, as well, who are now eligible to receive tuition grants for reduced-fee Manchester course enrollments.
