

Understanding a Union Card

Wednesday, July 27, 2016

Dear Colleagues,

Please take the time to understand what information the NEA is collecting when you sign an authorization card and the potential impact to you.

Do you wish to help the organizing committee? (Circle one) Yes / No

I, the undersigned employee of UNH/USNH do hereby express my desire to be exclusively represented by NEA-New Hampshire its agents, representatives, or chartered local associations for the purpose of collective bargaining negotiations, the settlement of grievances, and other purposes prescribed by the NH Public Employee Labor Relations Act (RSA 273-A). I request that the State Public Employee Labor Relations Board conduct a secret ballot election to have the question of representation resolved by a majority of employees eligible to vote under the applicable law and rules. I also hereby revoke every other authorization card I may have previously signed.

What will the union do with your personal information?

What do you know about this union?

You lose the right to represent yourself.

This is legal contract language.

The union gets control over these.

There are no guarantees with collective bargaining.
