

Path to Wildcat Country

Friday, June 30, 2017

So you've graduated from high school. Congrats! For the last few months there has surely been an eagerness for that moment to come and to be able to move towards what lies beyond. That future has now finally arrived as one chapter closes and another begins to open. This next story's setting will take place at a pivotal location in your young adult life: Wildcat Country. To get there, though, you must first make your way through the summer with all of the preparations and transitions it entails. In order to help make smooth this step from one milestone to another, follow this path:
