DURHAM, N.H. – New Hampshire Small Business Development Center (N.H. SBDC) State Director Mary Collins announced that Stewart Gates, business advisor for the center’s North Country office, has been selected as the 2011 New Hampshire State Star.

"I am delighted to make this announcement, and to recognize Stewart Gates for extraordinary contributions to the work of the N.H. SBDC and small business in northern New Hampshire," Collins said. "We are grateful to the Neil and Louise Tillotson Foundation, Northern Community Investment Corporation and other partners for their support of SBDC business assistance in the North Country."

Gates was chosen by the N.H. SBDC for being an outstanding performer, making a major contribution to the state’s SBDC program, and showing a strong commitment to small business in New Hampshire’s North Country.

"It is an honor to accept this award and to have the opportunity every day to assist so many entrepreneurs achieve the dream of starting and succeeding in their own business," Gates said.

A special awards reception honoring the Association of Small Business Development Center 2011 State Stars was held Friday, Sept. 6, 2011, in San Diego, Calif.
