Well into my junior year at the University of New Hampshire, the number of opportunities and events offered on campus still hasn't ceased to amaze me. Each semester is filled with countless chances to get involved and broaden horizons. These events range from those focused on professional development, to sports games, cultural celebrations, and theatrical productions. Each of these offers a great way to connect with fellow Wildcats and make new friends. In case you're at a loss for what is scheduled this semester thus far, check out this list below and get ready to note many in your planner!
