MEDIA ADVISORY: UNH Political Experts Available For Election Day Commentary

November 1, 2010

DURHAM, N.H. – Two political experts from the University of New Hampshire are available to discuss election day politics and results Nov. 2, 2010.

Dante Scala, associate professor of political science and chair of the UNH Department of Political Science, and Andy Smith, associate professor of political science and director of the UNH Survey Center, are available election day and evening.

Scala can be reached at 603-540-4018. Scala also will be tweeting at <http://twitter.com/Graniteprof>.

Smith can be reached at 603-343-7732.

The University of New Hampshire, founded in 1866, is a world-class public research university with the feel of a New England liberal arts college. A land, sea, and space-grant university, UNH is the state's flagship public institution, enrolling more than 12,200 undergraduate and 2,200 graduate students.
