

Excellence in International Engagement

Mary Malone honored at faculty excellence ceremony

Monday, December 11, 2017

Mary Malone says one thing she loves about UNH is that the students are so active politically. “They have really strong opinions about what’s going on in the world, and they’re really interested in actually learning more to inform their opinions,” says the associate professor of political science. Malone received the Excellence in International Engagement Award at the recent faculty excellence ceremony.
