Justin Benna, PhD student in Education has been invited to participate in the 37th Annual David L. Clark National Graduate Student Research Seminar in K-12 Educational Administration and Policy by the University Council for Education Administration. Benna’s top-ranked proposal “Superintendent Trustworthiness: An Interpretative Qualitative of Public Elementary School Principals’ Perspectives and Experiences” was selected from a group of 90 nominated doctoral students from seven countries this year. The Clark Seminar brings together emerging K-12 educational leadership and policy scholars with noted researchers for two days of presentations, generative discussion, and professional growth. The Clark Seminar is held in conjunction with the American Educational Research Association Annual Meeting, which will be held April 26-27, 2017 in San Antonio, Texas.
