

Pre-departure announcement for UNH Managed Spring Program in Chengdu

Wednesday, February 15, 2017

In the spring semester of 2017, 8 students were accepted for the 2017 Spring program in Chengdu. The students come from several colleges such as Peter Paul College of Business, CHHS and COLA. They will leave on Feb 19th and return on June 10th. Besides daily Chinese classes at Chengdu University, there will also be frequent excursions such as visiting the largest Panda Reserve, The Ancient Town of Luodai, The Dujiang Aqueduct etc. Students will be immersed in an authentic language environment. They will spend their last week in China traveling to the City of Xian and Beijing.

Recruitment for the Summer Program in Chengdu is currently underway. Interested students should contact COLA Study Abroad Center as well CI-UNH asap.
