One student's story: Eden Suoth '18

Tuesday, March 21, 2017

"It is because of UNH that I've been able to have these amazing experiences, and donor support was one of the reasons I chose to come here."

When Eden Suoth '18 was in high school in New Hampshire, he imagined he would be attending college in the city — until the scholarships he received from UNH opened him up to more opportunities than he ever expected.

"I made the right financial choice and went to UNH," Suoth recalls. "I quickly fell in love with it after I was able to explore the opportunities and the people and the resources that were here."

A mathematics and philosophy major, Suoth is a member of myriad campus organizations including the Socratic Society,
