Secret Service, support, and a gorilla...

Clockwise, President Ford climbs from his car upon reaching the Mills' residence. The President is greeted by Mills and his wife. Ford waves to the crowd at the UNH field house. The series below shows a Secret Service man eyeing the press gallery while behind him Ford addresses the audience. Radical economist Jeremy Rifkin walks with protesters while others line Main St. Not all the onlookers were protesting. During the question and answer session, Ford is addressed by a person in an ape costume.
