Michael D. Goldberg, professor of economics at the Peter T. Paul College of Business and Economics, has received the 2016 Graduate Faculty Mentor Award.

Goldberg has written extensively in the fields of international finance and macroeconomics.

“When I work with students and teach them and mentor them, my first job is to help them see what it is we’re doing,” Goldberg says.

“What’s the objective? Why do we want to learn this?”
