

From Fear to Fearless

A history major makes her own history

Monday, November 13, 2017

Crystal Napoli '18 has really leaned into the college experience. For her first trip abroad she went to China, where she “signed away her right to speak English” and just spoke Chinese the whole summer. It was “very difficult and really scary,” Napoli says, but not scary enough to keep her from even more outside-her-comfort-zone experiences that have really paid off. Heading into her last semester at UNH, she says she has no fears about her career.
