

New Feminist Studies Graduate Certificate

Monday, August 21, 2017

The Women's Studies Program at the University of New Hampshire is pleased to announce that they are now accepting applications for the new Feminist Studies Graduate Certificate Program.

The Feminist Studies Graduate Certificate Program is designed to provide students with an opportunity to pursue feminist scholarship within a structured, interdisciplinary curriculum. The Certificate can be earned by students enrolled in a Graduate Degree Program, or as a stand-alone certificate for those who have completed their Bachelor's Degree from an accredited institution.

The Graduate Certificate in Feminist Studies enables students to develop specific skills for use in their own personal and professional development by providing tools such as feminist theoretical frameworks and an understanding of contemporary feminist activism. The Feminist Studies Graduate Certificate also enables students to conduct research in the areas of critical Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies and centrally relies on analyses from such fields as literature, composition and rhetoric, social policy, history, critical race, ethnicity, nationality, class, age, religion, family and disability studies.
