

CAPTRUST on Campus

Info sessions will provide details to investment lineup changes in retirement accounts

Wednesday, October 5, 2016

USNH has contracted with CAPTRUST, an independent retirement consulting firm, to review the current retirement plans to make sure USNH is providing the best investment choices with competitive fee structures for employees.

For those interested in learning more about these changes, CAPTRUST, along with representatives from TIAA and Fidelity Investments, will be holding informational sessions to explain the new investment structure. The following sessions are scheduled for the Durham campus, and no preregistration is required.

Tuesday, Oct. 11

- 11 a.m. to noon, MUB Room 334/336
- 1-2 p.m., MUB Theater II
- 3-4 p.m., MUB Theater II

Wednesday, Oct. 12
