UNH Center for Family Business Focuses on Non-Family Employees March 4

CONCORD, N.H. -- The University of New Hampshire Center for Family Business will present “The Issues, Care and Management of Non-Family Employees - Before, During and After a Family Business Succession” at The Centennial Inn in Concord Wednesday, March 4, 2015. Registration and coffee start at 8 a.m. Lunch and networking will follow at noon.

This highly interactive session will feature a panel of family business experts as well as family business owners offering techniques for identification of problems and sharing their experiences and hands-on strategies for dealing with long-term employees. They will discuss succession planning during management change, how to identify potential problem employees and how to utilize key non-family during succession.

Legal topics covered will include federal and state age discrimination laws, options available when succession planning is met with resistance and a roadmap for managing expectations and the steps to take (or not take) during the termination process.

This event is free to members. There is a special one-time, trial, nonmember registration fee of $99 per person. To register, call Barbara Draper at 862-1107 or barbara.draper@unh.edu.
