REMEMBER ALL THAT CHATTER about The 603 Challenge? Earlier this month, we appealed to your beneficence, and boy, did you come through for the university. More than 2,400 donors contributed more than $230,000 to support more than 138 of their favorite programs.

That's a lot of "more thans." But there's still room for more. And yes, like those who gave before you, it's okay to play favorites. Just for this moment, ignore all those times your family or teachers told you "playing favorites" wasn't nice, and go ahead and choose your favorite program at UNH. Make that declaration loudly and proudly by bestowing a gift of any size. Whether to an academic department, scholarship, club sport, athletic team, student organization or other area, your gift will enhance the UNH experience for current students. With hundreds of programs to choose from, it won't be easy — but don't worry! You won't be the first to play favorites; 2,000+ others paved the path. So, go ahead. Play favorites!
