Members of the University community, friends and family are cordially invited to join the Department of Communication in celebrating Professor Joshua Meyrowitz's retirement from the University of New Hampshire on Sunday, April 30, 2017 from 5:00 - 7:00 p.m. at the University's Museum of Art in the Paul Creative Arts Center.

Professor Meyrowitz, who joined the faculty in 1979 when communication was still part of the Department of Theatre, has been a central figure in shaping the communication department, currently home of the second largest undergraduate major in the College of Liberal Arts.

Retirement is probably not the right term to describe the transition of this active scholar, extraordinary teacher and dedicated committee member, since we are certain that he will continue the first two of these activities in new venues. We doubt he will miss the committee work. Please join us in celebrating this transition. Refreshments will be served.
